The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

THIRD READING CALENDAR

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1018, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 25 1955 (P. L. 273) entitled "An act authorizing counties cities borough incorporated towns townships school districts poor districts and county institution districts to file and municipal claims not filed within the time specified by law and to amend such claims when the property affected is not sufficiently described and to file suggestions of nonpayment and averments of default or to sue out writs of scire facias on certain tax or municipal claims and to revive judgments where the lien of such claims or the judgments thereon have been lost and providing for the reinstatement of the liens of such claims and judgments" extending the time during which poltical subdivisions may act under the provisions thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1675, entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Commonwealth for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I hope that the Majority realizes that we on the Democratic side are not wholeheartedly in agreement with the number of cuts which were placed in House Bill No. 1675. I imagine that when we pass it today, it is going to go to a Conference Committee.

Therefore, Mr. President, with that understanding, we are going to vote for the bill. However, I expect that we will be at ease for a moment now because the second team is over here.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1990, entitled:

An Act authorizing and directing the Governor on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to execute an interstate compact concerning mental health and for related purposes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, by way of explanation, I might say that this amendment adds the words "care, treatment, after-care, supervision" to the bill.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, (Art. VII), page 8, line 10, by inserting after "the" where it appears the second time: "institutionalization, care, treatment, after-care, supervision or."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1990, Printer's No. 1477, on third reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING, AMENDMENT OFFERED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2017, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905) entitled "The Vehicle Code" further regulating the passing of school buses and prescribing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, House Bill No. 2017 has been before the Membership for quite some time and I agree that it is, in all probability, good, constructive legislation.

However, in going over this particular bill, myself and a number of others on our side are quite disturbed about the subject matter contained in paragraph (d), on page 4, whereby it reads that:

"On highways having dual or multiple roadways separated by safety islands or physical traffic separation installations or center traffic line markings the driver of a vehicle on another roadway approaching a school bus which has stopped for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school child shall reduce the speed of his vehicle to not more than fifteen miles per hour and shall not resume normal speed until his vehicle has passed the school bus and any child who may have alighted therefrom or is about to enter the school bus."

Mr. President, we are thinking about the small school child who is maybe six or seven years of age and alights from a school bus, and we have vehicles approaching in the opposite direction. In all probability that child will be unable to get across that road.

We included in that section the words: "or center traffic line markings." That would mean, in my opinion, a white line which would be drawn down along the highway, and this child would take an awful chance with his life under this bill and I cannot vote for it in its present form. I understand, too, that even the American Federation of Labor is for the bill, but I cannot vote for it because I feel it is going to jeopardize the life of some little child. I would not want to stand here and vote for anything which I thought might hurt one child.

Therefore, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment, which will delete the portion contained on page 4, line 6, stating, "or center traffic line markings."

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1017.1), page 4, lines 6 and 7, by striking out "or center traffic line markings."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I am sure the gentleman from Washington, Senator Lane, has every good motive in offering this amendment. I am also sure that without exception on both sides of this Senate, we are all for the extreme in safety on the highways, especially as it pertains to school children. I think, too, we could come to an agreement that there is no way by legislation that we can take a group of these little children who are attending school, especially at the younger ages, across a four-lane highway without any danger whatever. If any such measure can be devised—

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, may we have a little order? I want to hear Senator Wade's speech.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the Senate be in order? Will the conversation outside of rail cease? This is a very important measure; this amendment is very important and the answer which Senator Wade is giving is most important to all the Members.

Mr. WADE. If there could be a way devised to get the little children across a four-lane highway in absolute safety, I am sure that every Member of this body, and the House of Representatives as well, would vote for it.

Senator Lane's attempt, I think is an honest one to make the law a little safer than it is now. However, this is the recommendation of the National Committee on Uniform Traffic Regulations.

Mr. President, if I may, I will read from a section of the State Police Regulations to show the reason why the white line is included in this bill. I shall read from this regulation an opinion handed down by the then Attorney General to the Department of Revenue, and I quote:

"Driving on Divided Highways. Whenever any highway has been divided into two roadways by leaving an intervening space or by a physical barrier or clearly indicated dividing section so constructed as to impede vehicular traffic, every vehicle shall be driven only on the right-hand roadway," and so forth.

The reason the white line provision is in this bill is to clearly denote that it is an indication dividing the highway. Again, I repeat that I believe every Member of this body is extremely anxious to amend this law to make it safer if possible. I, for one, believe that the provision requiring the white line is a step in that direction.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, about two days ago I was going to offer the same amendment as Senator Lane has offered, because I felt that a white line perhaps was not a marking which would be distinctive enough to separate the two portions of the highway into two separate roadways. However, upon checking with Mr. Cahalan, of the State Police, he told me about the regulation which was read by Senator Wade. Mr. Cahalan told me that under the present law, an automobile passing a school bus in the opposite direction on a four-lane highway, where that highway is separated by a white line, could travel as fast as fifty miles per hour and the State Police are powerless to do anything about it.

Mr. President, this bill, if enacted into law, will slow that car down to at least fifteen miles per hour. It is our desire to obtain uniformity throughout the Commonwealth for all four-lane highways, whether the two lanes are separated by the mushroom type of structure, white line, raised platform of some kind or a grass plot separating the two roadways, so that all people traveling on four-lane highways in the State of Pennsylvania will know what their responsibility is when they approach a school bus going either in the same direction as they are or in the opposite direction. Because of the uniformity of the law in this connection, it is deemed that it will result in a higher degree of safety on these highways throughout the Commonwealth for the school children.

Mr. President, with that explanation from the State Police representative and also because we now know of the rules and regulations covering our school bus stop law, we should not accept this amendment and we should vote for the bill as it appears.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, the State Policeman also talked with me. However, if we are going to believe that we can enforce this by having a policeman at every school bus stop, it is sort of silly and ridiculous. As a matter of fact, I do not believe they can enforce this bill because in the provisions of the Motor Code today, I believe it provides that a vehicle must be followed at least one-eighth of a mile before it can be stopped for speeding. The police have to have a speedometer which is certified as correct. Is that going to be the case here? Are you going to have a white line one-eighth of a mile? I do not think they can do it.

Mr. President, I do not want to be arbitrary about this and I do not suppose that my amendment is going to get anywhere, but I have to live with myself. I am going to tell you right now that if these amendments fail, I am going to vote against this bill. I will then feel that I have done the right thing. I am not going to be a party to murdering our little children on the highways by passing legislation such as this.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

(A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, it is interesting to learn that an Attorney General and some people in the State Police Department have said that a white line in the middle of the road is the same thing as a physical break in the road when you and I know that it is not the same thing. It is very easy to say that it is, but from the standpoint of what the situation is, it is not.

A statement was made by Senator Wade, I believe, indicating that it is just impossible on a four-lane highway to make a safe way for children to cross the road. Whether the highway is two-lane, four-lane or six-lane, if we have the rule that when a school bus stops, all traffic stops and remains stopped until the children have crossed the road, that is the way to make that road safe for those children. I do not care how many lanes a road has; the only way to make it safe is to have the traffic stop.

Mr. President, I think the prime thing at issue here is the safety of children. School districts do not, whenever they can avoid it, have their buses stop on any highways that have a large amount of fast traffic. It is ridiculous to expect that this fifteen mile an hour provision will be obeyed if you say that it is difficult to get the stopping provision to be obeyed, because a fifteen mile an hour pace is one that is impossible for anyone to clock and it is a pace fast enough, I might say, to kill a child who goes across that road in the expectation that he is safe when the bus stops.

I, personally, Mr. President, am going to vote "no" because I consider this bad legislation as far as children's safety is concerned.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in talking with one of the co-sponsors of this legislation, I find that all he wanted to do was have inserted in the bill a jail sentence instead of a fine. Representative Murray advises me now that he does not want to own this bill in this particular form. As a matter of fact, he wants nothing to do with it and he, himself, opposes the bill. I do not think we should vote for it.

This is not a political matter. I think two of the sponsors are Democrats. We are doing the wrong thing when we pass this bill, and I am asking you to forget partisanism and think about our little children on these highways. I had an experience one time, gentlemen. I lived along the main highway and there was a car which came down the road and hit a little boy about six years of age. The car threw the boy up in the air about fifteen feet and that poor, little boy's skull hit that concrete and it sounded like someone mashing up a walnut. They took that boy to the hospital but, of course, he was dead, due to carelessness on our highways.

Mr. President, Pennsylvania is spending millions of dollars to make its highways modern and we should spend a little money to protect our children, because you cannot bring one life back. When you vote for this legislation, you certainly are voting to commit the murder of our children on these highways.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 2017, Printer's No. 1681, on final passage, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unaimous consent that House Bill No. 2096, Printer's No. 1775, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2104, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 7 1937 (P. L. 589) entitled as amended "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth under certain terms conditions and limitations of certain streets in cities of the first class as State highways and for the improvement construction reconstruction resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of said streets * * *" changing certain routes and adding a new route

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2107, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 5 1935 (P. L. 266) entitled "An act to protect trade-mark owners distributors and the public against injuries and uneconomic practices in the distribution of articles of standard quality under a distinguished trade-mark brand or name" further regulating exceptions to contracts of sale and actions at law for unfair competition

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, may we be at ease a moment?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will be at ease.

(The Senate was at ease.)

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, this bill is rather deceptive and I think there is a lot more to it than what meets the eye on a casual reading of it. I think, as it stands, it can be so construed that it means the death knell of fair trade in Pennsylvania.

I do not know whether the Members of the Senate are for or against fair trade as a matter of policy, but I do think we should consider, before voting on the bill, that that is a possibility. I do not think that is the intent of the bill, but the way it is so worded is that, as a practical matter, it would be impossible to enforce an action for violation of the fair trade act in Pennsylvania if this bill is strictly construed by the courts.

For that reason, Mr. President, I would ask that the bill go over in order until tomorrow, so that the Members will have a better opportunity to study it, particularly in light of the discussion which some of us have had and vote on it tomorrow.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I just merely wanted to add to what the Senator from Lackawanna said, in that every small storekeeper and every person who has a small individual business is only able to stay in business because of this fair trade act, and I think they are for this bill and have voiced their opinion once in this Session when this bill or a similar bill was in this Body.

I also would like to add that some of the people, who buy in large volumes, are very anxious for this type of act to go through because they eventually could put out all the small, little businessmen who have made up the very backbone of economic fiber in this Country.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 2107, Printer's No. 1818, on final passage, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, yesterday on the floor, I introduced a series of discharge resolutions pertaining to the railroad industry. At that time, I had another resolution concerning House Bill No. 397, an act requiring common carriers by railroad to furnish flag protection to all trains occupying main tracks and imposing duties on the Public Utility Commission.

The reason I did not put this resolution before the Senate yesterday was because I have been trying to work with the representatives of the railroads, the representatives of the various unions and the spokesmen for the unions up here on the Hill, in an attempt to reach some kind of a compromise. I had hoped that we would be able to work out a solution in this particular bill that would give both sides some measure of satisfaction. However, this afternoon, about 1:00 o'clock, I was informed by the representative of the railorad that their legal counsel took the position, after study, and he informed me that it was a very serious and earnest study, that there was no manner in which we could amend this bill that would not place what they termed to be a prohibitive cost upon the railroads in this Commonwealth.

Therefore, Mr. President, I come before you at this moment to give you what I know of the legislation in order that you may make a decision as to whether the question is one of money or whether the question is one of safety and the lives of employees of the railroads.

House Bill No. 397 requires all common carriers by railroad to furnish flag protection. This provision is in accordance with historic procedure on the railroads of the Nation. To my knowledge, only the Pennsylvania Railroad, of all the trunk line railroads, deviates from this practice. On all the other railroads, this is an absolute rule. Failure to comply with this rule, in all of its aspects, leaves those who violate the tenets of this rule subject to discipline and, in most instances, dismissal.

Section 1 makes it unlawful for any common carrier by railroad to operate or permit to be operated on or over its main tracks, in this Commonwealth, any passenger train, freight train, or any other train or lomcomotive, unless the train or lomotive has a qualified flagman on the crew. The flagman must be stationed at or near the rear end of the train or locomotive for the purpose of providing flag protection when the train or locomotive is stopped or delayed under such circumstances that it may be overtaken by following train or locomotive.

I would like to point out that a safe operation should know no bounds and certainly this requirement only implements the practice which prevails on most of the railroads, through rules which they have promulgated of their own volition. Rule 99, in the operating manual of most railorads, is comparable to the provisions of House Bill No. 397 and, generally speaking, with the exception of very few railroads, is by and large an absolute rule in full force and effect and no deviation from this principle is permitted.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I have learned, through my negotiations with both sides, that in Pennsylvania the B. & O. Railroad, operating within the confines of this State, the P. & L. E., operating within the confines of this State, and many of the short line roads already have in effect the provisions of this Act. The Pennsylvania Railroad has this same provision in effect in every other State where it operates except the State of Pennsylvania. For many years, this has been a bone of contention.

As I stated yesterday, because of the nature of the employment of the men who work for the railroads, strikes are very rare. When they go out on strike, they injure a great many fellow citizens who must go back and forth to work and to and from their business places. They, therefore, have been sacrificed to the lamb of financial security for the railroads for the simple reason that they do hesitate to go out on strike to add another flagman to the crew.

If it is proper and safe, Mr. President, and a safe rule of conduct to place a flagman to the rear of the train when it is stopped out on the main tracks or any other tracks of the railroad, then is it not just as necessary to have a flagman at the front of that train? There are a great many of the Railroad Brotherhood Members who know by the sad experience of injury and, in many cases, the families have felt the cruel blow of death because of the lack of proper safety supervision on the railroads of this State. I am sure that the Members of this Senate will not be shedding too many tears when the question is one of money, when all of us know, from reading the financial pages of our State newspapers and the Nation's newspapers, that the Pennsylvania Railroad has reached its highest earning peak in its entire history. In this last quarter, its earnings were some twenty-three or twenty-four per cent higher than the previous quarter.

Mr. President, I have always said that I believe in a healthy and properous industry. However, I also believe in a healthy and prosperous people. One without the other is incompatible in my mind.

Therefore, Mr. President, I offer to the Senate this opportunity to correct an evil of long standing and to give aid and comfort to those who are employed on the railroads of this State.

SENATE RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON LAW AND ORDER FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 397

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a discharge resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 17, 1956.

Resolved, That House Bill No. 397, entitled "An Act requiring common carriers by railroad to furnish flag protection to all trains occupying the main tracks; imposing duties on the Public Utility Commission, and providing penalties," having been referred to the Committee on Law and Order on May 10, 1955, and the Committee not having reported the same to the Senate for a period of over ten days, the Committee is discharged from further consideration thereof.

MOTION TO ADOPT DISCHARGE RESOLUTION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read by the Clerk be adopted.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The roll was called and was as follows:

YEAS—21

Barr,	Haluska,	McMenamin,	Seyler,
Camiel,	Hays,	Miller,	Silvert,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 873

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I submit the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 873, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103), entitled "The Second Class Township Law," prescribing duties and limitations for township supervisors as to holding other township offices, the number of meetings to be held, keeping of records and fixing compensation of certain township officers; changing the expense allowances for delegates to supervisors convention and the officers eligible to attend; fixing the procedure for selling township property; making tax exempt properties liable for certain costs for fire protection; prescribing duties of auditors and fixing compensation of members of zoning board of adjustment; providing for the construction of sidewalks and curbs and the payment therefor; changing the provisions relating to abandoned cemeteries, the publication of ordinances, connecting with sewers of adjacent municipalities, and the dedication, laying out, opening, improving, changing, relocating, taking over and vacating roads, streets and highways.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 999

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I submit the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 999, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 20, 1949 (P. L. 1591) entitled "An Act providing for the compensation of the mayor, council and appointed officers in cities of the second class A" increasing the compensation of the mayor and appointed officers in cities of the second class A.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. This report of Committee of Conference will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1295

Mr. HARNEY. Mr. President, I submit the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1295, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Agriculture to assist the Commonwealth's 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America dairy show program by paying the expenses of holding the six existing 4-H Dairy Club and F. F. A. district dairy shows and in addition a State Wide show to be held in the Fall of the year as preliminary to the State Farm Show.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BLASS, from the Committee on State Government, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1026, entitled:

An Act authorizing and empowering any administrative department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania when so designated by the Governor to cooperate with the United States in the distribution and use of surplus foods and commodities.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair heas none.

Mr. WATSON, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nomination, made by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 3, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Dr. Charles H. Boehm, Yardley Road, Morrisville, Bucks County, for appointment as Superintendent of Public Instruction, for the term of four years, to compute from April 15, 1956, vice Hon. Francis B. Haas, Harrisburg, resigned.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATION

Mr. WATSON asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nomination read by the Clerk.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS, That the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nomination reported at today's Session.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS, That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, a short time ago Senator Donolow talked on Senate Bill No. 1110, which relates to the commutation and diminution of sentences to persons convicted of the unlawful possession, selling, dispensing or giving away of drugs. This bill was put in my committee a day or two ago. The only reason we did not report it out at that time was because we thought there would not be a sufficient number of days remaining in the Session for it to clear the Senate and the House. If there are a sufficient number of days however—we do not know exactly when we are going to adjourn—we may be able to act on this bill.

For that reason, Mr. President, I am reporting Senate Bill No. 1110 from the Rules Committee, as committed, and also House Bill No. 2117, as amended.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY, from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1110, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 11, 1901 (P. L. 166) entitled "An act providing for the commutation of sentences for good behavior of convicts in prisons penitentiaries workhouses and county jails of this state and regulations governing the same" denying commutation or diminution of sentence to persons convicted of the unlawful possession selling dispensing or giving away of drugs.

He also, from the Committee on Rules, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2117, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the salaries of officers and employes mileage of members and payment of postage.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER CONCERNING SCHEDULED CEREMONY

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, we had scheduled a little ceremony to take place here at four o'clock, Daylight Saving Time. We are now about an hour late in having it. I would suggest that we take up that ceremony at the present time and send a messenger to get our Lieutenant-Governor, Roy Furman, to come to the Senate Chamber if he finds it possible to do so.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. May I ask the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany, if it is his intention to recess and come back for the Second Reading Calendar?

Mr. MAHANY. If you will send for the Lieutenant-Governor, then we can go on here until such time as he appears.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Would the messenger please produce the Lieutenant-Governor?

CEREMONY HONORING SENATE LEADERSHIP

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will be in order.

We are just a little bit late, an hour and twelve minutes beyond the hour we had set for the time-honored custom of having a little farewell party for the Members of the Senate at which we pay honor to the leadership on both sides of the Senate and the President of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

I want to say to all the Members that I hope they will pay attention for just a moment. At the conclusion of these ceremonies, we have a buffet and a reception down in the Committee Rooms on E Floor. That is where Senator Mahany's and Senator Pechan's offices are located and where the Highways Committee meets. We hope that every Member of the Senate and their friends will come down to the reception.

Now that the Lieutenant-Governor has been able to return from his duties on the Pardons Board and is here, I would like to, at this time, recognize the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair

PRESENTATION TO LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR ROY E. FURMAN, PRESIDENT OF SENATE

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, a short time ago we heard Senator Wagner, in a very elegant way, tell us about some things that had happened in this Session. One thing, particularly, that came as news to me was that this has been a very long Session. Senator Seyler well answered Senator Wagner and used those same expressions. I am sorry that our Lieutenant-Governor was not in the hall of the Senate at the time. He was attending to other official duties. However, anyone who is missing this is not missing anything and, apparently, that has unanimous approval.

I have the happy privilege this afternoon of paying tribute to some of our Senators here in the Senate. Particularly, at this time, I want to, on behalf of all the Membership of this Senate, present a little token of the esteem and admiration of this entire Body.

This afternoon, as I said awhile ago, we passed a rather large appropriation bill. We passed it quietly and with all votes. We have come to the place in this Session, I hope, where things we say do not amount to very much anymore. I know of a life insurance meeting, which was held recently at one of the local hotels, where the gentleman from the platform said, "According to the American table of mortality, when we reach the age of seventy-three, there are eighteen per cent more women living than men." One of the boys who was attending and who had partaken of a rather generous—both liquid and solid—luncheon said, "Well, who in the world cares how many women there are around at that age?"

Some of my colleagues, I am happy to say, do not comply with the American table of mortality. They are proving that it is an antiquated table. However, there is one gentleman here for whom I am sorry I do not have some token because he is a fine leader. He said the other day, when we were paying some tribute to one of the Members from Lackawanna County, that he was the only Member who apparently had gotten anything done during this long Session.

Mr. President, during our long debates here, we have just been trying to adjust government and our economy with the changing value of the dollar. Seriously, I think we might take cogninzance of the fact that even though our budget seemed high and our obligations high and the load a little heavy at times, perhaps we should remember that the taxpayers of the State of Pennsylvania still pay $8.00 to the Federal Government for every $1.00 for State government.

It is not my duty to create any new debates or discussions and I have the honor, as I said awhile ago, of presenting to our President, the Lieutenant-Governor, a little token of the esteem and admiration in which every Member of this Body holds him. I have had the privilege of attending Sessions here under four other Presiding Officers, the Honorable Samuel Lewis, the Honorable Daniel Strickler, the Honorable Lloyd Wood and the Honorable Jack Bell, now Judge Bell. I am sure that none of those Presiding Officers—and they were all good—were more fair in their decisions, and in recognizing both sides of the Senate, than our distinguished Lieutenant-Governor, the Honorable Roy E. Furman.

Therefore, Mr. President, on behalf of the entire Membership, which knows him more intimately as "Fast and Furious Furman," I present these little tokens of our esteem and admiration.

The PRESIDENT. Thank you very much, Senator Wade, and all the Senators of this Senate of Pennsylvania. I rather feel that I am not deserving of all this. However, I will say to you that I appreciate it very, very much.

In the statement that Senator Wade made, I do not know whether he was referring to my age or not. I can assure him, though, that I am glad there are more women than men in the United States.

I might say that, in presiding over this Body, it has been one of the most pleasant duties that I have ever had. It is not a tough job because all the Members of this Senate are good Members and they have conducted themselves properly, even though many times people have said to me what a hard job it is. I have said to them that it has been very, very easy and it has been easy because there has been a spirit of cooperation at all times, even though there has been disagreement over policies among the Members of the Senate. For that reason, it has made the job very easy for me.

Although it has been a long Session, I sincerely have enjoyed it very, very much. I certainly hope to have the same cooperation in the next Session, which will start in a few months from now.

I, again, thank the Members for this beautiful gift and I will long remember it and remember the spirit in which it was given. Thank you very, very much.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR M. HARVEY TAYLOR, PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE OF SENATE

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I saw our old friend, Pete Wambach, in the Senate about a half-hour ago. I think you all know Pete. He has been around this town for a good many years and I said, "Pete, I am going to present some gifts to some of my fine Republican friends and I wish you would dash me off a poem." I am going to read the poem he wrote for me. I think you will get a kick out of it, especially those of you on the Republican side, as we did on this side. The poem is as follows:

"There are strange things done in the midnight sun
in the room where the Senate grifts,
But the strangest thing is that Democrats should give Republicans gifts;
But in a spirit charitable, and with a hard-pressed smile,
We prove that the spirit of charity is on this side of the aisle.

That we should give these gifts to them—our guests must think it zany,

For we owe nothing to Taylor, Pechan, Berger or Mahany;

And it would be quite proper if in those boxes there,

We'd have a gift of emptiness, just boxes of hot air.

But no, in spirit charitable we Democrats combine,

To give the other side the gifts of light and gifts of time;

The gift of time, a calendar to mark each daily notch,

They've turned the hours into months, but we give them a watch.

And in another box, we give a lighter for its spark,

Which will light their way, for heaven knows they're always in the dark;

So Pechan, Taylor, Berger and Mahany now no fuss,

Here are your watch and lighters, now what've you got for us?"

Seriously, Mr. President, I am addressing my remarks now to my good friend and erstwhile enemy, the President pro tempore, Senator M. Harvey Taylor. I want to say that whatever our differences have been in politics, we are like lawyers who fight one another violently in court and then go out and have a good steak dinner together.

Senator Taylor and I have been in opposite political trenches for many years and we have both fought for the principles in which we believe. I have often presented him with some sharp appraisals of the party he has served and he has never spared the rod in blasting my political party.

Through the years I have been in the same company as Senator Taylor at many social gatherings and never has either one of us gone over to a corner and sulked. Besides, he is bigger than I am, although I think I can outrun him.

Today, as we head down the homestretch—and poor old Harvey must go to Philadelphia tomorrow—I would like to present this gift in the spirit of good fellowship. After this little shindig is over, Harvey and I will go downstairs to have a drink of some kind of juniper juice and I will give him the first slug out of the bottle.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, when you are pushing eighty, you do not care how many women are around. I want to say to Joe Barr that I do not care how fast he can run, just so he cannot run any faster than I, politically.

I do not know how to thank you people for this. You have been so kind to me for so many years that I always get a lump in my throat. Thank you.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JOHN H. DENT, MINORITY LEADER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, may I add a word to what Senator Barr said just a moment ago? One of the finest things about this club, known as the Pennsylvania Senate, is the friendships which have developed over the many years and that those friendships do not stop at party lines. Regardless of how heated a debate is in this Chamber, when the debate ceases friendships continue as before.

I should have said to the Honorable Roy Furman that I also have an S. S. S. Certificate for him, as I have for the next recipient of the generosity of the Membership of this Senate.

I might say that several months ago, when the Honorable David Lawrence, Mayor of Pittsburgh, called up and asked me if I could move over and make room for another Member of the Senate in the Thirty-First District, I generously acceded to that wish immediately because I felt it might be the Lieutenant-Governor. However, it developed into being Senator Barr. He and I are now both members of the Thirty-First District and we get along fine. We have developed a warm friendship and our families have carried on with that friendship.

Mr. President, now it is my pleasant duty to present to a gentleman, known to his intimate friends as "Silent John Dent," a little token of our esteem, admiration and friendship and a certificate in the S.S.S. Club.

To you, Johnny, our best wishes. We hope that we will have the privilege of hearing you again next Session.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, for a moment I thought the bankers were appreciating the action we took this afternoon.

Mr. President, Members of the Senate, Lieutenant-Governor, my closet friends and admirers, the newspaper fraternity, and my friends who are here this afternoon, I notice that they are giving me a watch. A watch reminds me of a story that probably was the reasoning behind the selection of this very fine timepiece. As you all know, I am a man of very few words. However, I do use them quite often. Maybe this is to remind me because most of you notice that I very seldom wear a watch. It reminds me of a fellow who was making a speech and after he had talked for quite a long, long time, he started fumbling around and he said, "You know, if I have talked too long it is because I do not have a watch." A wise guy in the rear of the audience said, "Mr., it is too late for a watch; there is a calendar right behind you."

Gentlemen of the Senate, we are reaching, I hope, the last days of this Session. We have had some moments when I thought that I would be mad enough at all of you over there to never even talk to you again, let alone sit down and eat with you. However, the funny thing about it is that when I go through the swinging gates of this Senate Chamber, for some reason or another, I am just mad at nobody. I find that all of the things we believe are so important, and all of the crises that we have before us on important legislation, melt away with the sinking of the sun at night. Tomorrow always brings forth a new sun and the warmth of a new day and an opportunity to renew the friendships I have enjoyed for twenty-two years.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Thank you, Senator Dent.

MRS. ROY E. FURMAN, MRS. JOHN H. DENT, MRS. JOHN J. HALUSKA AND MRS. JOSEPH M. BARR PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to add to what Senator Wade said about the Lieutenant-Governor in that this is about the first time in the twenty years I have been here that we have had a Lieutenant-Governor who had a right eye. The Republican Lieutenant-Governors all had one eye.

Before going any further, I would like to present to the Senate the wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, Mrs. Furman; the wife of the Minority Leader, Mrs. Dent; the wife of our Caucus Chairman, Mrs. Haluska; and the wife of the real Senator from the Thirty-First District, Mrs. Barr.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR ROWLAND B. MAHANY, MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, we have been here for almost seventeen months. Twelve months have been taken up by Senator Dent and Senator Mahany talking, and during the other five months the other forty-five of us got a few words in edgewise.

Truely, however, I want to say to Senator Mahany that I count him as one of my personal friends and as one of my fair political enemies. My friendship for him goes beyond Senator Mahany; it extends to his wife, Mabel, and his son, Dickey. I have had many pleasant times with them when they have come down to our fair city of Pittsburgh. I have also had the pleasure of visiting with them in Florida, and I will miss Rowland when this Session is over. As the Majority Leader, I think he has been a fair and square person. He has called the shots as he has seen them and not as we have seen them.

In closing, I hope that Senator Mahany will be the leader next year, although I think he will be the Minority Leader, and it is with pleasure that I present to him this token of our esteem.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, the last statement that Senator Barr made is just wishful thinking. I feel quite sure that the leader on this side will be the Majority Leader.

I certainly appreciate this very fine gift. We are all going to be known here as Republicans with all of us having similar gifts. We will have the watch to keep track of the time and the lighters to make our lives a little bit lighter, perhaps. I do not want to go on here at great length because it is becoming quite gushy. The syrup is really flowing over this green carpet like it never flowed before.

There is one gift that I thought the Senator would give me, in addition to the lighter and the watch, and that is the gift of his great amanuensis, that artistic gentleman of the poison pen. I speak of George Pennington. I thought perhaps you might let me have him for a little while, just in order for me to make up a poem to shoot back at you.

Even though the Session might end some day, Senator Barr is not going to miss seeing me because I expect to go down to Pittsburgh and play golf with him. Outside of his being in Chicago for a little while, where I feel he will be quite as busy there as Senator Taylor will be in Philadelphia next Saturday, we will probably be seeing quite a bit of each other. I hope that by that time, too, my wife and little boy, Dicky, will be able to join me here in Pennsylvania. That is one of the regrets that I had about this long Session. I had intended to spend some time down in the sunny South this last winter. However, due to fact that Senator Dent talked so long and Governor Leader could not make up his mind, it was necessary for me to stay here in Pennsylvania instead of being down there in that gay land of Florida.

Anytime Senator Barr or any of the other fellows can get together with me, I will certainly appreciate the honor of having you. I hope that perhaps all of us can have a little Session of the Senate down in Pompano Beach next year.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR FRANK W. RUTH, MINORITY WHIP

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, to get on with our program, may I say to Mrs. Furman that certainly the statement made by Senator Barr is correct. Lieutenant-Governor Furman has two eyes. I sometimes think he has more than two eyes because not long ago, in one of the consent Sessions, he announced the vote as 47-0. In looking around the hall of the Senate, I could not count very many Senators until I took a second count and then I saw "Senator Thompson," Senator Flynn," "Senator Hines," "Senator Peters," "Senator Musselman," "Senator Cameron," "Senator Davis," who is known as "Killer Davis" at times, "Senator Reiter," Senator Lindgren," "Senator Holton," and "Senator Pennington." Incidentally, "Senator Pennington" himself made the suggestion this afternoon—and certainly it is in the tenor of this meeting—that the Republican Party create a new club and instead of the G.O.P., it should be G.R.O.P., "Get Rid of Pennington."

I also saw in attendance at that particular time "Senator Baer," "Senator Kaminski," "Senator Scotzin," "Senator Bohr" and "Senator Tiny "Hafer."

Now, Mr. President, it is my happy duty to make a presentation to a Member who has served long and faithfully in the Senate and in the House as well. I remember him very well when I served in the House quite a long time ago. He has served here in a dual capacity very frequently, and I say in all sincerity that I never knew anyone, minister or otherwise, who could offer the fine prayers that Senator Ruth offers. It is now my happy privilege to present to Senator Ruth, known to his good friends as 'Rough and Ready Ruth," a little token of the admiration of his colleagues.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, Senator Wade and fellow Senators, I certainly appreciate this gift. I have been here a long time; it is my twenty-third Session and, as nearly as I remember. I missed one day during this Session. That was due to the fact that the dentist called me there.

There are many things we learn during the years. There is one thing, however, I never knew until a few weeks ago. When I came in here more than twenty years ago, I was amazed at the very comfortable chairs we have here. I did not know the reason why until a few weeks ago. I heard a man say that the mind can only consume as much as the seat can endure. Perhaps that is the reason these chairs were put in here.

I have enjoyed my work very much here and I have always tried to render every service I could. I am beyond the time when I get overly excited about anything. I know it does not work out. I have enjoyed my work here and I hope we can work together for a long time.

I want to thank you very much for this gift.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR ALBERT R. PECHAN, MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the next fellow on the Hit Parade is the "Pitt Panther." His hours are by appointment and his office is in Ford City. If any of your people want one hundred per cent dental work performed, with a good fair price, see Doctor Pechan.

I have known Senator Pechan since before he was a dentist. His fraternity was just a half block from where my fraternity was, on Bellevue Avenue in Pittsburgh. Senator Pechan was a member of the A.T.O. He is one of those smart fellows; he got married while he was still in college. I think that is the reason why he turned out to be the doctor he is and the good politician that he is.

I do not know how Senator Mahany would have gotten along without him. Anytime Senator Mahany was absent from the Senate, there was Senator Pechan standing at the loud speaker. I will say that he has been a good Whip. He has kept the twenty-six fellows, to our despair, in their chairs when we hoped they would not be there. That is not an easy job, with all the departments there are around Capitol Hill and the errands which our fellows have to run. However, Doc tells his fellows that they must run them when we are not in Session.

Senator Pechan, on behalf of all the Members of the Senate, I want to present to you a watch and a lighter.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I am a bit like "Pop-Pop"; I am moved with a little bit of a lump in my throat.

Senator Barr referred to me as a dentist, and I am just wondering whether I am either fish or fowl anymore since I have come to the Senate. My patients back in Ford City say that I am more interested in politics than I am in teeth. Down in the Republican Caucus, when we are arguing, my fellow Senators say that they believe I am a better dentist than I am a Senator. I really do not know where I stand. When Senator Lane sees me coming to the microphone, he says, "There is the second team." When Senator Holland was here, he called me the "galley slave." However, all in all, I have enjoyed it very much. It has been a little rough on my health, I guess.

When I first came down here, seventeen months ago, I thought I would give up fishing. I thought I could do that as a hobby. I got to love it here and I have made some great friends. I want to say that the closest friends I have in this world are Members on both sides of this aisle.

I want to thank you very much.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JOHN J. HALUSKA, MINORITY CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, my final pleasant duty is to present, in addition to other things, a certificate in the S.S.S. Club, with dues paid in full, to Senator Ruth and another Senator, as well. You may be somewhat interested in knowing what the S.S.S. Club is; it is known as the "Short and Snappy Session Club."

Seriously, Mr. President, I want to tell of a little incident that happened on the West Shore some recent years ago when we had a bad flood. Members of the American Legion were using boats to take folks out of their homes, sometimes out of the upper stories of their homes. During the process of this, some folks who were with me in a boat noticed, in what would be the yard of a residence, a straw hat float down a certain distance and then make a complete right angle turn and go across what would perhaps be the yard, which was then under water, and then turn and come back to the place of beginning. It did that several times and, finally, we made inquiry as to what this unusual phenomenon was. One of the men explained to us that that was grandpa and, come hell or high water, he mowed the lawn on Wednesday.

The last presentation is to a man affectionately known to his colleagues and all Members of the Senate as "Hell or High Water Hoxsey Haluska." It is now my pleasure to present this gift to Senator Haluska, who will fight strongly for anything in which he believes and certainly every Member of this Senate hopes and prays that the thing in which he is engaged will develop as he fully expects. My congratulations to him for the strong fight he puts up and our best wishes to him in the days ahead.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I do not know how any Senate Caucus Chairman merits a gift. We had twenty-four Members, with twenty-four talking at one time. It was my duty to pick one of them out. Now when you drop that gavel, everybody jumps. I never knew how badly it sounded until last week when I was in deep study and my good friend and neighbor, Senator Lane, picked up my gavel and dropped it and I jumped three feet. I realize now just how mean I have been.

I do appreciate this gift given by my colleagues and I appreciate the kind remarks made by Senator Wade. I want to tell him that I want to come back next year and talk about Hoxsey because I believe in what I said throughout the Session. I am fighting for a cause; I am fighting for God and Country. I hope that I shall live long enough to prove to my colleagues those words.

Again, I thank you most kindly for the courtesies you have shown me throughout this Session and I hope to be back with most of you next Session.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JAMES S. BERGER, MAJORITY CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I am having the usual interference from my friends, the Newspaper Correspondents. They said that I should tell Senator Berger that we will not give him anything until he gets those bills out.

Mr. President, we refer to Senator Berger as the "Mighty Mite," and when he sets his course he is hard to change. I think he does a remarkable job in conducting that Republican Caucus. I will say that he also does a remarkable job in keeping quiet about what goes on in the Republican Caucus, and, I think that is a thing to be admired in anyone politically. Caucuses are like a meeting of a family; what goes on there is no one else's business.

Jim comes from Potter County where I used to think there were more bears than people. I also found out in 1954 that the people up there are very smart. They sent a Democrat to the House of Representatives and I never thought the day would come when the backyard of Mason Owlett would be electing a Democratic House Member.

I want to say, in conclusion, that I wish Senator Berger the best of luck. If they let us out here during hunting season, I will be up in Potter County to do a little hunting with you. On behalf of all the Members of the Senate, I wish you and the members of your family everything which is good and everything which is nice.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to thank you very sincerely for this kind remembrance and I want to thank Joe Barr for the kind words that accompanied it. Even bears make mistakes sometimes and we trust that it will not happen again.

Mr. President, I know the hour is growing late and there are other activities to be indulged in. I cannot miss this opportunity, however, to say to my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, and to the friends that I believe I have made both inside the aisle and outside of it, that it has been a genuine pleasure and privilege to associate with you as one of your colleagues and to all of you I hope not only long life and happiness, but I can even at this mellow moment say to all of you I wish you political success as well. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. We will try to get through with this in a very few moments. However, I do want to say, as Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, just a word of caution to Senator Taylor, Governor Furman, Senator Dent and Senator Mahany.

I would suggest to them that they check up on Senator Wade and Senator Barr; they are cheating them. They have another present coming to them. I do not know why Senator Barr and Senator Wade did not give it to them, but each of them has something additional to be received. There are radios sitting over here for each of them; I do not know why they were not presented.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, our apologies, but we thought the gentlemen had heard too much already.

PRESENTATION TO SECRETARY OF SENATE, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF SENATE, CHIEF CLERK OF SENATE, SENATE LIBRARIAN AND OTHER PERSONNEL

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, we are becoming a little bit concerned about the time element, and for that reason I think I shall make my little part in this presentation a package deal. I will announce to whom the gift go and send them to the desk.

When Senator Wade was referring to some token Sessions and the vote being 47-0, I half expected him to say that he looked around and saw nobody present except zero. There have been times when it seemed like really no one was on the floor. Yet, during all those days, most of us have tried to be faithful and we have been here most of the time. During all those days there has been a certain coterie of personnel here, always on the job. In fact, they were not only on the job when we have been in Session, but on the job when we have been at home. A poet once said:

"The sun comes up and the sun goes down and life is weak or strong, But somehow as the days go by. we seem to get along."

We have gotten along during these long Sessions, when the sun has come up and gone down an infinite number of times and we are not yet finished.

We have had the indispensable services of Senator G. Harold Watkins, our Senate Secretary; of Senator J. Fred Thomas, our Senate Chief Clerk; and of Librarian Charles L. Lathero. Sometimes, I wonder whether his initial "L." stands for legs, because he is in motion most of the time in carrying out the wishes and giving services to the Senators. We had the services of the fourth man, Mr. Mark Gruell, the Assistant Secretary. I am going to send to the desk a gift for each of them. They are gifts which I think will remind them of the clasp of the hand of friendship and association, and gifts which will, by their nature, link them to those who are the donnors. As I send these to the desk, I hesitate to do it the way they are packaged. They make me look a bit like a bag man, if you know what I mean. The four gifts for Senator Thomas, Charles Lathero, Senator Watkins and Mr. Gruell are similar and are packaged.

At the same time, I am going to ask Mr. Gruell if he will, on behalf of the Senators, distribute our forms of appreciation for the valient and overtime services of a host of the personnel up front and out back, who have been with us day and night, week in and month out. When Mr. Gruell does that, I think, Mr. President, it will complete these presentations.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO MRS. ROY E. FURMAN

Mr MAHANY. Mr. President, I have been on the receiving end of these gifts up until now. I find, as I grow older, that it is a lot nicer to give gifts than it is to receive them. When I was a little kid, I did not believe that when I was around the Christmas tree. However, I find now that I do enjoy giving gifts much more than I do receiving them.

I am not going to gild the lily a great deal here as I present each of these gifts. I do want all of the fellows to know that I enjoy giving them and I appreciate the fine cooperation that I have received from my Assistant, Senator Pechan; the Caucus Chairman, Senator Berger; and my good friend, Senator Taylor.

I also want Senator Dent to know that I appreciated his kindness, at least outside of the Senate Chamber. Although we had to wage war here at times in the Senate, as he said, after we left the Senate Chamber it was possible for us to form, keep and maintain a wonderful friendship between us. I wish he and his good wife, Babe, every success. The only name I know his wife by is Babe, if she will forgive me, I will refer to her as Babe. He and his wife have been very kind to me. They have invited me to their house; I have enjoyed their hospitality. The same goes for Senator Barr and his wife, Alice. Lieutenant-Governor Furman and his wife, Mary, have invited me to their home but, as yet I have not had the opportunity of going there. I hope, after this Session is over, that I will be able to get around to also partake of the many fine things which they have at their home.

At this time, not in the order of their importance, but in the order that my good friend George Albro, gives them to me, I would like to make a few presentations. I understand that Senator Dent and I are going to combine in presenting a gift to Lieutenant-Governor Furman. I have this gift marked "Roy Furman," but instead of giving it to him, I am going to give it to his wife, Mary. Roy is going to receive one from both Senator Dent and me.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO SENATOR JOHN H. DENT, MINORITY LEADER

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, I hope you will use these if you ever go to the horse races. You will be able to see the horses come in and I hope you have the horse that finishes first.

These glasses will enable you to take a closer look at the joint baby that you and I had, known as the categorical sales tax.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO SENATOR FRANK W. RUTH, MINORITY WHIP

Mr. MAHANY. Now a gift to the Peter Marshall of the Pennsylvania Senate, my good friend, Senator Ruth, who, no matter what day it was or what the time, was always willing to come to the Senate and start us off with a prayer. They were always fine prayers. I hope that some day we will be able to make a little collection of the prayers which Senator Ruth has given us here because, certainly, they are masterpieces and come from the heart and not from the book. They are wonderful prayers, Senator.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO SENATOR JOHN J. HALUSKA, MINORITY CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. MAHANY. John Haluska, who in his own right is somewhat of a wizard and sleight of hand performer, has done a good job in the Senate and I appreciate the kindness and courtesies which he has rendered to me and the other Senators over the past months.

Senator Haluska, here is a gift for you.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO SENATOR JAMES S. BERGER, MAJORITY CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. MAHANY. Here is a gift for good, old Jim Berger, whom I do not know what I would have done without down in the Caucus. It seems that he and I always saw eye to eye on almost every bill.

PRESENTATION BY MAJORITY LEADER TO SENATOR ALBERT R. PECHAN, MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. MAHANY. Here is a gift for Senator Pechan. He has admired that little radio I have down in my office so often that I thought I better get one for him because if I did not, he might take the one I had.

Senator Pechan, here is a radio just like mine.

Senator Taylor, I will give you your gift tomorrow.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I was going to ask for permission to make a very short speech, but knowing what you fellows consider my short speeches to be I decided just to rise to a question of personal privilege.

I deem it a very great personal privilege for me to be able to stand up here and pay my respects to a man whom I have had the pleasure of serving with in this Senate for a great many years. I should say a great many months, but I had the pleasure of serving with him many years ago over in the House of Representatives.

I am not going to take the time of the Senate, because it is getting late, to try to give to you my own personal estimae of our Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman. I think that his behavior in the position that he holds in this State, and the esteem in which he is held by the Members of this Senate who serve with him, is as great a tribute as can be paid to him.

Therefore, at this time, on behalf of Senator Mahany and myself, I would like to present to the Lieutenant-Governor a small token of our appreciation of his being able to see out of both eyes at the same time.

Mr. MAHANY. Before the President acknowledges his gift, I would like to make a short statement.

I have not as yet said how grateful and appreciative I am, not only on behalf of myself but also on behalf of all my Republican colleagues, of the fair and impartial way in which Lieutenant-Governor Roy Furman has conducted the Sessions of the Senate. We certainly have no criticism of any kind whatsoever. We are not like the batter who is struck out and called out by the umpire and turn around and starts to gripe about it.

We have no criticism; we have only admiration and gratitude for the fair and impartial manner in which he has treated us during this long Session of the Legislature.

The PRESIDENT. It looks like I am hitting the jack pot today. Again, I say thanks and I sincerely appreciate this gift.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

PRESENTATION BY MINORITY LEADER TO SENATOR ROWLAND B. MAHANY, MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would now like to present something to Rowland Mahany. Not many people in Pennsylvania have ever heard of him, but I have known him quite intimately. He is a worthy antagonist. He has a quality which I would like to have, but I was not blessed with it and it is too hard to acquire in a lifetime, and that is the quality of keeping his temper, of being unruffled and smiling through regardless of how rough the going gets. For that reason, he has endeared himself to the Membership, I am sure, of this Senate and specially to me.

Rowland, I know that soon, God willing, you will be going down to the sunny clime of Florida to become reacquainted with your family and I thought perhaps this little gift would be nice to take with you. If, after you get down to Florida, you find that the gift can be used usefully, there are sufficient items in it that will accept the invitation to dinner.

PRESENTATION BY MINORITY LEADER TO SENATOR ALBERT R. PECHAN, MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, without any fanfare I just have a small token of appreciation of the many fine favors which have been paid me by the leadership on the other side, especially those who have to do with the details.

Senator Pechan comes from my home county. I suppose that Armstrong County at one time had the distinction of having three Senators in the Senate at one time, Senator Walker, Senator Pechan and myself. Of course, they outvoted me because they were two-to-one, but that is only true of Armstrong County. I often wonder if I had lived there whether I would have been voting on the other side or voting on this side, because it seems a man votes somewhere near where he lives. Although I cannot picture myself being a Republican at this moment, stranger things have happened.

Senator Pechan, I know that when you have taken over

Senator Mahany's place you have always been as courteous and as thoughtful as it is possible to be under such trying circumstances. I would like to present you with this gift and, if you can, remember the fine days we had together.

PRESENTATION BY MINORITY LEADER TO SENATOR JAMES S. BERGER, MAJORITY CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. DENT. Senator Berger, I do not know whether Joe Barr got around to giving you the name that we call you by. I was called out at the time, but we sort of liken you to the Rock of Gibraltar. Darn, you are stubborn when you make up your mind. I am telling all of you right now that I would rather tangle with a dozen ordinary fellows in a debate on a question of getting a bill out of committee than to debate with Senator Berger when he makes up his mind. He will say, "No, let it be the number one bill next January." I believe we will have more number one bills next January than we ever had in the entire history of the State of Pennsylvania.

Jim, I enjoyed the many years with you and I hope the Lord spares both of us and the voters still consider us to be able enough and good enough to represent them so that we may enjoy many days together.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. This has lasted a little longer than we had hoped it would, but we do have a photographer here who would like to take a picture of the Lieutenant-Governor, the President pro tempore, Senator Mahany, Senator Dent, Senator Ruth, Senator Haluska, Senator Berger and Senator Pechan in the front of the Senate, Would you, gentlemen, come up front, please?

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Watson and myself, we want to concur in everything that has happened here this afternoon. We would just like to be able to say again every word that has been said because we think everyone was so deserving and it has been a great privilege for us to serve with these great leaders.

We were just wondering if someone had overlooked us, because every year we always receive the booby prize. We recall those two pots we received at the last Session. The handle broke on mine and Senator Watson says that his broke, too.

We were just wondering if you had forgotten us or just overlooked us.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. We have not forgotten you, Senator. A week from next Friday we have a presentation for you.

NOMINATION BY THE GOVERNOR REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, May 17, 1956

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O Thou, in whose life we find our life, through the gift of whose Spirit we do our work and bear our burdens; grant us now the sense of Thy nearness.

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the fullness of living that was so characteristic of our now departed friend and servant, Clarence Lawyer. We thank Thee for his graciousness, love, courtesy, kindness so fully manifested in his home, Church, community, and in his working and fellowship in this legislative body.

In this hour, may Thy divine visitation heal the hearts that have been broken. May heaven's benediction of divine grace and peace abide with all his loved ones. Give them the reassurance this morning that God is and that even as Christ rose from the dead we also shall rise and that happy are those who are dead in the Lord for they are alive for evermore.

Further grant that as Thy children we shall not keep our feet so closely pressed to earth that we cannot look up and see the wonders of Thy grace and love for us. Dwell Thou in us that we may dwell in Thee. In the name of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Wednesday, May 16, 1956 will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEATH OF MEMBER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has the unhappy duty of announcing the death of the Honorable Clarence M. Lawyer, Jr., who was a Member of this House from York county.

The Chair appoints as members of a delegation representing this House Messrs. Stebbins, Hass and Rudisill, representing York County, Mr. Worley, representing Adams County, Messrs. Stoner and George, representing Cumberland County, Messrs. Ogilvie, Ziegler, Hocker and Moody, representing Dauphin County, and Messrs. Murray, Wood, Royer and Eshleman, representing Lancaster County.

The funeral will be held Saturday, May 19th at 11:00 a. m., DST, at the First Presbyterian Church, Queen and Market Streets, York. Burial will be in the National Cemetery at Gettysburg.

The Chair names as Chairman of the delegation the Honorable Richard O. Hass, long a personal friend of the deceased.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE BILLS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bills from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1517.

An Act amending the act of May 2, 1945 (P. Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 1062 and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 1062

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on the part of the House, Messrs. SARRAF, McLAUGHLIN and TOOMEY.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECESS

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I suggest to the Chair that a recess be declared until 1:00 o'clock Standard Time. I would like a Democratic caucus and I understand the Republicans desire a caucus also at 12:30 Standard Time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, suggests a recess until 1:00 o'clock Standard Time and respective caucuses at 12:30 Standard Time. The Chair hears no objection. The House is now in recess.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 944

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 944.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 944, entitled "An act amending the act of August twenty-fourth one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 1417) entitled as amended 'An act to provide revenue for State purposes by imposing a property tax for a limited period of time on the net incomes derived from sources within the Commonwealth of certain corporations joint-stock associations and limited partnerships excluding certain income providing for the assessment collection settlement and resettlement of taxes and reviews and appeal therefrom conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons corporations joint-stock associations limited partnerships State and county officers boards and departments making an appropriation and providing penalties' changing formula for determining gross receipts of corporations owning property or carrying on activities within and without the Commonwealth and the penalty for failure to make report or for making false report and increasing the rate of tax for a limited period of time."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report.

EDWARD J. KESSLER,
HENRY J. PROPERT,
JOHN H. DENT
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

J. DEAN POLEN,
HARRIS G. BRETH,
ALLEN M. GIBSON
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say to the membership, particularly on the Republican side of the House, that this Conference Report on House Bill 944 consists of amendments to what is called the Corporate Income Tax, not the CNI.

There have been a few corrective changes made in the bill. Our conferee was Mr. Allen Gibson and he reports that the conference report was necessary in order to make the bill constitutional.

We, therefore, ask the Members to vote for this Conference Report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 596, entitled:

An Act providing for authorization for autopsies or postmortem examinations of human bodies claimed for burial within thirty-six hours after death

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARRAF. In the title of the bill the word "medicine" was deleted so that the amendment would read that both physicians and osteopathic surgeons may be included. That is the reason for the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 880, entitled:

A Supplement to the "State Employes Retirement Law" * * * by permitting any State employe as a contributor under the provisions of the State employes' retirement system and who was an employe under the public school system of the Commonwealth and made contributions to the Public School Employes' Retirement Fund on account of such public school service to obtain credit for such service in the State employes' retirement system under certain conditions

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, I have not seen the amendment, but as I understand it changed the date from July 1, 1956, to July 1, 1957, because the date July 1, 1956, is so close it would not give a long enough time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1086, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 642) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by providing that persons firms or corporations who are operating or conducting hotels restaurants dining-cars or other public eating-places in this Commonwealth shall not employ or keep in their employ as cooks waiters kitchen-help chamber-maids or other house-servants any person or persons who are suffering from trachoma active tuberculosis of the lungs open skin tuberculosis syphilis gonorrhea open external cancer or barber's itch or who are carriers of typhoid fever and further providing that no dishes receptacles or utensils used in eating or drinking shall be furnished to patrons or customers of any such public eating-place unless the same have been thoroughly cleansed since used by another individual and further providing that no towels shall be furnished in any wash-room in connection with any such public eating-place unless such towels be laundered or discarded after each individual use and further providing that no common drinking-cups shall be furnished at any public drinking-place operated in connection with any such public eating-place and providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have a memorandum addressed to me from the Secretary of Health which I would like to read to the membership of the House in connection with this bill. It reads as follows:

> P. L. 1945, Act 369, repealed an act of 1927 which was thought to have repealed completely the basic Restaurant Act of 1915. One section of the Act of 1915 was not repealed. This section required the semi-annual examination of food handlers and the issuance of food handlers certificates.
> "Modern practice in restaurant sanitation does not place any reliance upon a food handlers certificate which may not be valid 24 hours after the examination. Therefore, in 1945, the Act 369 eliminated the food handlers certificate. A recent study has revealed that our practice for the past ten years has been carried out on the assumption that the previous Acts (1915 and 1927) had been fully repealed.
> This bill, Senate Bill 1086, which is before us today was requested to correct this legislative error.

I have another memo from the Director of Preventive Services, J. Thomas Millington, addressed to the Secretary of Health under date of April 20, 1956, which reads as follows:

> "This bill (referring to Senate Bill 1086) seems to be the revision which we requested on November 29, 1955, to repeal the original Public Eating Place Laws which required a medical certificate for food handlers and to satisfy the intention of the Department as expressed in the present Restaurant Act of 1945."

In other words, it appears what we are doing in Senate Bill 1086 is to repeal a law which has been superseded by a later act, the Act of 1945.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 318

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Comittee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 318.

The SPEAKER. This being a Senate Bill, the report will lie over for printing by the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 572, entitled:

An Act amending the Liquor Code of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90) by authorizing issuance of special temporary permits for the retail sale of malt or brewed beverages at baseball parks under certain circumstances

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill which would allow beer to be sold in the two major ball parks, one in Philadelphia and one in Pittsburgh.

I intend to vote for it because I think beer is already in the ball parks. I unfortunately do not get to the big league games very often, but I am realiably informed by many people that for years it has been a common practice for people to bring beer to a ball game if they desire to drink beer.

Just a few weeks ago I read of a very disgraceful incident which happened in Philadelphia when people who had brought beer into the ball park in bottles or cans were throwing those receptacles at an outfielder.

If this bill passes, it will certainly have a strong tendency to eliminate the practice of people bringing their own beer in hard containers. I understand the ball parks, or the organizations which manage and own the ball parks, would sell beer in nothing except paper containers.

We cannot change the desires and habits of people. It is legal to drink beer in Pennsylvania, and a lot of people like to drink it while they are watching a ball game.

In my opinion, this is an eminently sensible bill, and I do not think the economics or the moral issues amount to a great deal. It is a matter of convenience for the people who go to ball games.

I am going to vote for it and I am asking the membership of the House to vote for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. READINGER.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2113, entitled:

An Act amending "The Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act" approved June 21, 1939 (P. L. 566) changing liability provisions with respect to certain diseases

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, as the Members of this House know, during the early part of 1956 there were—and of course during part of 1955—many conferences held between employers and representatives of employes so that they could agree upon a Workmen's Compensation bill, together with an Occupational Disease bill, that would pass this session of the Legislature with bipartisan support. As we all know that was accomplished, compromise was arrived at and we now have on our books a liberal workmen's compensation law and, of course, a liberal Occupational Disease law which was a result of an agreement on both sides.

In the Occupational Disease law, an amendment was put in which made all types of occupational diseases compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Act. In other words, there was added to the compensable diseases under the OD Act, as we will call it, many diseases heretofore not covered under the law.

Also you perhaps all realize that the State of Pennsylvania for two reasons has contributed toward the cost of occupational disease compensation. One reason is that compensation is generally based on an accidental injury whereas occupational disease is a progressive injury brought on by an occupation.

Secondly, because of the diseases being in industries that are suffering because of economic hardship, the Commonwealth has stepped in and helped pay the load of them. There are those two reasons.

This session of the Legislature we have a bill before us in the amount of $7 million which is the Commonwealth's share based on a 60-40 basis, and in some cases 100 per cent, for the Commonwealth's share of paying compensable occupational diseases under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

I believe the wide coverage given to occupational diseases in the conference committee was at the request of the administration and at the requests of representatives of employes, and the conference felt that this new group of diseases should be covered. Everybody knew that the Commonwealth would participate on a 60-40 basis by reason of these occupational diseases and the bill was signed. Now, in the dying days of the session, you are coming forward and in this bill, as I understand it, are saying to the employer: Yes, we did sit down with you and compromise and agree on a very splendid workmen's compensation bill, but now we feel we made a terrible blunder in extending such a wide coverage in occupational diseases. So we are running out on our deal and we are introducing House Bill 2113 which will take away from the Commonwealth any obligation to participate in the new type of compensable injuries provided for by the Act and placing all of the burden on the employer.

If this bill does not pass today, you are not hurting the man who labors and gets an occupational disease, he will get his coverage. All you are doing is placing it all on the employer. We will be running out on an agreement made when both sides sat down in good faith and agreed on these two bills which have already been passed.

Therefore, in the interest of fair play, I believe that we should not vote for this bill today. There is $7 million being appropriated into the fund. I understand it is costing the State much less money than anticipated, around $150,000 to $200,000 a month, now, for their share of occupational diseases.

If by any chance the $7 million is not enough money during this biennium and by reason of our great generosity in extending workmen's compensation coverage to this wide field of occupational diseases, if you must come in for a deficiency appropriation when we come into our new session, we can say you warned us that perhaps the $7 million would not be enough, but I think it is unfair at this time, this late in the session, to pass this bill and place that entire burden on the employer in view of the compromises made, and in view of the good feeling that prevails now between employer and employe over these very splendid Workmen's Compensation and Occupational Disease Acts that we now have on the books.

Therefore, I am asking the Membership of the House to vote down this bill.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether under the terms of House Bill 2113 it is not correct to say that the occupational disease which is causing the Department of Labor and the Commonwealth some concern, is a certain type of dust which miners are subjected to in the bituminous coal regions?

Mr. JOHNSON. I believe the disease that they are worried about at the present time is, if I can pronounce it correctly, called pneumoconiosis. I believe that is what it is called, it is not expressed by that term in the bill because I think the bill formerly just covered silicosis and asbestosis.

This is a new type of disease that they are worrying about. I might say for the gentleman's information that I interrogated the Department to find out whether there are presently any claims of record for coverage under that type of disease, whether there are any claim petitions filed or any cases before the referees, and I was told that there were not any cases nor had there been any paymnts made.

I believe I have completed my answer that I am familiar with the disease they are worried about, and I further state that I understand there are no claim petitions outstanding or any claims presently for compensation for that type of disease.

Mr. READINGER. May I ask the gentleman further whether he has conferred with Mr. Ullman on this matter during the last several days?

Mr. JOHNSON. The answer is, yes. I had a conference with Mr. Ullman this morning on this bill.

Mr. READINGER. I believe the man's name is Ullman, is that correct?

Mr. JOHNSON. You pronounce it.

Mr. READINGER. May I ask the gentleman further whether Mr. Ullman was one of the men connected with the series of conferences which resulted in the passage of the bill we are now seeking to amend, the Occupational Disease Act?

Mr. JOHNSON. My answer to that, Mr. Speaker, is that I cannot say. I was not in on the conference, and all I know is that representatives of employers, employes and the state government were in on the conference.

Mr. READINGER. Does the gentleman know that most of the occupational disease cases that are causing the concern at the time arise in the bituminous coal region?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, my answer to that is that where it occurs is immaterial, because it is compensable under the law and the only question that we are involved in is whether the State is going to participate in the payment of the injuries or whether it is going to be placed entirely on the employer.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, the information I have received on this bill is that the $7 million which is being appropriated to the Department of Labor and Industry to pay the Commonwealth's share of these occupational disease claims will not be sufficient to carry the burden of the number of cases which will arise in the bituminous coal region.

The Department rightly takes the position, in my opinion, that the taxpayers of Pennsylvania should not subsidize large companies like United States Steel, Bethlehem Steel Company, and so forth, which I believe employ most of the miners who will be subjected to this disability.

The anthracite region is a distressed region and a distressed industry. As I understand this bill it will not affect the anthracite region, but it would throw the burden of paying these compensable claims—and Mr. Johnson is entirely right when he says this bill will not affect the claimants, they will still be entitled under the Occupational Disease Act to benefits if they become disabled, but this bill would throw the financial burden of paying for those claims on those companies employing the disabled men and not on the Commonwealth.

If this bill does not pass and the burden goes way beyond the $7 million appropriated, it will be necessary for the Department to come back here in January of next year and request a deficiency appropriation to pay whatever the state has had to pay.

I would like the membership to vote for this bill and place the burden of paying these claims on the companies employing the men. I think in the next year or so our experience will dictate what should be done. If the burden is an undue burden on the industry, then perhaps the Commonwealth should step in and pay. Under the circumstances we think this is a good bill and one for which every Member should vote.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman, Mr. Johnson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, do you understand under Workmen's Compensation in Pennsylvania these companies carry insurance to cover the workmen's compensation? Do you understand that?

Mr. JOHNSON. That is true. That is axiomatic. They can self-insure if they want to.

Mr. LOVETT. They can what?

Mr. JOHNSON. They can self-insure if they want to under certain conditions, that is, they can act as their own carrier of insurance under certain conditions such as posting a bond, and so forth.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman admit that if these companies were not self-insured but insured with the Workmen's Compensation Fund in the state of Pennsylvania that it would not matter very much, that it would not cost them any more?

Mr. JOHNSON. I would say, Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman that if this frightful burden that they are worrying about is placed on the employer, it would of course mean an appreciable increase in his workmen's compensation insurance rates. Yes, it would.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman have any figures to show just what the increase would be on these companies in their premiums?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say, I have no figures at the present time. My only answer is that under present law, to repeat, this new type of occupational disease is not only pneumoconiosis, but I understand there are some plants in which they are making talcum powder where a type of respiratory illness occurs.

There are plants were there are various other types of particles in the air which over a period of time may cause a permanent disease to the respiratory organs, which may be compensable.

I grant you we do not know how large a field this is because it is new. The door has been opened. What it will cost the Commonwealth between now and the end of the biennium, which is just about a year away, I do not know, but I do not think it will be an appreciable sum of money.

I do not believe by reason of the fact that it will not cost an appreciable sum of money the Commonwealth should now run out on the agreement which was made when everybody sat down in good faith and agreed to make these diseases compensable. The Commonwealth should pay its share as it does in other diseases of the respiratory organs.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if we had the right of workmen's compensation to cover all companies and all men in industry, could he give me any figures whereby there would be any great increase in the premium to those different companies if they were covered in that manner?

Mr. JOHNSON. No. Mr. Speaker. I will say nobody has any figures on it because there is no experience. That is the reason why the Commonwealth should not now try to shift the burden to somebody else when they have in good faith assumed it at conferences held during this very session of the Legislature.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his remarks on the question.

For the life of me, I cannot see why the state of Pennsylvania and the taxpayers of Pennsylvania should bear the burden when we have insurance to cover these subjects.

This particular piece of legislation, to my mind, would not be necessary at all if we had the right kind of a workmen's compensation insurance setup in Pennsylvania whereby all companies would be insured in the Workmen's Compensation Fund in the state of Pennsylvania. Due to the fact that we do not have that, this particular bill is necessary to make those best able to pay their share and relieve the taxpayers of Pennsylvania of that burden.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, just one more word in relation to something said by the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson.

He has repeated several times that the Commonwealth is trying to run out on some kind of an agreement made at the time the 1955 changes were made in the law.

I questioned Mr. Ullman this morning about that matter, because it had been called to my attention and I knew that Mr. Ullman had sat in on practically all of the conferences which led to the adoption of the 1955 changes in the law.

He told me that the matter was not even discussed. It was probably overlooked by the people who were discussing the drafting of the legislation. The fact that these lung dust cases would arise was brought to their attention later on. As I remember his conversation, he said there was an agreement that those bills would not be amended after they were drafted. I understand there were several amendments inserted in them in the Senate.

I certainly do not want the House membership to think there is any breach of faith on the part of the Commonwealth or the administration in this matter.

Mr. Ullman was very close to the situation and he very emphatically tells me there is no breach of faith in pushing for the passage of this bill before us today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. ISAACS from the Committee on Cities—Counties First Class, reported as comimtted, Senate Bill No. 798, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 23, 1949 (P. L. 1669), entitled, as amended, "An act to provide revenue for school districts of the first class by imposing a tax on persons engaging in certain businesses, professions, occupations, trades, vocations and commercial activities therein; providing for its levy and collection; conferring and imposing powers and duties on the board of Public Education, receiver of school taxes and school treasurer in such districts; and prescribing penalties," further defining taxable receipts, and making such definition applicable to all tax returns and tax payments made after the effective date hereof.

Mr. SARRAF from the Committee on Rules, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 452, entitled:

An Act relating to and regulating the practice of massage providing for the licensure and for the revocation and suspension of licenses of masseurs and masseuses by the Department of Public Instruction cnoferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Public Instruction and prescribing penalties.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Pursuant to the resolution adopted February 28, 1956, bill reported from Committee as committed was read the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 798, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 23, 1949 (P. L. 1669) entitled as amended "An act to provide revenue for school districts of the first class by imposing a tax on persons engaging in certain businesses professions occupations trades vocations and commercial activities therein providing for its levy and collection conferring and imposing powers and duties on the Board of Public Education receiver of school taxes and school treasurer in such districts and prescribing penalties" further defining taxable receipts and making such definition applicable to all tax returns and tax payments made after the effective date hereof.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid asside for second reading.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 68

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 68 on page 10 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

One Harry (Jerry) Butler filed an appeal from the unanimous decision of the Luzerne County Court in the election contest involving the 2nd Legislative District of Luzerne County

As a result of the appeal there was brought to the attention of the members of the House Committee on Election and Apportionment the record in the proceedings which showed a flagrant abuse and disregard of the election laws in Luzerne County by the officials acting by or on behalf of the Luzerne County Board of Elections and the Luzerne County Registration Commission

The record indicates that this disregard of the election laws in Luzerne County has existed to such an extent that this is an open and notorious scandal.

The record indicates that there were obvious erasures on the official election records in the custody of the election officials of Luzerne County therefore be it

Resolved That a committee consisting of three memmers of the House be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to investigate election frauds and conditions and registration frauds and conditions in Luzerne County and be it further

Resolved That the entire record in these investigation proceedings be referred to the Attorney General of Pennsylvania for such additional action as he shall deem appropriate

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 168

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution No. 168 on page 10 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 9, 1956.

The counties of Bucks Chester Delaware Montgomery and Philadelphia are each portions of a single great metropolitan area of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania There is within the aforementioned five counties 3 cities 85 boroughs 125 townships and 241 school districts and population forecasts indicate a greatly increasing population with attendant economic development for this area over the next several decades

It is recognized that a great many economic social and governmental problems are common to two or more of the aforementioned units in the metropolitan area therefore be it

Resolved That the House of Representatives memoralize the Governor to establish and convene not later than June 1, 1956 a commission to be known as the Study Commisison of the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area and to consist of fifteen members three each to be residents of each of the aforementioned five counties and the chairman to be appointed without reference to his residence except that he shall be a resident of one of the five counties and be it further

Resolved That the Governor authorize such commission to

1 Make a study of the facts which the commission deems appropriate on any subject related to proper orderly and efficient growth and development of the five-county metropolitan area and its relationship to the larger metropolitan region and to make a report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly the municipalities and other bodies concerned

2 Accept the services of any organization created for or dedicated to the improvement of local government

3 Accept gifts or grants

4 Raise by public subscriptions sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this resolution

5 Cooperate and coordinate with appropriate federal State and local agencies of government in the collection and interpretation of factual information bearing on the work of the commission and

6 Employ such expert technical and clerical employes as may be necessary to carry out its work and be it further

Resolved That the members of any commission receive no compensation for their services

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, a few days ago this House passed, and the other body passed House Bill 1361 known as the Regional Planning Law. The Regional Planning Law—and I have to explain this to give my opposition to the present resolution—provides that the legislative bodies of two or more political subdivisions, counties, cities, boroughs, and so on, may set up regional planning commissions. They may receive funds for that purpose from political subdivisions and they may receive grants from the federal and state governments, individuals and foundations.

The planning work under this bill, which I presently understand is on the Governor's desk for his signature, would include surveys, land use studies, urban removal plans, technical services and other elements of comprehensive planning programs.

With respect to funds, the planning commission could enter into agreements or contracts regarding the acceptance or utilization of funds or assistance. The membership of these regional planning commissions would be determined by the respective legislative bodies of the political subdivisions. In other words, today on the Governor's desk, unless he has already signed it, is located legislation which will permit an orderly legal study of the problems such as would be facing the metropolitan district of the Greater Philadelphia Area.

This is an orderly approach to the solution of a great urban problem which we all know exists. It is an orderly approach which would promote cooperation between the respective counties involved. This bill passed this House with the affirmative vote of myself and others from the suburban counties.

Now I would like to point out what exists in Resolution 168. In the first place, the resolution is poorly written. It provides for a fifteen man commission and it calls on the Governor to establish and convene it. At no place in the resolution is set forth who appoints the fifteen men.

Next, its purpose is to make a study of the facts which the commission deems appropriate on any subject related to proper, orderly and efficient growth and development of the five-county metropolitan area. There is nothing contained in this purpose which is not already in the Regional Planning Law.

It also states that the commission set up could accept gifts or grants. That is also already in this Regional Planning Law which is the subject of the bill in front of the Governor. This is a very interesting portion of this resolution. The resolution states that this commission can raise by public subscription sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this resolution. I do not know what that means. Does it mean that a commission requested to be set up by this House will go around with its hat in its hand begging for money from individuals to finance a study? No, I do not think this is an orderly way to go about it.

Again, ladies and gentlemen of the House, we have a bill which has passed this House, a bill which has passed in another place, with not a single vote in opposition. It is on the desk of the Governor and it will do the same thing in an orderly legal manner. We are called on today to vote in favor of a poorly written resolution. I ask that everyone in this House vote "no" on this resolution.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I just want to point out to the House that the resolution clearly by implication establishes that the Governor is to appoint a commission. He is to establish a commission.

I want to point out one more reason for the necessity of such a commission. Just in yesterday's paper I believe I read of a situation that developed in Mr. Bullen's own county of Delaware on Marshall Road. The residents out there are appealing to the city of Philadelphia to do something about the traffic condition that exists out there on Marshall Road.

So I say to you this is only one of the many problems which will be solved if we pass this very important and essential resolution.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCormack.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCormack, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCORMACK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like a simple answer. Mr Speaker, does the gentleman from Philadelphia know what the meaning of the word "appoint" is?

Mr. McCORMACK. I would like to give the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, a simple answer. Yes.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman from Philadelphia believe that a resolution should contain the word "appoint" if it is desired that the Governor appoint members?

Mr. McCORMACK. What is that Printer's number? Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would like to point out the wording of the resolution is, "Resolved that the House of Representatives memorialize the Governor to establish and convene . . . "

Now, if we memorialize the Governor to establish and convene a commission, the answer is that the Governor is going to appoint the commission.

Mr. BELL. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I think that it would be much clearer if the word "appoint" were put in here.

In rebuttal to Mr. McCormack with respect to the township of Upper Darby and highway conditions, since when has the responsibility of the State Highway Department been terminated with respect to intercounty roads?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say a word or two about this bill.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is now in our hands, and the opportunity has been given us to establish a commission to eliminate the kind of bickering which has gone on in the last few months regarding the Joint-Service bill and the bill relating to the various problems which involve these communities.

This is for Bucks and Chester and Delaware and Montgomery and Philadelphia. It is not just a Delaware County Bill. Once and for all we can have a commission of three members from each county and they can consider and settle all the problems that are involved and the problems are considerable.

Let me read you a telegram which I got from an outstanding Philadelphian. He says:

> Congratulations on your introduction of Resolution No. 168 for a study commission for this area of Pennsylvania. A check yesterday indicates that a nation-wide foundation with substantial resources may be interested in this project. It is not unlikely that this foundation will be willing to participate in financing the objective research of your proposed study commission should Resolution 168 be passed and should a request for such financial aid be made. We urge you to make all possible efforts to secure adoption of House Resolution 168 before adjournment. Certainly the rapid population and economic growth of southeastern Pennsylvania justifies the fruition of a temporary commission such as you propose.

And it is signed Robert T. McCracken, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Greater Philadelphia Movement.

He is an independent citizen, a well known lawyer, and a former partner of Justice Owen J. Roberts who writes a telegram of this kind in support of this resolution.

I think you ought to give it serious consideration and vote for it.

Mr. BULLEN. Mr. Speaker, May we please have a slow roll call?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman be satisfied with a division?

Mr. BULLEN. Mr. Speaker, we accept the division.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

On a rising vote, seventy-five Members having voted in the affirmative and fifty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 177

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up Senate Resolution No. 177 on page 10 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the Senate, May 8, 1956.

The two National cemeteries located in Pennsylvania have been closed to additional interments of veterans of our wars, and closing them in their entirety is imminent due to lack of sufficient space.

Since neither of the two present National cemeteries can be considered appropriate for possible last resting places for those who fought for our Commonwealth and our Country, and who may die today or in the future, it is the sincere opinion of the great majority of the veterans in Pennsylvania that a new National cemetery should be established within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at an entirely new location, and that cemetery be associated with the present and future requirements of those who fought in the wars of our Country.

It is known, from official sources, that there is available within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, a tract of one hundred acres to three hundred and fifty acres, situated at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, and this could be made available to the United States Department of the Army, for the purpose of establishing a new National cemetery. Bills to accomplish this purpose have been introduced in the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Eighty-fourth United States Congress; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to support and enact into legislation measures establishing a new National cemetery in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2101

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 2101, entitled: "An Act to amend the act approved the sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred fifty-six (Pamphlet Laws) (Act No. 381) entitled 'An act to provide revenue for Commonwealth purposes by imposing a tax on the purchase use storage or other consumption of certain tangible personal property and utility services herein defined as tangible personal property providing for licenses reports payment and collection of tax interest and penalties assessments collections liens reviews and appeals conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue public officers manufacturers wholesalers retailers corporations partnerships associations and individuals and making an appropriation' by defining or redefining certain words terms and procedural provisions in the act excluding certain personal property from the tax and changing provisions for assessment and collection of the tax and license fees"

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

ROWLAND B. MAHANY,
JOHN H. DENT,
E. J. KESSLER,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

ALBERT S. READINGER,
J. DEAN POLEN,
ALBERT W. JOHNSON,
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, as everybody here knows this Conference Report contains the amendments to the sales tax law which was passed on March 7th.

I would not feel compelled to speak on the matter if I did not still feel so deeply that the House is making and continuing to make a mistake by retaining the stamp plan.

This Conference Report now provides that the stamp plan should go into effect on January 1st of 1957, or as soon thereafter as the plan can be put into effect, depending on the limitations of the ability of the state to get the stamps printed, distributed, and so forth.

We have argued the matter very thoroughly before and at great length. I think the newspapers have covered every conceivable phase of the arguments for and against the use of the stamp plan, so I think the public by this time is very well informed concerning its operation, its cost, and its efficiency or lack of efficiency.

The Minority Leader of the House several days ago was quoted in the newspapers as saying that the Governor was blamed for the fact that the stamp plan could not go into effect on July 1st. I do not think His Excellency, the Governor, needs any defense. I think it is quite obvious to all of us that if orders had been given immediately after the passage of the sales tax on March 7th to have the stamps prepared, and so forth, they would still not be ready. According to the best information I have been able to obtain, it will take about 33 weeks to prepare them, to distribute them and to put this plan into operation.

I think the Minority Leader probably spoke hurriedly and without much thought when he accused the Governor of delaying the operation of this plan.

I think this Conference Report should be adopted for the reason that there are many corrections made in the present Sales Tax act. The language has been clarified so that the law will spell out as clearly as can be done what is taxable and what is not taxable.

There are several changes in the law which could not be considered correctional changes, but they were considered by the conferees to be proper changes in connection with this sales tax.

I want to reiterate once more that the Republican party of Pennsylvania and its Members in this Legislature have been the ones who have insisted we have a sales tax as a means of raising money. The bill was passed mainly with their votes and we expect these amendments to be passed mainly with their votes.

But I made a commitment the day the bill passed the House originally. I promised to urge the Democratic Members who were then voting for the passage of the sales tax to vote for these correctional amendments.

I have done so, and I believe that today those persons who voted originally for the bill will vote for these amendments. I am asking them to do so.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe there is too much to say in regards to the Conference Report on 2101, but I do think there is something I should say for the Majority Leader's benefit.

First of all, I think as he well knows, or should know, the stamp plan has never been a point of issue in this Conference Report. The Senate did not amend it. Therefore, according to the Rules of the House it never, never, never entered into the report regardless of what he or anyone else says. It has never been a point of issue, so that is beside the point.

I think on 2101 we are now getting into the basis of a philosophy of government. The Majority Leader is perfectly right in saying he has not agreed and his party has not agreed with this tax and that we on this side of the House have properly accepted responsibility for it. It is just a matter of philosophy of government, whether you believe in an income tax or a wage tax, or whether you believe in a sales tax.

We feel that 2101 with the present amendments is going to make the present Sales Tax Law which is now on the books a better law. We feel it makes it far more selective.

I am perfectly willing to agree with the gentleman that there are some inequities. I believe in fairness all of us know there are inequities in almost any tax bill that passes.

We feel that under 2101 we are eliminating some of the difficulties. We feel we are making a better law of the present law which is now on the books.

I might carry on by saying that the Governor and ourselves, as everyone knows, have not agreed on the philosophy of a wage tax versus a selective sales tax. We on this side certainly feel the people of Pennsylvania prefer a selective sales tax.

Because of our difference in thought, or philosophy, whatever you might want to call it, and I might say because of some poor cooperation from the Attorney General's department in issuing regulations, we have necessarily had to work over these amendments to the bill much more, pinpoint them a lot more, than we would have had to do under normal circumstances.

If we had had a Republican Governor and a Republican Attorney General, we probably would have had a much broader viewpoint on the matter of interpretation. Because of the fact that regulations have not been issued and because we had to pinpoint everything, we had to spend a lot more time unnecessarily than we would have had to under normal circumstances.

I feel this 2101 is going to help the law that is now on the books. We are willing to accept some of the responsibility. We have thought, and we still think, it will serve and solve the financial crisis we have talked about. If it is not a crisis, it will at least serve and help the financial situation in Pennsylvania.

We do not think we are doing anything unfairly. We think it is being done with sincerity. Because we have a basic difference in philosophy we are willing to rest on the basic difference in philosophy.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in regard to the Conference Report on 2101, Printer's No. 1826, we have heard a lot of discussion on who is to blame for the delay in this session of the Legislature. I want to say at the outstart that the delay somewhat has been blamed on the Governor of Pennsylvania. I say that is not the truth. The delay that has been here, in my mind, has been due to the Republican Senate and the Republican House Members. Let us be fair about the thing. Let us put the blame where it belongs.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman can impute blame upon the House if he likes, but he is not privileged to impute blame upon the other chamber.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I raise the point of order whether the gentleman is in order discussing the blame for this long delay.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would request that the gentleman from Westmoreland do not follow some previous examples, all of which were not connected with his side of the House and use the occasion to make a political address. He must confine his remarks to the question at issue, the merits or demerits of the Conference Report.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if it is permissible for the gentleman to at least answer the gentleman who raised the point of order.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is on adopting the Conference Committee Report, its merits and demerits, and the reasons why the House should proceed to enact it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, this Conference Report is long delayed. The legislation that we now have before us on this Conference Report in my mind is unnecessary. We have a tax law on the books in Pennsylvania today. We are collecting a sales tax. There is no need for an additional conference report to my mind. We have passed the sales tax in Pennsylvania. That other place over there insisted that we have a sales tax in Pennsylvania. The Members in this House, on that side of the House, insisted that we have a sales tax in Pennsylvania. Therefore, we now have a sales tax in Pennsylvania. I voted for that sales tax in Pennsylvania in order to expedite the business of this session of the Legislature, in order that we may get out of Harrisburg and finish up this session of the Legislature.

I now find that after bending over backwards, to bring this session of the Legislature to as speedy a conclusion as we could, that we now have a conference report on the bill that we passed and is now law in Pennsylvania.

Now I say in all fairness, that the reason why this delay is here in this Conference Report is due to the fact that the opposition party in this state insisted upon a sales tax in Pennsylvania. The gentleman who spoke before me said that the people of Pennsylvania want a sales tax. I say to that gentleman how does he know whether the people of Pennsylvania want a sales tax. I know my people in Pennsylvania did not want a sales tax. We wanted a tax placed upon those best able to pay.

Gentlemen, I say to you we should defeat this conference report. We now have a law in Pennsylvania for a sales tax.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I submit to the House that the gentleman from Westmoreland is just completely and unqualifiedly wrong in his argument. I still think these amendments should pass.

Mr. JUMP. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JUMP. Mr. Speaker, I have had numerous letters from housewives. It seems among the various stores they go into to buy material to make a dress, some stores charge the tax and some do not. Which is correct?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest that the gentleman from Luzerne is sightly out of order in his line of discussion. The merits or demerits of the report are before us and not the regulations or the enforcement of the present Act.

Mr. JUMP. Mr. Speaker, I am merely asking if that is incorporated in this Conference Report?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, being a fearless lawyer, I will answer the gentleman's question if the Chair will permit me.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. READINGER. I would say under the present law and also under this Conference Report dress material is not taxable.

I would add that many merchants who sell material which could be used for both dresses and drapes, or other household decoration material, have been charging the tax because they do not know what the use will be. I think in the very near future a regulation will be issued by the Sales Tax Division of the Department of Revenue which will clarify the matter and the merchants will know what to do and the people will know when to pay it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. AUKER filed the following reasons for his vote.

Reason for vote against the amendments on House Bill 2101, Printer's No. 1826, commonly known as the sales tax act.

The original act as passed provided for stamps to be delivered to the buyer upon purchase of any merchandise taxed under the act in proportion to the amount of tax chargeable under the act, the stamp provision to be effective July 1st, 1956. The Governor of this state in direct violation of his oath of office has deliberately neglected to take the proper steps, for political reasons, to have the stamps printed for distribution to retailers by the July 1st dead line. There has been a deliberate and intentional program on the part of the Leader Democratic administration to sabotage, for political reasons, the stamp provision of the sales tax act. Even though it was popular with the people, even though the majority of the people of Pennsylvania wanted the stamp provisions, and even though it was part of the law of the State of Pennsylvania. There was ample time to have the stamps printed, distributed, and ready to be dispensed to buyers by July 1st, 1956. The reasons given for the delay by the Democratic administration are fantastic to say the least, without reasons, merit or factual basis whatsoever.

As the stamp provision is now written in the amendments as embodied in the Conference Report provides that the stamp provision shall not go into effect until January 1st, 1957, or until such time as in the discretion of the Governor if such circumstances exist as to prevent the stamps being printed and distributed. This is too wide a latitude to allow on such an important provision of a very important act, an act that effects every consumer-buyer in this state and every charitable institution in the state.

The stamp provision amendment is tied in with a package amendment to the sales tax act, and therefore must be voted upon as a package and not as individual amendments. This is a bad legislative procedure and should be changed so that these amendments could be voted upon separately. I am sure that the clarifying amendments would pass and the stamp amendments would fall.

The clarifying amendments, other than the stamp amendments were necessary in order to clarify provisions of the original sales tax act, which it was found necessary so to do in order to override the interpretations placed upon various provisions of the sales tax act, for purely political purposes, and contrary to the intent of the legislature, both the House and Senate, the duly elected representatives of the people.

I believe that the stamp provision of the act is more important than the other clarifying amendments; that the people as a whole, the people in my district of Altoona, want the stamp provision in the act more than they do the clarifying amendments, and that by postponing the effective date of the stamp provision and giving the Governor such wide latitude as to even the postponed date, that the stamp provision will never be put into effect during this biennium, and probably never unless there is elected into office a Republican House and a Republican Senate, and who then will insist that Governor Leader live up to his oath of office and administer the law as he has taken oath so to do, and carry out the wishes of the people as expressed through their duly elected repersentation in both houses of the Legislature of the great Commonwealth.

In voting "no" on this amendment package to the sales tax act, I am voting my honest, conscientious, firm opinion, and feel that I am voting and expressing the will and desire of the people in Altoona, who have signally honored me by electing me as their Representative in the state government. I feel, that, even though the amendments may fall by my vote, that I am being morally and politically honest. I am taking this stand against my party and against considerable pressure exerted upon me to vote "aye" on this amendment package. I feel and believe that my people should so want me to vote. My duty first is to my God—and next to the people who have elected me and whom I represent. I will not be clubbed into committing by my vote what I would believe to be an act of political and intellectual dishonesty, and would rather sit here in a session for another six months rather than commit such a breach. This is the kind of honest, sincere, able, representation that I am trying to give my people, who have so signally honored me in choosing me as their elected Representative at Harrisburg in the state government. As long as I am so signally honored I shall do my utmost, with the help of God to always do just that.

RESOLUTION

SHIPMENT OF MEMBERS' FILES

Mr. STANK offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1956.

Resolved, That the Bureau of Publications, through the Department of Property and Supplies, be directed to ship the files of bills and journals of the Members to the addresses designated by them as directed by the Chief Clerk of the House.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1311

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1311.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. MIHM and VAUGHAN offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1956.

The Honorable Frank J. Zak, Pittsburgh florist and former member of the House of Representatives died last week at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Zak was born and reared in the Twenty-third Ward, North side, Pittsburgh and received his education in public and private schools. At the age of twelve years he became interested in floriculture and found it so fascinating that in later years he established a florist business and made it his lifework. In 1926 he was elected to the House of Representatives where he proved to be an able legislator.

Mr. Zak during his lifetime was a respected and leading North side citizen, who because of his kindly and sincere character, the warmth and width of his friendship, touched and inspired the lives of all whom he came in contact with; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend to his widow, Marie Zak, his relatives and to his countless friends most sincere sympathy and express to them the thought that although he is dead the memory of the nobility and strength of his character and his public service will live on; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow, Marie Zak, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTION

Mr. ERB offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

Senate Resolution Serial No. 176.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, to preside.

Mr. HELM IN THE CHAIR.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 173, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishment of police pensions pension funds or pension annuities in certain boroughs towns and townships and the regulation and maintenance thereof providing for continuance of existing funds or transfer thereof to funds herein established prescribing rights of beneficiaries and repealing certain acts

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PARRY. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to these amendments. However, I am going to vote for this bill as amended not because I think it is a fair bill but because I am told it is the only bill that His Excellency, the Governor, will approve. It is a start in the right direction.

I represent a district comprised of boroughs and townships, none of which employ eight or more police officers. Our officers are required to work longer hours for less pay than those of larger boroughs and cities, yet no provision is made for their security.

I would be the last person to deprive any police officer of the pension he so justly deserves. However, if I am reelected to this House in November, I promise that the first bill I will introduce in the 1957 Legislature will be an amendment to this bill which will protect the police officers of the small municipalities who in my opinion are certainly entitled to this security.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

FLOYD, KAMYK, OLSEN, DOUGHERTY, MULLIN, McGEE, GIBB and DONALDSON offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1956.

During the 17 months of the legislative session of 1955, Lieutenant Governor Roy E. Furman, President of the Senate has gained the admiration and respect of all the members of the General Assembly. The members of the General Assembly and those whose privilege it is to work with and for him have found that in his position of trust and responsibility as President of the Senate he has not only displayed outstanding ability in directing and solving the complex legislative problems of the Senate, but has given to the leadership and members of the House of Representatives the most splendid, patient and kindly cooperation in expediting legislative matters in the House. Therefore, it is only proper that personal recognition and honor should be bestowed upon him for his commendable endeavors by conveying to him through this House resolution the respect and regard the legislators have for him for a job well done; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives in testimony of its appreciation wishes to congratulate Lieutenant Governor Roy E. Furman for the fine and outstanding contribution he has made to this legislative session and extend to him its sincere thanks for the splendid cooperation its has recieved from him. In addition, the House of Representatives wishes further to tender to him the warmest wishes for continued success in every position of honor and confidence that may be bestowed upon him in the future, all of which he will truly earn and will rightly deserve; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House transmit a copy of this resolution, certified under the seal of the House, to Lieutenant Governor Roy E. Furman, President of the Senate.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. ROVANSEK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Friday, May 18, 1956 at 10:00 a. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 5:45 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1956. No. 184.

SENATE

FRIDAY, May 18, 1956.

The Senate met at 9:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Honorable FRANK W. RUTH, a Member of the Senate from Berks County, offered the following prayer:

Our dear Lord and Saviour, we thank Thee for this hour, as we look with joy toward going to our homes and resuming our places there. There is also a tinge of sadness around our hearts that we are parting. We think today of some of those who started the Session with us and are not here anymore. We realize that in the days to come, one by one of us will also go through that mysterious doorway where we walk through the valley of the shadow with Thee.

We thank Thee for the exuberance of youth and for the opportunity that we have been able to give, and those opportunities in the past, that youth shall be free, that they can come from anywhere into our government, into our communities and enjoy the blessings which those who have lived before us have given to us. If we have been able to add anything to those liberties, we thank Thee. Wherein we have failed, we ask Thee to forgive.

Bless us in our Session today that we may do those things that shall redound to Thy honor and glory, in a world without end, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. PECHAN and Mr. CAMIEL, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations:

ALDERMAN

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 18, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate George O. Yecker, 448 East Orange Street, Lancaster, Lancaster County, for appointment as Alderman in and for the Second Ward of the City of Lancaster, Lancaster County, to serve until the first Monday of January 1958, vice J. Edward Wetzel, deceased.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

MEMBER OF THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 18, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Mrs. Marion L. Forrester (Dem.), Low Building, Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Montgomery County, for appointment as a member of the Montgomery County Board of Assistance, to serve until December 31, 1958, and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified, vice Mrs. Lucye P. Unger, East Greenville, whose term expired.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1854, AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House insists on its non-concurrence in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1854, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain homes.

and has appointed Messrs. POLEN, READINGER and JOHNSON as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate (if the Senate shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1781

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1781, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 28 1953 (P. L. 723) entitled "Second Class County Code" enabling county commissioners to establish by resolution the requirements of responsible bidders for county printing.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1787

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1787, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the establishment of a professorship in the School of Medicine.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 2048

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 2048, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment of costs incurred in administering the Special School Milk Program in cooperation with the Federal Government.

HOUSE RECEDES FROM NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1113

He also informed the Senate that the House recedes from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1113, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), entitled "Administrative Code of 1929," providing for the establishment by the Department of Property and Supplies of standards for the design, construction, repair, alteration, equipping and furnishing of buildings owned or to be constructed or subsidized by or for the Commonwealth and the material used therein; repealing inconsistentent legislation; directing the Department of Property and Supplies to make a report to the next General Assembly; and making an appropriation.

HOUSE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2101

He also informed the Senate that the House has adopted the Report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred fifty-six (P. L.) (Act No. 381) entitled "Selective Sales and Use Tax Act" by defining or redefining certain words terms and procedural provisions in the act excluding certain personal property from the tax and changing provisions for assessment and collection of the tax and license fees.

The PRESIDENT. This Report of Committee of Conference will appear on Monday's Calendar.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 173, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence, House Bill No. 173, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishment of police pensions pension funds or pension annuities in certain boroughs towns and townships and the regulation and maintenance thereof providing for continuance of existing funds or transfer thereof to funds herein established prescribing rights of beneficiaries and repealing certain acts.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The PRESIDENT. The bill, as amended, will appear on Monday's Calendar.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 177

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO SUPPORT AND ENACT INTO LEGISLATION MEASURES ESTABLISHING A NEW NATIONAL CEMETERY IN PENNSYLVANIA.

In the Senate, May 8, 1956.

The two National cemeteries located in Pennsylvania have been closed to additional interments of veterans of our wars, and closing them in their entirety is imminent due to lack of sufficient space.

Since neither of the two present National cemeteries can be considered appropriate for possible last resting places for those who fought for our Commonwealth and our Country, and who may die today or in the future, it is the sincere opinion of the great majority of the veterans in Pennsylvania that a new National cemetery should be established within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at an entirely new location, and that cemetery be associated with the present and future requirements of those who fought in the wars of our Country.

It is known, from official sources, that there is available within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, a tract of one hundred acres to three hundred and fifty acres situated at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, and this could be made available to the United States Department of the Army, for the purpose of establishing a new National cemetery. Bills to accomplish this purpose have been introduced in the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Eighty-fourth United States Congress; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memoralize the Congress of the United States to support and enact into legislation measures establishing a new National cemetery in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

BILLS SIGNED

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 201, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the payment of certain moral claims providing for the examination adjustment and payment of moral claims of persons injured by reason of falling down the main staircase of the Capitol Building as a result of negligence of the Commonwealth in maintaining the same.

Senate Bill No. 420, entitled:

An Act amending "The Vehicle Code" " providing additional enforcement procedures on traffic violations in first second and second class A cities.

Senate Bill No. 859, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the Mary Bailey Foundation for Heart and Great Vessel Research.

Senate Bill No. 1023, entitled:

An Act amending the "Borough Rural State Highway Law"  changing or deleting certain routes and adding certain new routes.

Senate Bill No. 1024, entitled:

An Act amending the "City State Highway Law"  adding certain new routes.

Senate Bill No. 1025, entitled:

An Act amending the "Rural State Highway Law"  changing or deleting certain routes and adding certain new routes.

Senate Bill No. 1086, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 642) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by providing that persons firms or corporations who are operating or conducting hotels restaurants dining-cars or other public eating-places in this Commonwealth shall not employ or keep in their employ as cooks waiters kitchen-help chambermaids or other house-servants any person or persons who are suffering from trachoma active tuberculosis of the lungs open skin tuberculosis syphilis gonorrhea open external cancer or barber's itch or who are carriers of typhoid fever and further providing that no dishes receptacles or utensils used in eating or drinking shall be furnished to patrons or customers of any such public eating-place unless the same have been thoroughly cleansed since used by another individual and further providing that no towels shall be furnished in any wash-room in connection with any such public eating-place unless such towels be laundered or discarded after each individual use and further providing that no common drinking-cups shall be furnished at any public drinking-place operated in connection with any such public eating-place and providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act."

Senate Bill No. 1092, entitled:

An Act amending the act of August 9 1955 (P. L. 323) entitled "An act relating to counties of the third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating hereto" providing for special enrollments for determining population of counties for purpose of changing classification.

Senate Bill No. 1103, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1 1929 (P. L. 1005) entitled as amended "The Tractor Code" authorizing the issuance of special permits to dealers for the operation or movement of over-size self-propelled combines and fixing fees for such permits.

Whereupon,

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 1062

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I submit the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 1062, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the thirty-first day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-five (P. L.) (Act No 131) entitled "An act permitting and regulating wrestling and boxing contests and exhibitions . . ." by making certain technical changes and by adding provisions concerning safety regulations and matchmakers.

The PRESIDENT. This Report of Committee of Conference will appear on Monday's Calendar.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of having a meeting of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORT OF SENATE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE HOSPITAL FOR THE CRIMINAL INSANE AT FARVIEW, PURSUANT TO SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 4a.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I submit herewith the report of the Committee to Investigate the Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Farview, pursuant to Senate Resolution, Serial No. 4a. I might add that copies have been placed on each of the Member's desks, and I request that this report be printed in the Legislative Journal.

There being no objection, the report (pursuant to Senate Resolution, Serial No. 4a) was ordered to be printed in the Journal as follows:

TO THE HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, HARRISBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

The Committee of the Senate, appointed pursuant to Resolution No. 4a of the 141st session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, authorizing an investigation of the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Farview, respectfully submits its report.

The investigation was deemed necessary by reason of the fact that from June 4, 1955 to January 29, 1956, a total of 33 patients escaped in five separate escapes from Farview. This large number of escapes caused considerable concern, particularly to persons living in the immediate area of the Institution in Wayne and Lackawanna Counties. The purpose of the investigation was to determine, if possible, the cause of the escapes, and to make whatever recommendations for legislative action might appear to be appropriate.

The Committee visited and inspected the Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Farview. Public hearings were held on two days in Honesdale, Wayne County, and on two days in Harrisburg. At these hearings several witnesses were heard and 809 pages of testimony were taken and transcribed.

Farview is the only institution of its kind in Pennsylvania. It is unique in that it houses criminals who are mentally insane. It was found that there are three types of criminals housed here, namely, those who were insane at the time of trial and sentence for a crime, and those who became insane while serving a sentence at a penitentiary for a crime. In many respects, this institution houses some of the most dangerous criminals in Pennsylvania. It was found that 26% of the inmates had been sentenced for murder and 15% for rape and other sexual offenses. The institution was built to house 941 inmates, whereas the population on the date of the Committee's visit was 1325.

One of the specific possibilities for legislative action was the transfer of this institution from the jurisdiction of the Department of Welfare to the Department of Justice. All of Pennsylvania's institutions housing criminals are under the Department of Justice, while all institutions for the mentally insane are under the Department of Welfare. Farview is a hybrid institution, since its patients are criminal and insane. In view of all of the circumstances revealed by the investigation, it is the judgment of the Committee that the more important common denominator in the case of the Farview inmates is that they are mentally ill people. Therefore, it is the recommendation of the Committee that the institution continue to be under the supervision of the Department of Welfare, and that no legislative action be taken to transfer it to the Department of Justice.

In the pertinent period—June 4, 1955 to January 29, 1956—there were five separate breaks in which a total of at least 33 inmates got out of the institution. The year 1955 saw more escapes by far than any other year in the history of the institution. It is noteworthy that in the ten preceeding years, a total of 44 patients escaped.

Some of the escapes were by single patients and it appears that some of them were merely mentally confused patients who wandered off the grounds or from their jobs in the fields. However, on August 6, 1955, two patients escaped by stealing an auto owned by one of the guards which was parked on the institution's parking lot. This break had dangerous possibilities because there was in the auto, a shot gun owned by the guard. These two particular patients were apprehended by New York State Police and it is said that at the time of their capture they were trying to assemble the shot gun. Apparently they were unable to do so and they were recaptured without violence.

The Committee concerned itself primarily with the three major breaks in which a large number of patients was involved. These breaks occurred on June 4 and October 4, 1955 and January 29, 1956.

In the break of June 4, 1955, the patients in Ward "D" overpowered three guards, there being approximately 100 patients in the Ward at the time. The number of patients indicates the degree of overcrowding in the institution. However, the break was effected because the patients were able to remove a fire door from its hinges, the door being merely suspended on bolts to which there was no nut or locking device attached. The patient lifted the fire door off the bolts and used it as a battering ram on two other doors between them and the outside. After this break, the fire doors were welded to their bolts and it is doubted that they can be removed so easily in the future. On this particular break, approximately 25 patients got out of the hospital, all but 10 being recaptured immediately.

It was found that on the break of January 29, 1956, four patients effected an escape through the kitchen where they customarily worked. The break was effected by unlocking a door which was secured with a rather old-fashioned and inadequate lock. Further, it has been suggested that there is a possibility that an employee furnished one of the patients with the key to this door. Since the break, the door has been replaced and heavier and better locks placed on it.

The break of October 4, 1955 was perhaps the most serious in that it occurred from Ward "J", the maximum security ward in the institution which houses the most violent and dangerous patients. This Ward is provided with individual cells for the patients. At night, one of the patients called to the guards who were outside a locked door in the corridor to notify him that he had to go to the bathroom. The guard unlocked the door and entered the ward to escort the patient to the bathroom. When he did, the other patients came out of their individual cells, which were not locked, and overpowered him and the other guard on duty in the corridor. The guards were locked in one of the cells. The patients then escaped by removing a stone block under the sill of one of the windows. In this connection, it is interesting to note the testimony of the superintendent of the institution who stated that it appeared that the patients had been chipping away at the mortar around this stone for more than a year in preparation for the break. A week previous, a carpenter had replaced a piece of board on the window sill which appeared loose. However, it apparently was not noted that the mortar was gone from around the block of stone, or at least, a report was not made to the superintendent.

In the so-called major breaks, in every instance the State Police and the police of nearby communities, were alerted, although the time interval of the alert from the institution varied in each break. In most instances the patients were recaptured within a day or so, but at least two patients were not recaptured until several months later when picked up by the FBI in Illinois. There is no preconceived plan of police co-operation for use after an escape.

After each of the major breaks an investigator from the Department of Welfare in Harrisburg was sent to the institution and he made a report to the Secretary of the Department of Welfare in Harrisburg. The Secretary made available to the Committee copies of these reports. However, in no instance has any written change in security regulations been effected by the Secretary of Welfare on the basis of these reports. It was reported to the Committee that the Secretary of Welfare made but one visit to the institution in 1955, and that he had discussed security measures on more than one occasion, presumably over the telephone, with the superintendent.

It is the judgment of the Committee that the Secretary of Welfare was content, after each break, to receive a report that the particular exit had been closed, and that a break could not occur in that manner again, it would appear that some of those breaks could have been avoided by proper inspection and minimal imagination.

Certainly, the possibility of a fire door being lifted off an unsecured hinge and used as a battering ram might have been anticipated. There is no question but that the break of January 29, 1956 could have been avoided if the patients were locked in their individual cells during the night time. It is incredible to the Committee that the chipping away of mortar around the stone base of the bars in a window for more than a year was not detected, particularly when a carpenter was working on it within a week of the break. A routine inspection, the need for which in a maximum security ward is clear, would certainly have revealed the burrowing activities of the patients in the ward over a long period of months.

The failure of the Secretary of Welfare to take any action, or commit to writing any changes in security measures after receiving three written investigation reports, indicates a superficial and cavalier interest in security problems at Farview. This attitude may have been corrected since it is noted that following the convening of this Committee the Secretary has engaged a prison expert to review the security problems at Farview.

It is interesting to note, also, that there have been no written instructions to the Superintendent of Farview as regards to security measures and procedures generally, and that the latest material on this subject was compiled in 1944. There was testimony that in the Spring of 1955 the Secretary of Welfare had a meeting in Harrisburg with the superintendents of all of the state's mental hospitals, including Farview. At this meeting, the subect of mechanical restraints, solitary confinement and punishment of mentally ill persons was apparently discussed. It has been testified that there was no written record of the meeting, and that following the meeting there were no written instructions issued to the various superintendents on these questions; nor was there any specific change made with reference to the 1944 manual which was discussed at the meeting. It is clear, however, that one of the themes of the meeting was the elimination of mechanical restraints on patients.

It appeared that the superintendent of Farview returned from this meeting in Harrisburg with the impression that the Secretary of Welfare encouraged the lessening of physical restraints on patients in mental hospitals. The superintendent thereupon apparently orally told the members of the staff and the officers of the guard in general terms that there was to be a lessening of restraint. It would appear that the verbal discussion in Harrisburg, which was never committed to writing by the Secretary of Welfare, was subject to interpretation by the superintendent of each institution, and that the question of security was the responsibility of each superintendent to be decided at his institution as he saw fit.

This information, in one form or another, evidently was transmitted to the patients themselves, and members of the staff readily admitted that any change in policy would soon be known to the patients. This change in attitude or emphasis was widely reported in the Press.

It is submitted that such a verbal discussion of policy change in security could easily be interpreted differently by different people. The Committee finds that this change in policy or attitude transmitted itself to the patients and was subject to the interpretation that general security requirements would be relaxed. It is believed that the increasing frequency of breaks a short time after the Harrisburg meeting is evidence that the patients believed that security had been relaxed. It is the judgment of the Committee that the Secretary of Welfare was delinquent in not committing to writing specific points discussed by the superintendent at the Spring meeting, particularly with reference to lessening of physical restraints and security measures in general, and that leaving the conference with only a verbal understanding of a program permitted misinterpretation of departmental policy.

The Committee finds a causal connection between the failure of the Secretary of Welfare to commit suggested changes in policy or attitude to writing and the large numbers of escapes in the pertinent period.

It is interesting to note that on the date of the Committee's visit to the Institution, the gate watchman's shanty, located some distance from the main building, did not even have telephone communication with the institution. It was possible for the Committee to drive to the main door of the institution without the prior knowledge of any of the officials. This, and many other similar details too numerous to be noted in a report of this nature, indicated that the security aspects of this institution have not received proper emphasis. It was the judgment of the Committee that an expert in prisons, preferably from the Pennsylvania Penal System, should survey the institution with a view toward improving security measures at the institution. Since the Committee's hearings and while this report was in progress, the Secretary of Welfare has retained an expert, formerly connected with the Federal Bureau of Prisons, to study the institution and make recommendations dealing with security.

Another development of the investigation deserves comment. It appears that until the break of January 29, 1956, State and local officials were not furnished with pictures of escapees. It was the province of the superintendent to decide whether or not pictures should be made available to the Police and Press and there is no departmental policy on this subject. Obviously, the Police would be handicapped in the recapture of escapees without photographs. It appears that it was the thinking of the doctors at the institution to refuse photographs of escapees for fear that the publicity would be harmful to the escapees as mental patients and impede their recovery. It is the judgment of the Committee that the rights of the citizens in the neighborhood of the institution and in Pennsylvania at large, are superior to those of an escaped insane criminal, and descriptoins and photographs of escapees should be promptly circulated as widely as possible to aid in their recapture. The superintendent of the institution stated at the hearings that he would furnish photographs to the State Police and the Press in the future. It is also recommended that photographs be taken of the inmates at least every two years. In some instances, photographs of the inmates were more than ten years old and virtually useless as a means of identification.

The Committee finds that there are two other features which contributed to the large number of escapes in the pertinent period. One is that the guards have insufficient training. It was testified by the Superintendent that a guard is given no more than two hours of training before being regularly assigned to a shift. This would seem totally inadequate and the Committee recommends a more intensive and comprehensive training for guard personnel.

It is also obvious that the hospital is terribly understaffed from a medical point of view, the only fully accredited psychiatrist being the superintendent. As superintendent, he is greatly overworked and burdened with all of the security, administrative and management problems of this large institution. Every possible avenue should be explored to provide more adequate medical and psychiatric help at the institution. The institution has a low rate of discharges of patients and it is believed that despair of a possibility of a cure, causes discontent among the more stable patients and contributed to the unrest which culminated in this large number of breaks.

The Committee is disturbed by testimony to the effect that the break on January 29, 1956, may have been aided by one of the employees. The Secretary of Welfare and the superintendent of the institution testified that here was a "rumor" that the inmates had bought a key to the lock on the kitchen door from an employee of the hospital. The Department of Welfare is investigating this allegation. It would appear to the Committee that such information should be promptly turned over to the Pennsylvania State Police for investigation. It would seem clear that the Pennsylvania State Police and the County District Attorney's office are far better qualified to investigate and prosecute any allegations of a criminal nature, than the Department of Welfare.

Perhaps the most disturbing feature of the investigation was the fact that several Departmenal witnesses offered contradictory testimony on several points, some of them admittedly of minor importance. For example, there was a difference in the testimony as to the number of patients who escaped in the break of June 4, 1955. The Superintendent and the Captain of the Guards testified that fifteen inmates escaped, whereas the Secretary of Welfare stated that the report to them indicated that thirty inmates escaped. Yet, all of these witnesses manifestly must have received their information from the same original sources.

The difficulty in reconciling these contradictions in testimony points up an inherent limitation in a limited legislative inquiry. Reconcilation is possible, of course, but only after protracted and costly re-examination of witnesses. This is a problem not peculiar to this Committee alone.

We mention it because it relates to a fundamental problem of government which has caused increasing concern to members of the General Assembly in recent years. The problem, simply stated, is to keep public servants responsive to the will of the people in a state whose bureaucracy is becoming more complex at an accelerating pace, with an accompanying increase in budgets and taxes.

A contributing feature of this is the fact that a Pennsylvania Governor cannot succeed himself. Each new Governor is to some extend bound by policies and programs of previous administrations. To preserve continuity in Government, experienced personnel must be retained. This makes possible the evolution of a bureaucracy whose policies and attitudes, particularly in important but obscure areas of state activities, are not subject to direct control of the electorate.

A legislative inquiry is one approach to a solution of this problem. Citizens of the Commonwealth can more readily petition their representative in the General Assembly, than a Departmental Secretary, for redress of a grievance. However, to be effective legislative inquiry must have more time and scope than single Committees limited to a situation peculiar to one institution.

The Committee therefore recommends the enactment of legislation which would set up a permanent Committee, empowered to act while the Assembly is not in session, to work with the Department of Welfare. It is thought that this would make for a better mutual understanding of the problems of legislative and executive branches of government.

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. Senate Bill No. 965 be not enacted.

2. Speedy development of a permanent committee under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 1044.

3. Building of a fence around Farview Hospital.

4. Appointment of two Deputy Superintendents at Farview, one of training and experience qualified to be the Warden of a State Penitentiary, and the other of business training and experience commensurate with the responsibility of managing the accounting; purchasing and personnel aspects of this institution.

5. Setting up, in cooperation with the State Police and police officials in nearby communities a plan for police coordination to be put into effect after a break from the institution.

6. Rephotographing patients at least every two years for police identification purposes.

7. Issuance of a written manual of security rules to be based on recommendations of the prison expert currently studying Farview.

8. As an aid to detection of patients after escape, it is recommended that all patients be fingerprinted, and that at least those who are in a disturbed state wear distinctive clothing.

9. There was some testimony elicited at the hearing as to the abandonment of certain farm and agricultural activities at the institution. In paricular, the trees in an apple orchard were destroyed by an order of the Secretary of Welfare in 1955. The question of abandonment of farming activities at welfare institutions was not in the scope of this Committee's mission. However, the action of the Department of Welfare presents several puzzling question, and it is recommended to the Senate that another Committee be appointed to examine the Department of Welfare's discontinuance of farming activities at several institutions throughout the Commonwealth.

10. Referral of this report and copies of testimony to the Attorney General for further investigation and prosecution, if indicated, of allegations that on one occasion a breakout was abetted by an employee of the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH J. McMENAMIN

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bucks, Senator Watson, who is Chairman of the Executive Nominations Committee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Watson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATSON. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Watson, could you tell me if the nomination of former Senator John Byrne, to the Turnpike Commission, is in the Committee on Executive Nominations or in the Committee on Rules?

Mr. WATSON. It is in the Committee on Executive Nominations.

Mr. BARR. Do you intend having a meeting of the committee so that the matter can be brought before the Senate prior to final adjournment?

Mr. WATSON. I will call a meeting of the committee if you request it. I took it up with the Republican Caucus today and there are no nominations to come out today.

Mr. BARR. Would you extend us the courtesy of calling a meeting of the Committee on Executive Nominations?

Mr. WATSON. I would have to, of course.

Mr. BARR. Could you tell me when it is going to be called?

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, so that the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations can call a meeting of the committee.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, there are several Members here who would like to vote on some bills that are on the Calendar. I respectfully request that the Senator delay that meeting until we can at least run whatever controversial bills there are on our Calendar and then hold the meeting.

MOTION TO RECESS WITHDRAWN

Mr. BARR. All right, Mr. President, I will withdraw temporarily my motion that the Senate do now take a five minute recess.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the motion.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McMENAMIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, a good many Members of the General Assembly in the past seventeen months have been amazed at reports emanating from various welfare institutions around the State that certain agricultural and farming practices at Welfare Department Institutions have been summarily abandoned. As we understand it, apple orchards have been cut down, prize herds of beef cattle have been sold and fields of potatoes have been plowed under without harvesting and so on.

In the closing days of the Legislature, it is going to be too late, of course, for an ordinary committee to investigate this. However, we do offer this resolution and ask that the Joint State Government Commission, in the interim between Sessions, investigate to determine the advisability of abandoning farming activities by the Department of Welfare.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A THOROUGH STUDY AND INVESTIGATION ON THE ADVISABILITY OF THE SELLING OF ANIMAL HERDS AND POULTRY FLOCKS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF WELFARE

Messrs. McMENAMIN, STEVENSON, BERGER, YOSKO MADIGAN, HARNEY, SCOTT, PROPERT, FLACK, WOLFE, WAGNER, VAN SANT and DERK offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

By order of the Secretary of Welfare animal herds and poultry flocks at State institutions in the Department of Welfare are being sold.

The reason therefor, according to the Secretary of Welfare, is that farm work and animal husbandry are not considered suitable work for patients at these institutions.

There exist serious doubts as to the logic and basis for such reasoning.

The products of the farms and products from the herds and poultry flocks furnished a major part of the food for the maintenance of the institutions at a great saving to the Commonwealth.

These herds and flocks through expert experimentation and research have been built up to a status of thoroughbred herds and flocks at a great cost to the Commonwealth, which has in turn resulted in the best products possible for the patients at the institutions.

The sale of the herds and flocks would entail a great financial loss to the Commonwealth.

To buy such products of herds and flocks on the open market would put a serious extra financial burden on the Commonwealth, which could probably require additional tax money.

After a recent investigation of the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza, a committee of the House of Representatives recommended that patients at Morganza be taught farming and animal husbandry and that some should be occupied and engaged in agricultural pursuits. This recommendation should be given serious and sincere consideration; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to make a thorough study and investigation on the advisability of the selling of the animal herds and poultry flocks by the Department of Welfare. The commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas under its hand and seal requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the commission may deem necessary. Such subpoenas shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. The commission shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before the commission or to produce books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make a report of its findings to His Excellency, the Governor, and that the Governor do all within his power to stop the sale of the animals and poultry at the institutions if the commission recommends the sale thereof is not to the best interest of the Commonwealth.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DONOLOW asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I am about to introduce a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration. It is a resolution which has been signed by almost every Member on both sides of the Senate. This resolution calls for the appointment of five Members to a committee to examine boxing in Pennsylvania and to make its recommendations to the 1957 Session of the General Assembly.

Mr. President, we have been reading a great many statements in the last few days, and possibly a month or two before, about the present position of boxing in Pennsylvania today. All the statements we have read or heard about have been detrimental to the sport. We all know that for approximately one year or more, Pennsylvania has been lacking of a big time major fight. There is something wrong with the conduct of the sport as it stands at the present time. We are not interested in criticizing those who are responsible. However, if we do find responsibility, I think it should be the duty of this committee to point it out and attempt to correct it.

We are interested in correcting the impressions which we read in the newspapers where a young man says that he was forced to fight even though he had a case of syphilis and if he refused to fight, he would be barred for life. On the other hand, we read where the Commissioner in Philadelphia said that this is not so, although he knew that this young man was suffering from this illness. We would like to get to the bottom of this situation. I think it is the duty of the elected Members of this Senate to find out what is going on in this Commission and to call in people who really know the sport. We should question them as to their recommendations for the future. I think if we do it on our own and not listen to commisison reports or the hearings that they have held, we can make far more progress.

Mr. President, we read a lengthy report and I followed every bit of testimony after the Johnson fight by this present Commission. I can tell you right now that I am confused; I do not know what happened after all those hearings. I refuse at this time to rely on anymore of their investigations. I think we should make our own investigations. I think it is our duty to the people of Pennsylvania, at the next Session of the Legislature, to present a constructive program to correct whatever conditions exist.

Mr. President, I am offering this resolution on behalf of myself and a number of Senators from both sides of the aisle.

SENATE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE BOXING IN PENNSYLVANIA

Messrs. DONOLOW, MAHANY, FLEMING, WATSON, KOPRIVER, JR., BERGER, HAYS, MILLER, BLASS, DiSILVESTRO, LANE, HALUSKA and CAMIEL offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

Whereas, an incident involving professional boxing in Pennsylvania has recently been reported which, because of its seriousness, reflects discredit upon the sport and its administration in Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, professional boxing in Pennsylvania is becoming extinct for the reason that it is reported there is dissention between boxing officials, managers of fighters and promoters with the result that major boxing events have not been scheduled in Pennsylvania for an unreasonable period; and it appears that unless existing misunderstandings, whatever they may be, are adjusted, Pennsylvania will be the forgotten state relative to professional boxing events; therefore be it

Resolved, That the President Pro Tempore appoint a committee of five Senators to conduct hearings to receive the views and gather information on the subject and conditions from persons experienced in the field, and from others interested in the future welfare of the sport in Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee herein appointed report its findings and recommendations to the 1957 session of the Senate.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. DONOLOW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, before we act on this resolution, I would like to read an article on the subject, written by one of the distinguished correspondents who covers the news here at the State Capitol, representing the Allentown Morning Call. He is no other than Charlie Ettinger. I do not know of a person in this room—and Charlie is present—who would be more qualified than Charlie to cover this subject. In his younger days, he was a fight manager as well as a fight promoter. This article is factual, this article is statistical and this article is sound in its reasoning. I certainly hope that every Member of this Senate will listen to what Charlie Ettinger has to say about the boxing situation in Pennsylvania.

I quote from his column:

> Last week the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission had as guests members of the National Boxing Assn's uniform rules committee. A lot of others were invited to come to Harrisburg but they did not show up.
> The announced purpose of the meeting was to draft a national fight code, to apply to all states across the nation. The solons met for two days then disbursed without any evidence of progress.
> Boxing is a sick sport. It is ailing everywhere, but it is desperately ill in Pennsylvania.
> The State Athletic Commission supervises both boxing and wrestling. It is not prying into professional wrestling except that it does not permit advertising matches as "contests."
> The commission collects five per cent gross on all admissions to sports. It collects the license fees of boxers, trainers, handlers, managers, promoters and officials. It collects the filing fees for bonds and it levies some fines.
> How much wrestling contributes is not discernible from an inspection of the commission's fiscal affairs. Boxing has always been the major contributor.
> A glimpse at the commission's fiscal affairs shows just how sick boxing is. It shows that the taxpayers are digging into their jeans to pay the freight.
> The commission maintains three offices. One is in Philadelphia, another in Pittsburgh and another in Scranton. The latter was moved from Williamsport last year.
> For the first nine months of the current fiscal year, beginning with June 1, 1955, and ending Feb. 29, 1956, the revenue from boxing and wrestling, all sources in all three offices, totaled $13,346. A breakdown shows these figures: tax collected, $6,191.19; license fees, $6,580; fines, $355; bond filing fees, $220.
> The commission's expenses for the same nine months were $46,639.64. The taxpayers paid the difference between revenue and expenditures which was $33,293.64.
> The last time the State Athletic Commission finished in the black was in 1953. For the fiscal year ending May 31, 1951, the expenditures were $71,902.11 and the revenue totaled $89,109.07. The revenue sources and the amount realized from each were: tax on admissions, $71,819.07; license fees, $15,875; fines, $1,075; bond filing fees, $340.

Then it gives the figures for the fiscal years ending 1954 and 1955:

> That year fines helped to swell the coffers. The commission imposed and collected $3,750 worth. But the admissions tax dropped to less than half what it was the previous year, or $25,672.18. Other revenue sources were: license fees, $16,530; bond filing fees, $390.

From the above it is obvious that a grand sport that once flourished in every city and even in hamlets in the commonwealth is headed for extinction.

The code writing coterie that gathered in Harrisburg last week did so amid considerable fanfare. The Pennsylvania commission announced a long list of celebrities who had been invited and were expected to attend.

Among them were Jersey Joe Walcott, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, Rocky Marciano, Sugar Ray Robinson, Carmen Basillio and others. None of them appeared.

A long list of sports writers was announced as having been invited. Several local writers covered the sessions. One other who appeared was Budd Schulberg, a magazine writer who is plugging his new book.

Two Philadelphians who added much luster to boxing in bygone days were also missing. Tommy Loughran, former light heavyweight champion of the world, and Lew Tendler were not invited.

A week before the code writers met, Lew Tendler visited Harrisburg. He came there to deliver a speech in connection with a youth program which he is helping to sponsor.

America's onetime newsboy champion is doing a lot of that type of work. He is grateful for what the sport did for him and he knows the impact it had on the problems of juveniles in the days when the game flourished.

In answer to a question, Tendler told a sports writer he suspected the members of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission did not know what their job was all about.

Loughran, idol of the youth and their elders for more than a generation, went a bit farther. He said he thought the commission was "blind and not capable."

Such comments should not have disturbed Alfred M. Klein, Philadelphia member of the commission. Only last October in Lancaster he said publicly he knew nothing about boxing when he was appointed to the commission. He went a bit farther and said neither did commissioners Jim Crowley and Paul Sullivan have any experience in that field.

But Commissioner Klein was disturbed. He accused the immortal Tommy Loughran of employing "a cheap way to get his name in the paper." As for Lew Tendler he said, "I would not dignify anything Tendler says."

State control of boxing and wrestling has been in effect in Pennsylvania since 1923. When it came in every city, town and village had its ring hero. These athletes were the idols of the youngsters in their communities.

It has taken 33 years to bring the sport to its present sorry state. Unless something drastic is done the end is in sight and it won't be code writers who will save it.

The contention of those who attended the meeting in Harrisburg is that racketeers have taken a stranglehold on the sport. They want to break the grip by writing codes, although they were not in agreement on what should go into the codes.

As athletes competing in the ring, Tommy Loughran and Lew Tendler were model young men. Today they are exemplary citizens with untarnished records in and out of the ring, in public and in private life.

To the rising generation these men are almost legendary figures. The attempt to besmirch the reputations of these two men is one of the tragedies of what is now happening to boxing.

The one fact that stands out boldly is that before the state assumed control of boxing there were no charges that racketeers infiltrated into it. Usually, in the communities, local people sponsored the sport and local authorities regulated it.

Solution of the problem is simple. Before there was a State Athletic Commission there were no charges of racketeering. How did the racketeers gain control later—if they have?

The General Assembly initiates and conducts many investigations, invariably with beneficial results to the public.

There has been talk of a legislative investigation into the operating of the State Athletic Commission, past and present. To date nothing has come of it.

One reason is that there are those who do not want to dig up the dead past.

The present commission started out with the best intentions. The fact remains that it has a bull by the tail and it does not know what to do about it.

Mr. President, if there is anything wrong with boxing or the Boxing Commission, it seems to me that it is in the personnel that is in charge of the Commission. I find no fault with the present members except for the fact that they are not qualified to serve in the field for which they were appointed. I refer to the immortal Jim Crowley, one of America's outstanding athletes. It is true that he is a specialist in his own field of football, but it seems to me that he is out of place in so far as boxing is concerned. The other gentleman on the commission is Alfred Klein. He professes to be a lawyer and an F.B.I. Investigator and he also confesses to the fact that he knew nothing and knows nothing about boxing. The third member is Paul Sullivan who I understand is one of the outstanding tennis players, not only in Pennsylvania but in the Nation. However, this is not a tennis game; this is a boxing game.

Since it seems to me that we are dealing with an octopus, the International Boxing Commission, and since we are dealing with the best minds in the boxing game, our members on the Boxing Commission should at least be acquainted with the fundamentals of that game, which they confess they are not.

Mr. President, I followed boxing when I was a youngster and I saw many, many fights. Down in my own neighborhood, we had some of the outstanding boxers in the Country; Eddie Foy, Jack McCarran and his brother, Joe, Fighting Bob, and K. O. Willie Loughran. In our area right now, I am sorry to say, we do not have one outstanding fighter because of the low ebb boxing has fallen into in Pennsylvania. Down in our area we formed an old-timer boxers association, of which Charlie Ettinger, I believe, is an officer. That group meets once every year. I attended last year's dinner. They had about 500 old-time boxers there, the majority of them being from the Lehigh Valley Area and vicinity, covering probably about ten counties. If you were to look over that whole crowd, I do not believe you could have picked out three who are currently active in the boxing game. That in itself will give you an idea where we stand on professional boxing in Pennsylvania.

Frankly, Mr. President, unless I was qualified to sit on this Commission, I do not believe I would accept the job. It is a job that calls for experts. It calls for experts because we are dealing, so far as the boxing game is concerned, with slickers, with con men, with grafters, with fight fixers and with shady characters of the ring land. Since that is true, we should have people who know how to cope with them.

I, therefore, Mr. President, agree with the present resolution that was just introduced, so that hearings could be conducted and information gathered to help those who are now serving on the Boxing Commission. In the light of their own confessions that they know nothing about the game, if they do not welcome such help from this Senate, then, in my opinion, they should resign for the good of the sport.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. President, I rise in opposition to the resolution, not because of what it purports to do in so far as boxing is concerned, but on the general principle that there is a line of demarcation wherein the duties and the purposes of the legislative and administrative functions commence.

I think Senator Yosko, in his speech, gave a reason why this resolution should not be passed. He complained about the incompetency, so to speak, of the Boxing Commission. If that is what is wrong, then it is a matter for the Governor and the Administration to take care of.

We here in the Legislature are not going to be a Boxing Commission; we are not going to be the Secretary of Welfare; we are not going to be the Attorney General and every other branch of the Administration. Our function is to see to it that proper legislation is enacted to guide the administrative offices of this Commonwealth. In so far as the administration of the laws is concerned, unless there are charges of fraud, misbehavior in office or something like that involved, I say that we do not have a right as a Legislature to usurp the functions of these various administrative agencies.

Mr. President, we did have a hearing on this boxing problem and a report was made and as a result of that report, the Boxing Code was formulated. We have that Boxing Code and the Boxing Commission and, therefore, let us leave the administration of that Boxing Code to the administrative officers, and the Governor can determine whether or not his officers are properly functioning.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I am a great believer in legislative inquiries and I will always vote for another Senator's investigative resolution. I do not know what they will find out in this investigation, but I am sure one of the things they will conclude at the end is that one of the finest men they will ever hope to meet is Jim Crowley, the Chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission. He is a man of great experience in athletics, both amateur and professional, a businessman of high caliber, a father of a fine family, a great patriot, a man of unimpeachable integrity and a man of great character and reputation. I am certain that Governor Leader has made no better appointment, since he has been Governor, than that of James Crowley as head of the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President. I desire to be recorded as voting "no" on this resolution.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I concur in what Senator McMenamin said about Mr. Crowley. My remarks were not an attack upon his character, reputation or any other factor that Senator McMenamin spoke of. I think Mr. Crowley is a credit to athletics in the field in which he is qualified.

Mr. President, this is not a resolution to investigate the Boxing Commission. This is a resolution to get the views of people who are interested in the future welfare of professional boxing in Pennsylvania. Certainly, there are a good number of people interested in that sport who would like to lend suggestions to a legislative committee, to the end that Pennsylvania would be in the forefront in the promotion of outstanding boxing matches that are scheduled from time to time involving topnotch fighters.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, if the gentlemen on the floor would like to have us finish today's business, I would suggest that we cut off further debate on this and vote on the resolution and discontinue the presentation of any more resolutions until we finish the Calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

(A voice vote having been taken, the resolution was agreed to.)

HOUSE BILL No. 2017 CALLED UP OUT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I call up out of order, from page 4 of today's Final Passage Calendar, House Bill No. 2017, Printer's No. 1681, for consideration.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 2017, on final passage, entitled,

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905) entitled "The Vehicle Code" further regulating the passing of school buses and prescribing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL No. 1934 CALLED UP OUT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I call up out of order, from page 9 of today's Second Reading Calendar, House Bill No. 1934, Printer's No. 1537, for consideration.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 1934, on second reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 29 1953 (P. L. 304) entitled "Vital Statistics Law of 1953" making it unlawful for unauthorized persons to copy duplicate or issue certificates of birth death or fetal death.

be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL No. 2044 CALLED UP OUT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President. I call up out of order, from page 9 of today's Second Reading Calendar, House Bill No. 2044, Printer's No. 1816, for consideration at this time.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 2044, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 752) entitled "Civil Service Act" by extending the coverage of the act and decreasing the size of the grouping for purposes of furlough.

be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, do you believe in Civil Service legislation?

Mr. MAHANY. I do not know that that has anything to do with this particular bill in question, but I would say to the Senator that I certainly do believe the Civil Service legislaion when it affects certain categories of employes.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, what do you find wrong with House Bill No. 2044 that you wish to recommit it?

Mr. MAHANY. There are quite a few things wrong with it, Senator. I feel that the bill probably goes too far. As far as I am personally concerned, I am willing to give merit rating or job protection, if you want to call it that, to higher categories of professional people. For instance, I can understand that the Department of Forests and Waters wants to hire hydraulic engineers and high grade employees for jobs. I can go along with that, but I feel that this particular bill goes too far and extends to too wide a range of employes.

I am also interested to see that Senator Barr, who is your State Democratic Chairman, has more time between now and next January to put in some Democratic jobholders in these various jobs and I think he should be for this motion. When we come back next January and he has a lot of his Democratic people on the job, we can then consider whether or not we should freeze them in.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, I certainly do appreciate your concern for the patronage problems of the Democrats, but the point I would like to make is how do you expect us to secure the services of competent engineers in the Department of Forest and Waters and other departments unless we give them some sort of protection? Do you feel that we do not pay a sufficient salary; is that the case or what is our problem? Can you give us the answer?

Mr. MAHANY. Yes, Senator, we had quite a few very fine individuals as employes in these various departments and we did not seem to have as much trouble as you do. I suggest that you quit firing the fine people that we had and then these people will have a little bit more confidence that their jobs will last longer.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, do you not feel that if we would pass this legislation, it would probably protect some of those fine people that you accuse us of firing?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, I do not think we have to pass legislation to protect you against your natural inclinations. I think if you just restrain yourself a little bit, why, we will not have to have this legislation.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, then you do agree that this spoils system sort of works a hardship as far as technical personnel is concerned? We have no protection now. As a matter of fact, our engineers are going to go by the highways and the byways, and the State of Pennsylvania is going to stand high and dry because we cannot protect them and you Republicans keep cutting the budget to the bone and we cannot increase their salaries.

Mr. MAHANY. That sounds more like a statement than it does an interrogation.

Mr. LANE. Well, I want you to consider it.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, I do not think you need this particular legislation at this time, and I am willing to make it the number one bill of the 1957 Session of the Legislature.

Mr. LANE. You know, you are very, very gracious. Why do you not amend it to suit your taste and we will try to accept it?

Mr. MAHANY. To answer your question, Senator, it is a little bit late to do that now. We expected to adjourn here today. It is too late now to amend this bill because further study should be made in connection with this problem. I think that is one of the things perhaps the Joint State Government Commission might study between now and next January and come up with certain recommendations.

Right now, Senator, we just do not want the bill.

Mr. LANE. I see; you just do not want the bill and you have the votes over there, is that it?

Mr. MAHANY. No, that is not it. I thought I gave you quite a few reasons why we do not want this bill. It is not a matter of steamrolling; we just fell that the legislation goes too far. Frankly, we wonder why you want it. We cannot understand why the Democrats would want this particular bill at this time and we are trying to save you from making this error.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, since you brought up this question of adjourning, are we going to adjourn today or is it going to be Monday?

Mr. MAHANY. We are going to adjourn today and then come back Monday for a little while.

Mr. LANE. If that would be the case, then it would not be too late to amend this bill, would it? We could hold the House another day to concur in the bill.

Mr. MAHANY. I look for a token Session on Monday and there probably will not be a sufficient number of Senators here at that Session to pass this bill. If we did amend it, it would have to go to the House for concurrence and maybe they would not concur in the amendments and then we would have to have a Conference Committee and you know how long those things take. I, therefore, suggest that you just allow us to vote on the motion.

I also understand there might be some Senators on your side who are not too particularly sold on this bill.

Mr. LANE. I wish to thank the gentleman, Mr. President.

Mr. President, my purpose of interrogation was not to leave the impression that all the Democrats are for this particular piece of legislation. I wanted to bring out to the Membership of the Senate, and to the public as a whole, that we are in the position where we cannot retain the services of high type, competent, technical personnel, and I believe that that is the purpose of this piece of legislation. Also, we cannot hold these employees because we do not have the money to pay the large salaries, which is primarily due to the budget—cutting of the Republican Majority.

The Republicans now wish to recommit the bill and I believe they are trying to hamper the operation of some of our departments. There is nothing we can do but go along because the Republicans have the votes. That seems to be the story and, therefore, that is all I have to say.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I must confess that I am a little bit surprised at the by-play between the two distinguished Senators from Washington and Crawford.

Mr. President, most Democrats I know already thought, from what happened in the last seventeen months, that ninety-five per cent of all State employees were under Civil Service anyway.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LANE and Mr. HALUSKA, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Berger,	Kessler,	Miller,	Van Sant,
Blass,	Madigan,	Pechan,	Wade,
Chapman,	Mahany,	Peelor,	Wagner,
Diehm,	Mallery,	Propert,	Watkins,
Flack,	McGinnis,	Scott,	Watson,
Fleming,	McMenamin,	Stevenson,	Whalley,
Harney,	McPherson, Jr.,	Taylor,	Wolfe,

NAYS—19

Barr,	Donolow,	McCreesh,	Silvert,
Camiel,	Haluska,	Mullin,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Hays,	Ruth,	Weiner,
Dork,	Kopriver, Jr.,	Schmidt,	Yosko,
DiSilvestro,	Lane,	Seyler,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, did you say the vote was twenty-eight for recommittal?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I wish to advise the Majority Leader that all the Democrats on this side do not appear to be for Civil Service.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I voted to return this bill to committee. I have spoken here nearly every Session against enlarging or spreading Civil Service. I have told most of the Senators here that in my city we have in the courthouse all county employes, and not one is under Civil Service. Just across the street from the courthouse is the City-County Building and most of those employees are under Civil Service.

Mr. President, if you would go into the courthouse where they have no Civil Service employes, there would be two or three people rush up to you to take care of you. However, if you would go into the Civil Service Office in Pittsburgh, you would have to fall over the desks before they would look at you.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes, for the purpose of having a Republican Caucus.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2101 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I call from the table the Report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred fifty-six (P. L.) (Act No. 381) entitled "Selective Sales and Use Tax Act" by defining or redefining certain words terms and procedural provisions in the act excluding certain personal property from the tax and changing provisions for assessment and collection of the tax and license fees

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 21

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires Reports of Committees of Conference to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the Report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, may we be at ease a minute?

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be at ease.

(The Senate was at ease.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of having a Republican Caucus.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 21 WITHDRAWN

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion that Rule 21 be dispensed with and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the Report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the motion.

STUDENTS OF PALMER TOWNSHIP CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL, NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I just want to note for the record that ninety pupils of the Palmer Township Consolidated School were here, under the leadership of Mr. Roland Moyer, Mr. Arthur Lapp, Mrs. Susan McConalogue, Mrs. June Meyers, and Mrs. Marian Fisher.

I just want to say that I hope their stay was enjoyable as well as educational, and that they had a safe journey home.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, this resolution deals with the flow of illicit liquor into Pennsylvania generally and, especially, over the Camden Bridge into Philadelphia. I desire herewith to request that the Joint State Government Commission undertake a study on how to curb the flow of illicit liquor into Pennsylvania.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD, TO MAKE AN EXHAUSTIVE INVESTIGATION OF ILLICIT LIQUOR TRAFFIC IN THE COMMONWEALTH

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. STIEFEL and CHAPMAN offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

Whereas, The sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages in the Commonwealth are regulated by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, an independent administrative agency; and

Whereas, The total cash receipts of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the biennium ended May 31, 1955, were $470,000,000, of which $424,000,000 was derived from the sale of liquor; and

Whereas, Collections of the 10 per cent liquor tax during the fiscal biennium 1953-1955 amounted to $42,294,802, and liquor store profits transferred to the General Fund amounted to $85,500,000; and

Whereas, The Governor in his Budget estimates collections of the 10 per cent liquor tax for the biennium 1955-1957 at $41,000,000 and liquor store profits at $73,000,000; and

Whereas, It has been alleged that a considerable volume of liquor is illicitly imported into the Commonwealth, and such illicit traffic is not only injurious to the legitimate Pennsylvania vendor who makes his purchases for resale from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board but also adversely affects the magnitude of receipts to the Commonwealth's General Fund; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission, in conjunction with the Liquor Control Board, be directed to make an exhaustive investigation of illicit liquor traffic in the Commonwealth, with a view of developing means and methods of discouraging such illegal traffic, and report its findings and recommendations, together with such drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect, to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

SENATE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE TOLLS CHARGED BY THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE COMMISSION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. DENT, MULLIN, SEYLER, CAMIEL, STIEFEL, McMENAMIN, MILLER, YOSKO, DONOLOW, RUTH, HALUSKA, WEINER, HAYS and LANE offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

It is frequently contended that tolls charged by the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission for use of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and its extensions are unreasonable and exorbitant, and that recent increases in the tolls were unreasonable and unwarranted; therefore be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of five Senators to inquire into and investigate the tolls charged by the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission for the use of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and its extensions, the formula or formulas used for establishing such tolls, the classification of vehicles for assessing tolls, the financial condition of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, and whether or not the recent increases in tolls charged by the Commission were reasonable and warranted; and be it further

Resolved, That the Committee make a report of their findings and recommendations to the Senate not later than the next Session of the Legislature.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF ALL THE PROBLEMS INVOLVING BRANCH BANKING

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. FLEMING, MAHANY, PECHAN, DENT, BARR, PROPERT, HALUSKA, BERGER and LANE offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

Whereas, the establishment of branch banks in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is a matter of vital importance to the public welfare and the economic and banking conditions in the Commonwealth having changed since the establishment in 1937 of branch banking regulations which are still controlling and

Whereas, the policy to be followed by the Commonwealth in authorizing branch banking operations, should be given careful and objective study by an agency that is equipped for such study, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be and is hereby directed to make a study of all of the problems involving branch banking, and make a report of its findings to the next General Assembly, together with its recommendations as to what action should be taken.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 182, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY, from the Committee on Rules, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. STIEFEL and CHAPMAN on May 18, 1956, reported the same without amendment as follows:

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

Whereas, The sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages in the Commonwealth are regulated by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, an independent administrative agency; and

Whereas, The total cash receipts of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the biennium ended May 31, 1955, were $470,000,000, of which $424,000,000 was derived from the sale of liquor; and

Whereas, Collections of the 10 per cent liquor tax during the fiscal biennium 1953-1955 amounted to $42,294,802, and liquor store profits transferred to the General Fund amounted to $85,500,000; and

Whereas, The Governor in his Budget estimates collections of the 10 per cent liquor tax for the biennium 1955-1957 at $41,000,000 and liquor store profits at $73,000,000; and

Whereas, It has been alleged that a considerable volume of liquor is illicitly imported into the Commonwealth, and such illicit traffic is not only injurious to the legitimate Pennsylvania vendor who makes his purchases for resale from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board but also adversely affects the magnitude of receipts to the Commonwealth's General Fund; therefore be it

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

SECOND READING CALENDAR

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1026, Printer's No 309, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, was House Bill No 1026, Printer's No. 309, passed over in its order?

The PRESIDENT That is correct.

Mr. DENT. Am I also correct that it is a second reading bill?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. DENT. Am I also correct that this is the death knell of the bill?

The PRESIDENT It could be.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think we would be wasting a lot of money to print this bill again Monday If the Republicans are going to kill it, they should have the courage to drop it from the Calendar.

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, upon instruction of the Republican Caucus, I move that House Bill No. 1026, Printer's No. 309, be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "no" on this motion.

The PRESIDENT The gentleman from Washington will be so recorded.

(A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the negative).

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I am sure that Senator Dent wanted to keep the record straight in not having any motions carried.

HOUSE BILL No. 1026 CALLED UP

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I now call up for consideration House Bill No. 1026, Printer's No. 309.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I would like to correct Senator Lane. I understand that the bill was passed over.

The PRESIDENT. The bill was passed over, but the Senator has now called it up.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, if the Senator will make the statement that he did not understand that we were considering House Bill No. 1026, Printer's No. 309, at the time when we passed it over, why, I will have no objection.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, there is a lot of confusion here. As a matter of fact, there was a request made to pass the bill over in order and then there was a motion made to drop it from the Calendar and the motion failed. Therefore, I am calling the bill up for action now.

The motion to drop this bill from the Calendar failed. Senator Dent made the motion and you seconded it, Senator Mahany, and it was defeated.

Mr. MAHANY. It does not make any difference whether or not I was licked, Mr. President. I am not making any big issue over this particular bill. I looked over on the other side and when we passed the bill over in order, Senator Dent was busy on other things and Senator Lane perhaps did not know about his wishes, but after it was passed over in order they got together and woke up to the fact that this was the bill they wanted to move up.

Therefore, I am not going to have any objection. If they want to move it up, it is all right with me.

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O God, who knowest the duties that lie ahead of us, the dangers that confront us, and the weaknesses that most easily beset us, make us glad that we are men and that we have inherited not only a share of the world's burden but a goodly portion of Thy joy.

Deliver us from the luxury of cheap melancholy; at the heart of all our trouble and sorrow, let unconquerable gladness dwell; and inspire from our lips a testimony to our faith, through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Thursday, May 17, 1956 will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in order to inform the Members of the present plans, I would like to state that it has become necessary to meet on Monday of next week. After examining the situation concerning printing and so forth it has become obvious that we cannot by having a meeting late tonight adjourn this session sine die at that time. It is our present plan to process the bills on the calendar this afternoon and adjourn the session today as early as possible.

As far as the Members being here is concerned, I am telling you this at this time, so that if anyone desires to check out of the hotel today he may do so. I understand there still will be no rooms available for the Members in the two large hotels next Monday, but we would like as many Members that can come back to be here next Monday. There will be various matters that must be passed on Monday but I believe, at this time, they will all be matters which will have been agreed upon between the House and the Senate and both political parties.

I do not want to say anything today which would indicate that we do not want all of the Members here next Monday but I do think it will result in more or less of a consent calendar on that day. We hope to adjourn this day's session no later than five o'clock, however, we can not guarantee that at the present time.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, will there be a recess declared so that the Members can go down to their hotels to check out and pack?

Mr. READINGER. I believe check out time is three o'clock and the hotels usually make no issue of it if you do not check out until 3:30. It is our present intention to take up the calendar and we possibly might finish all matters of importance prior to three o'clock. If it gets too close to that time or if we run past it, we can declare a recess.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader concerning Monday.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, is there any indication as to what time we come in on Monday and what time we might be able to clear on Monday?

Mr. READINGER. We are planning to come at ten o'clock standard time on Monday and we should be able to get out before five or six o'clock.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state for the information of the Members that the decision upon the part of the leadership of the House was predetermined by action in another place.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 873

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 873.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1295

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1295.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 1295, entitled: "An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Agriculture to assist the Commonwealth's 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America dairy show program by paying the expenses of holding the six existing 4-H Dairy Club Club and F F A district dairy shows and in addition a State-wide show to be held in the Fall of the year as preliminary to the State Farm Show"

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

ALBERT S. MADIGAN,
JO HAYS,
(Committee on the part of the Senate)

E. J. FARABAUGH,
E. GADD SNIDER,
ENOS H. HORST
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives)

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. PETROSKY. I desire to make an observation on the report of the Committee on Conference on House Bill No. 1295.

I am going to vote for this Conference Report. However, I feel that the other body should not have demanded the cut in the appropriation that the House passed for this worthy cause from $30,000 to $10,000. The people that have had contact with the 4-H groups certainly recognize and know the great amount of good they have done for our youngsters in the rural areas. It is my hope, that in the future we can stand firm and gain a larger appropriation for these 4-H groups because of the great good they are doing for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HOCKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we have just concurred in the teachers' salary bills.

I was misquoted in my speech on the bills on, I think, May 8th. The paper of Friday, May 11th, carried an article: "Leader To Carry Stamps to Voters." I have no objection to what the Governor thinks in regard to this, but I was misquoted in his article and I would like to read that quote:

"Refers to Hocker.

> "Mr. Smith said there were sufficient funds for the teachers' salary increases and Mr. Hocker, who is very close to Senator Taylor, said there were not."

Then he goes to work on Charlie Smith, which is all right as far as I am concerned, and talks about him having a private mint, and so on, but I am not interested in that.

I think the Governor was misinformed on what I said. I made the statement on the floor that there was $31 million appropriated for the teachers and I was perfectly willing to vote to spend and give them $31 million this year, but I was opposed to the "old snowball deal" of piling up and piling up on future Legislatures. The thing I was opposed to, and I think if they get my statement they will find it out, is tying the hands of future Legislators in regard to this legislation.

I want it thoroughly understood by everyone that I was willing to give them an increase this year, the entire $31 million that we appropriated, but I am not in favor of doing what this bill intends to do.

With the amendments in—I do not know if any of you have gone over it or not—the only thing the amendments do is stretch it out one more year and tie the hands of another session of the Legislature.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, just one brief comment in answer to the gentleman, and that is to say I am overwhelmed with his generosity in giving money away to somebody when we do not have the money. If we had it, we would all be happy to give it to them probably, but we do not have the money.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 317

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 317.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 317, entitled: An Act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court the President Judge and Judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphan's courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County certain associate judges not learned in the law certain state officers and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly and repealing certain inconsistent acts.

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

ROBERT D. FLEMING,
R. B. MAHANY,
JOHN H. DENT,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

ALBERT S. READINGER,
ANTHONY J. PETROSKY,
ADAM T. BOWER,
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, the money that will be going into the raises in salaries provided for in this Conference Report, which bill was introduced by the Democratic Leader of the Senate, would much better be used to help pay teachers' salaries, teachers' retirements and our mental institutions.

Remember the Legislators are only being given an increase for the purpose of getting the Legislators to vote for this bill to take care of the present administration's political "fat cats," namely, the department heads. Every new department head appointed, plus every present department head who might choose to resign and be reappointed, can get the increase of from $15,000 to $20,000 per year immediately. That is just how easy the poor taxpayers can be taken over.

Now let us look at the raises up to $30,500 per year for the courts. The judges have asked for four increases during my time in the Halls of this House, and prior to that they wrote a judicial opinion about one-quarter of a volume long to simply put across the small statement that the constitutional prohibition against a public official receiving an increase in salary during his present term of office shall not apply to the judges. Do you think the framers of our state Constitution ever intended such an exception to be read into that provision? You know they did not and so does the Supreme Court. So that decision lets the judges get their increases under this bill up to $30,500 per year immediately in this present biennium. Even a judge in a county the size of Adams will be raised to $18,000 per year, plus $50 per day to sit on another bench, plus 10 cents per mile to ride around to the other court.

Then finally this bill ends up with another increase from $25,000 to $35,000 per year for our Governors.

Mr. Speaker, I say to you here today that the people of this Commonwealth will make a decision at the next Governor's election from which there shall be no appeal.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WORLEY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether he knows the amount of compensation paid to Legislators in the State of California?

Mr. WORLEY. I do not.

Mr. READINGER. I desire to ask the gentleman whether he knows the amount of compensation received by Legislators in the State of New York?

Mr. WORLEY. I am not certain, but I believe it is $5,000 per year.

Mr. READINGER. I desire to ask the gentleman whether he knows the amount of compensation paid to Legislators in the State of New Jersey?

Mr. WORLEY. I do not.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I am not going to debate this bill at great length, but in view of the statements just made by the gentleman about the proposed increase in this bill for Legislators, I would like him to know that in the State of New York in a two year period the Legislators receive approximately $15,000, slightly more than $15,000; in the State of New Jersey they receive in excess of $10,000. And in the State of California I believe it is between $12,000 and $15,000.

I would like the Members to know that, I believe that information has been given to the Members perhaps a month or so ago. I just wanted to point out and have the record indicate that we are certainly not voting ourselves into the high-paid class of some of the other states which are comparable to our own, despite what the gentleman says.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Adam,	Bazin,	Greenwood,	Magee,

			Young,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 961, entitled:

An Act amending "The Game Law" * * * authorizing the raising and disposition of nongame pheasants and eggs without propagating permits

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to read into the record a telegram which I received from a party by the name of J. William Shilling, who is Legislative Chairman of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs. It is in relation to the bill before us and reads as follows:

> "The Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsman Clubs are opposed to Senate Bill No. 961 in any form. Feel that present legislation adequate. It would cause much confusion and an enforcement problem. Bring about illegal traffic of game birds and set a bad precedent that might be followed by other species of game."

I am voting against this bill.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I too am against this bill and I sincerely urge all the Members of the House to vote against it. My colleague, Mr. Erb from Blair County, and I have received a similar telegram from all our sportsmen in Blair County.

We have had direct word from the Game Commission that they are directly opposed to this bill. There is really a joker in the thing, there is no question about that. What they are trying to do under this bill apparently is make non-game birds out of what are now game birds, and that refers to pheasants. It would be simply an impossible task, the Game Commission informs me, to try to enforce this bill.

In am further informed that there is a Dauphin County court case pending now and that is the reason for the hurry to get this bill through. It is felt that that case will be lost to the people who brought it, and they want to get this bill through to offset that court decision.

I ask every Member in the House who is interested in sports to vote down this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker. I just want to state that the Sportsmen's Clubs of Westmoreland County have instructed us to oppose this bill.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I had an opportunity to thoroughly discuss this bill with the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, and their particular delegates from Greene County. They have opposed this type of legislation from its start at the time it passed the Senate. I also had an opportunity to check with the Game Commission and speak personally with a member there to discuss this bill. They, also as a body oppose this type of legislation.

I believe the gentleman who spoke earlier covered the subject rather well. I believe it is based upon the ground that a lawsuit is pending in the courts here at the present time. On that particular ground and the fact that it would be rather difficult for the Game Commission to handle this legislation, I do recommend that the Members on this side of the House stand up and oppose this legislation this morning.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Conservation and Wild Life.

Mr. ROVANSEK. Mr. Speaker, I think the bill we are discussing here this morning is a bad piece of legislation. Therefore. I second the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny that this bill be recommitted to the Committee for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1000, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 2, 1945 (P. L. 375) entitled as amended "An act conferring upon the councils of cities of the first class the power and devolving upon them the duty of fixing and determining the salaries wages and other compensation payable out of the treasury of such cities from and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty-six of all public officers clerks and other public embployes except the salaries of elected officers whose salaries are fixed by law" fixing minimum salaries for prothonotaries and deputies in Philadelphia

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHNSON. I just want to say for the benefit of the Members that in our caucus we felt that removing the ceiling on the salaries of the Secretary of the Board and these other officials, the salaries having previously been fixed, is not a good thing.

We are on record in our caucus against it and we would like to ask the Members to vote against this bill.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, the bill may have some merit if they would have an amendment drawn to fix a certain maximum to which these salaries can be raised, but removing the ceiling altogether is certainly not good legislation in my mind.

I certainly will ask for a slow roll call.

CORRY AREA HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR

The SPEAKER. We are privileged to have with us the Corry Area High School Choir, who are here under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynn Rice. The Choir is here as the guests of the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

We will now have the pleasure of hearing the High School Choir.

The Corry Area High School Choir rendered a number of selections.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House

Mr. Speaker, as we draw near the close of this session I would like to express my appreciation for the very fine fellowship I have enjoyed during the twelve years I have been here.

It certainly is with mixed emotions that I come to the end of this session. I have often thought that if this session is ever to end, I would never run again, but as the last day comes, I think we all propably look forward to the beginning of another session.

At the beginning of the next session I think I will probably be fishing. I am not a lame duck; I am just a crippled duck. I was kind of encouraged to try my wings for greener fields but they did not seem to hold up so well. I have no regrets. I enjoyed the campaign and I think a couple of years might do a fellow a lot of good to think about whether he wants to be in politics or whether he wants to look in and watch other people taking a lot of heck, so to speak.

Again I want to say that these twelve years have been probably twelve years during which you just could not ask for more. The people I have met, contrary to what many people would like to have you believe, have been the finest people I have ever met at any place. That applies to both sides of the House.

When they talk about politicians they give me a pain in the neck. I do not think you can find a finer bunch of peopel any place than you will find in the Halls of this House. I challenge any one to contradict that statement.

I say it has been a great pleasure to serve here. I certainly look forward to seeing you all some place, sometime in the future. May God bless you all.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HEWITT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am very reluctant to leave here without saying a few words in appreciation of the treatment I have received for twenty years as a Member of this House.

The most I have gotten out of the Legislature is the many wonderful friendships I have made with men living and dead. I found a bunch of wonderful fellows on both sides of the House. Some of my dearest and best friends are sitting over there as Democrats, but they are still Americans and good ones.

I want to tell you how I appreciate the treatment we have received in the Chief Clerk's office, and from all the employes of the House, the old elevator men who have passed the age for making a decent living, taking a job like that to earn a few dollars. Even the page boys, courteous and kind, and all the lobbyists, all the boys sitting along the sidelines, a necessary part of the legislative session. A bunch of swell fellows. And the Press, and how they treated me in every instance. I have no regrets and am happy to leave. God bless all of you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to state that the gentleman from Erie and the gentleman from Indiana are probably in a happier situation than many of the rest of us. They have crossed their rubicon. They know what has happened and we can only guess what is going to happen to us in the next few months.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ZEIGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am not going to say good-bye to the Members of this House, I am just going to say temporarily, "so long," because I am going to be in Harrisburg, at least I hope, for a while, and I shall visit with you from time to time. Unless some of you change your habits you are going to visit with me, maybe from time to time.

I want to give you this assurance, that whether you are on this side or whether you are on that side, I want you to know that the door to the Mayor's office is always open to you.

It has been a pleasure to work with you. I shall be back to see you from time to time. Again I am not saying, good-bye, but temporarily, just "so long."

REPORT OF HOUSE COMMITTEE ON MERIT RATING SYSTEM

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I submit the report of the House Committee appointed to investigate the Merit Rating System of the Department of Health. Copies for the Members and the Press are available in the Chief Clerk's office.

The SPEAKER. The report will be filed with the Clerk and printed in the Legislative Journal.

REPORT OF HOUSE COMMITTEE ON MERIT RATING SYSTEM

Concerning status of employees under Merit Rating System in use by

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH of the
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Session of 1955

Committee of the House, appointed by Speaker of the House, pursuant to House Resolution No. 119, Session of 1955, adopted the 23rd day of November, 1955.

MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE:

PHILIP LOPRESTI, Chairman
STEPHEN McCANN
VAN D. YETTER, JR.
ADAM T. BOWER
EDWIN W. TOMPKINS

Letter of Transmittal to the Members of the House of Representatives
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Pursuant to the directive of the House contained in House Resolution No. 119, there is presented herewith a report on the subject set forth in various paragraphs of said resolution.

In its effort to secure information for the preparation of the within report, the Committee held three hearings at which the following witnesses were examined—

DR. BERWYN F. MATTISON, Secretary of Health
DR. CHARLES L. WILBAR, Deputy Secretary of Health
DR. WILLIAM KRAUS, Assistant Director, Bureau of Tuberculosis Control
MICHAEL T. SMYSER, Senior Personnel Technician
RALPH D. TIVE, Executive Director, Pennsylvania State Civil Service Commission

This legislative inquiry demonstrates that the subject of personnel within the Department of Health and in connection therewith a general study of personnel problems by the Joint State Government Commission, might be helpful in bringing about a more comprehensive and equitable solution of the personnel problem existing under various departments of the Commonwealth.

PART I

ACT NO. 322

Approved the 24 Day of August 1951

To further amend subsection (a) of section two hundred seven and subsection (f) of section four hundred forty-eight and to amend section two thousand one hundred eleven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain admisistrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by prescribing the qualifications for the Secretary of Health, and by reconstituting the Advisory Health Board and further prescribing its powers and duties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Subsection (a) of section two hundred seven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative work of the Commonwealth by Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," as last amended by the act, approved the eighteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 16), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 207. Appointment.—The Governor shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all members of the Senate, appoint:

(a) The Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Attorney General, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Adjutant General, the Insurance Commissioner, the Secretary of Banking, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Forests and Waters, the Secretary of Mines, the Secretary of Highways, the Secretary of Health, the Commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police, the Secretary of Labor and Industry, the Secretary of Welfare, the Secretary of Property and Supplies, the Secretary of Revenue, the Secretary of Public Assistance, the Secretary of Commerce, and the members of all independent administrative boards and commissions.

The Adjutant General may have the rank of Major General of the Adjutant General's Department in the Pennsylvania National Guard, or Pennsylvania Guard, or the Governor may designate the ranking line officer of the Pennsylvania National Guard, or Pennsylvania Guard, or an officer of the Regular Army, United States Navy, United States Coast Guard, or United States Marine Corps, as Adjutant General: Provided, That should the ranking line officer be also appointed Adjutant General, he shall receive only the salary provided by law for the Adjutant General: And Provided further, That the ranking line officer be called into the service of the United States, a Deputy Adjutant General, to be designated by the Governor, shall act as Adjutant General during his absence. No Adjutant General shall be appointed who shall not have served at least ten years as a commissioned officer in the Pennsylvania National Guard, Pennsylvania Guard, or equivalent length of service in the Regular Army of the United States, United States Navy, United States Coast Guard, or United States Marine Corps, or Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army, United States Navy Reserve, United States Coast Guard Reserve, or United States Marine Corps Reserve, which service may be cumulative, that is, service in any one or more of the foregoing services may be added together.

The Secretary of Health shall be a doctor of medicine licensed to practice medicine in Pennsylvania or eligible to be so licensed.

Section 2. Subsection (f) of section four hundred forty-eight of said act, as last amended by the acts approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 269), and the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 935, Act Number 390), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 448. Advisory Boards and Commissions.—The advisory boards and commissions, within the several administrative departments, shall be constituted as follows:

(f) The Advisory Health Board shall consist of the Secretary of Health, or in his place his duly authorized deputy, and (seven) ten members, (a majority) five of whom shall be (physicians, graduates of legally constituted medical colleges, and of at least ten years' experience in the practice of their profession) doctors of medicine licensed to practice medicine in Pennsylvania, one (of whom shall be) a dentist (and) licensed to practice dentistry in Pennsylvania, one (of whom shall be) a pharmacist (graduated of legally constituted dental and pharmacy colleges respectively, and of at least ten years' experience in the practice of their profession,) registered with the State Board of Pharmacy, and one (of whom shall be a civil) an engineer registered with the State Registration Board for Professional Engineers who is experienced in sanitary engineering. The Secretary of Health, or in his place his duly authorized deputy, shall be chairman of the board.

The term of office of each appointed member of the board shall be four years, measured from the third Tuesday of January of the year in which he takes office, or until his successor has been appointed and has qualified; except that in the initial appointment of the members of the board, one member shall be appointed for a term of one year, three members for a term of two years, three members for a term of three yars, and three members for a term of four years.

(Four) Six members of the board, together with the Secretary of Health, or in his place his duly authorized deputy, shall constitute a quorum.

Each appointed member of the board shall receive actual traveling expenses and per diem compensation at the rate of $25.00 a day for time actually devoted to the business of the board.

* * * * *

Section 3 Section two thousand one hundred eleven of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2111. *Advisory Health Board,—

The Advisory Health Board shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To advise the Secretary of Health on such matters as he may bring before it;

(b) To make such reasonable rules and regulations, not contrary to law, as may be deemed by the board necessary for the prevention of disease, and for the protection of the lives and health of the people of the Commonwealth, and for the proper performance of the work of the Department of Health, and such rules and regulations, when made by the board, shall become the rules and regulations of the department;

(c) To adopt rules and regulations for personnel administration based upon merit and fitness, including standards of recruitment, selection, tenure, removal, and working conditions, and to prescribe qualifications for professional, technical and executive personnel appointed or employed by the State Department of Health and by the departments or boards of health of counties or other political subdivisions. No restrictions shall be imposed relating to race, religion, residence, or political affiliation:

(The underlined paragraph subject to discussion in this report. Underlining by Committee.)

(d) To prescribe minimum health activities and minimum standards of performance of health services for counties or other political subdivisions.

Section 4. All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 5. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

PART II

RESOLUTION

In the House of Representatives, October 14, 1955

Whereas there appears to be confusion and misunderstanding in various quarters concerning the merit rating status or lack of status of various state employees functioning in the various services of the Department of Health therefore be it

Resolved that a committee of five members of the House be appointed by the Speaker to make inquiry and report to the House

1 Number of Department of Health employees who are covered by the socalled merit rating formula

2 Number of Department of Health employees who had merit rating status prior to December 1 last

3 Number of Department of Health employees who have been given merit rating status since December 1 last

4 Number of Department of Health employees who have civil service status

5 Number of Department of Health employees if any who have acquired civil service status since December 1 last

6 Number of Department of Health employees who are not covered by the merit rating formula or who have not acquired civil service status

7 Formula of procedure used by advisory boards or by Department of Health executives in determining status of Department of Health employees in up-grading downgrading or discharging employees functioning in accordance with the so-called merit rating formula

8 How many Department of Health employees and in what branches of the service they are employed who have been blanketed in under merit rating without ever having taken a qualifying examination

9 And such other matters which may be brought to the attention of the committee and which should also be brought to the attention of the General Assembly

(A) The Committee Report hereby answers the specific questions raised in the foregoing resolution.

(1) Number of Department of Health employees who are covered by the socalled merit rating formula is 1527 as of November 30, 1955.

(2) Number of Department of Health employees who had merit rating status prior to December 1 last (1954) is 1542.

(3) Number of Department of Health employees who have been given merit rating status since December 1 last (1954) is 85.

(4) Number of Department of Health employees who have civil service status.

EXPLANATION

The Department of Health has never been placed under the Civil Service Act of 1941. Under the civil service system of Pennsylvania eligible lists are established and employees appointed therefrom for the Bureau of Employment Security in the Department of Labor and Industry, Department of Public Assistance, Liquor Control Board and Civil Service Commission personnel and therefore no employees of the Department of Health can be properly said to be under civil service. However, the Merit System which was in effect prior to the adoption of Act 322 hereinbefore set forth was in operation under executive directives and certain Health Department personnel which were being paid wholly or in part out of Federal funds were given qualifying examinations and these examinations were given under supervision of the Civil Service Commission. These examinations were provided for by certain rules adopted by the Advisory Health Board. Since the passage of Act 322 examinations were conducted by the Civil Service Commission under rules and regulations for personnel administration adopted by the Advisory Health Board pursuant to the authority given the Board in said Act.

(5) Number of Department of Health employees if any who have acquired civil service status since December 1 last (1954). None.

Same explanation as above.

(6) Number of Department of Health employees who are not covered by the merit rating formula or who have not acquired civil service status is 2005 as of November 30, 1955.

(7) Formula of procedure used by advisory boards or by Department of Health executives in determining status of Department of Heatlh employees in up-grading downgrading or discharging employees functioning in accordance with the socalled merit rating formula.

(a) Up-grading—Promotions

Promotions are to be made in accordance with Article IX of the personnel rules and regulations set up by the Advisory Health Board approved the 28th day of April 1953 and revised the 13th day of May 1954 and September 14, 1954 which provides as follows—

"The Secretary may request the Commission to prepare promotional lists based upon competitive examinations and restricted to persons employed in the Department. Persons shall be certified from this list in accordance with Article VI, Paragraph 1."

Article VI, Paragraph 1 reads as follows—

Upon receipt of a requisition, the Commission shall certify to the Director of Personnel the names of available persons. If one position is to be filled, the Commission shall certify from the promotional list or the original eligible list established for the class of position the three highest available names on each list. If more than one position is to be filled, the Commission shall, for each class, certify from each of the above described eligible lists, a total number of names equal to five-thirds of the number of positions to be filled in each class. Fractions shall be considered as the next whole number. If no names are available from any of the above described lists, the Commission shall so report to the Secretary.

(b) Down-grading or Demotions

Demotions are to be made in accordance with Article X, Section 2 of the personnel rules and regulations herein before referred to.

Article X, Section 2, Paragraph 2 reads as follows—

The Secretary, fifteen days after notice in writing to an employee stating the reasons therefor, may demote an employee for inefficiency or for any other proper cause.

(c) Discharging Employees—Removals

Discharging employees or removals to be made in accordance with Article XI, Section 2, of the personnel rules and regulations hereinbefore referred to.

Article XI, Section 2 reads as follows—

The Secretary, fifteen days after notice in writing to an employee stating the specific reasons therefor, may remove any employee for any of the following causes: dishonesty, incompetency, inefficiency, insubordination, immorality, violation of the rules and regulations of the Department, physical or mental disability, addiction to the use of narcotics or the habitual use of intoxicating liquors to excess, advocating the overthrow or destruction of the government of the United States or of Pennsylvania by force, or for any other proper cause. No employee shall be removed for refusing to participate in any political activity or for refusing to make any contributions for political purposes.

NOTE I

Under Section 5 of Article XI the tenure of office of every permanent employee shall be during good behavior and a satisfactory performance of his duties except as provided in Section 4 above. (Section 4 provides for furloughs when necessary because of curtailment of work, lack of funds or re-allocation of position.)

NOTE 2

Article XII, Section 1 provides: "Any person appointed to a permanent position in the Department of Health, pursuant to these rules and regulations, shall have a right to appeal to the Commission on any question involving a transfer, demotion or removal from said position. The provisions of Article VIII, Section 807 of the (Civil Service) Act of August 5, 1941, P. L. 752 as amended, shall be applicable to any such appeal and shall prescribe the procedure to be followed and determine the merits of all matters brought before it in pursuance of this section."

(8) How many Department of Health employees and in what branches of the service they are employed who have been blanketed in under merit rating without ever having taken a qualifying examination.

There were 86 instances of permanent status being awarded to a merit system employee on the basis of the "secretary's certification of satisfactory service" provision in the regulations. Of these 86, 55 are still in the employment of the Health Department. These 55 were given permanent status prior to January 17, 1955. No certification of this type has been issued by the present Secretary of Health.

The following shows the title, branch of service and number of persons who are among the 55 still employed in the Department of Health:

Title	No. of Persons	Branch of Service
Medical Director	3	Tubercular Hospitals
Principal Clerk	2	Vital Statistics
Supervising Clerk	1	" "
Advance Clerk	2	" "
Sr. Advance Clerk	6	" "
Clerk	3	" "
Chief, Div. of Vital Statistics	1	" "
Administrative Assistant	2	" "
Jr. Administrative Assistant	1	" "
Sanitarian Assistant	29	Sanitation
Sanitarian Admin. Asst.	1	"
Investigator	2	"
Clerk	2	"

The other positions, together with title, which were blanketed in under the Merit System were:

2 Senior Sanitarians
17 Public Health Nurses
1 Chief Division of Veterinarian Public Health
1 Chief, Division of Epidemiology

4 Head Nurses
1 Staff Nurses
4 Graduate Nurses
1 Director of Nurses

General Discussion

The first set of rules and regulations designed to establish a Merit System for employees of the Department of Health that was brought to the attention of this committee were apparently drawn by A. H. Steward, M.D., Secretary of Health, and were approved by Governor Arthur H. James on the 14th day of October 1942.

This set of rules did not call for any participation by the Civil Service Commission but instead provided for the appointment of a Merit System Supervisor who was to perform the functions later on transferred to the Civil Service Commission. This set of rules was amended on the 26th day of August 1943 to provide for appointments to continue for the duration of World War II.

These rules were again amended on August 23, 1944 and the amendments made at this time provided for the use of the Civil Service Commission and the Merit System Supervisor was eliminated.

Article IV of the amended rules at this time provided that the department, with the advice of the Civil Service Commission, should prepare modifications, additions or deletions to the classification plan previously approved by the Executive Board. And further provided that the classification and compensation system of personnel service of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should be approved by the Secretary of Health and submitted by him to the United States Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor for the purpose of determining its conformity to their standards of personnel practices as required for Merit System personnel administration.

The intent of these rules was set forth in the letter dated April 19, 1944 addressed to Thomas Parran, M.D., Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service. "Classified employee means any employee rendering service to or in any division, bureau or institution the budget of which is used to match Federal funds" and "these rules and regulations shall apply to department employees rendering service to or in any section or subsection of any division, bureau or institution of the Department, the budget for which is used in matching Federal funds, etc.,"

Your Committee presumes that the Merit System was therefore brought into the Department of Health in order to comply with Federal regulations concerning matching funds.

The rules adopted on October 14, 1942 were again amended on the 21st day of January 1946. There appears to be no major change in the 1946 amendments.

On August 24, 1951 an Act of the General Assembly, 322, was approved by Governor John S. Fine and subsequent thereto to wit on the 28th day of April 1953 new rules and regulations were prepared and approved by John S. Fine, Governor, Russell E. Teague, M.D., Secretary of Health, and Chairman of the Advisory Health Board. These rules were amended May 13, 1954 and again on September 14, 1954, the amended rules in each case having been approved by the Secretary of Health and the Governor.

These new rules were substantially the same as the rules previously in effect, except for the following important changes—

(1) Article II of the rules which deals with applicability was changed to include under paragraph 2—"all persons employed in the Department of Health except the Secretary of Health, the deputy secretaries of health, the members of any advisory or departmental administrative board of the Department, part-time employees, clerks, custodians and personnel of the Bureau of Vital Statistics other than employees designated as professional, technical and executive personnel by the Secretary, with the approval of the Advisory Health Board.

The effect of this section was to bring within the scope of the Merit System practically all of the professional, technical and executive personnel of the Department even though Federal funds were not involved. Persons in the employment of the Department are brought under this rule by a section which provides that the Secretary, with the approval of the Advisory Health Board, can designate positions as professional, technical or executive in nature. This provision in effect gives the Secretary the power to place any position in the Department under the Merit System. In carrying out this action your Committee has found what it considers inequities and unjust actions. For example, the assistant painter in a certain institution has been designated as a merit system employee entitled to tenure while the head painter in the same institution was not given merit status.

The Committee found other cases where persons in such positions as guard would have one employee in such position under the Merit System and other employees at the same institution not under the Merit System. Also, other minor technical positions such as electrician and plumber were not considered as deserving Merit ratings while positions as head housekeeper were being covered.

In general, your Committee finds that the placing of positions under merit have not been judicious and that some positions covered should be eliminated and others not covered should be included.

(2) In dealing with employees of the Department prior to the adoption of the rules, the following action was taken—

The rules as originally approved on the 28th day of April 1953 provided, and we quote from the original copy of the personnel rules and regulations signed by the Governor and Secretary of Health, which original copy was in the possession of your Committee for the purpose of this hearing—Article VII, Section 2, paragraph 1—"an employee appointed through appropriate examination under a Merit System who received a permanent or probationary appointment under such System and who is certified by the Secretary as having given satisfactory service for the preceding six-months period of his service in the Department shall be continued in his present position as a permanent employee without further examination in such appointment.

This was the only class of persons who were blanketed in to permanent position by the original set of rules adopted after the passage of Act 322. However, shortly following on September 25, 1953, Article VII was amended by adding thereto a new paragraph, which paragraph provided as follows—"an employee appointed on or before the effective date of these regulations to a position in a section the budget for which does not come from Federal funds or is not used in matching Federal funds, shall be continued in his present position as a permanent employee upon the formal determination by the Civil Service Commission that he meets the required qualifications for his position and being certified by the Secretary as having given satisfactory service for the preceding six-month period of his service in the Department.

This rule, however, did not remain in effect for any length of time because in May of 1954 it was again amended and the formal determination by the Civil Service Commission was eliminated, thereby making it necessary that only the Secretary certify as to satisfactory performance. This gave unto the Secretary of Health the sole authority to blanket in employees, the only requirement being that the employees had given satisfactory service for the preceding six-month period and had been appointed on or before the effective date of the regulation.

The former Secretary of Health, Dr. Russell E. Teague, used this authority in connection with 86 persons hereinbefore referred to and the present Secretary, Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison testified that he has not used this authority in any instance Article VII of the rules originally provided that within one year after the adoption of the rules, the Civil Service Commission was to hold examinations for the classes of positions not given permanent status by the sections above referred to.

This section was amended in May extending the period to be within two years. This amendment was adopted in May of 1954 and although more than two years have passed since the original adoption of the rules, many of the examinations have not been given nor requested by the Department.

In this connection the Committee was informed by the Civil Service Commission that many of the classes would be difficult to examine because there is no set standard or pattern for the examining of certain job specifications.

Pending the examinations the employees were given provisional appointments and the rules provided that no provisional appointment should continue for more than nine (9) months unless the Commission had valid reason for not holding examinations for the class of position involved.

In this connection the Secretary of the Commission reported to the Committee that no examinations were given and no examinations requested for many of the classes and therefore provisional appointments were continued far beyond the period allowed by the rules.

Under the subject of "Examinations" the Committee would like to point out that the rules provide the Civil Service Commission in examining he personnel, must use wherever possible such examinations as are prepared by National professional organizations to administer the examinations and to maintain eligible lists and in this connection a photostatic copy of a letter over the signature of Russell E. Teague, the Secretary of Health, dated March 11, 1952 was furnished to the Committee and this letter addressed to Dr. Lillian D. Long, Director, Professional Examination Service, American Public Health Association, New York, 19, New York, authorized the American Public Health Association to furnish examination service to the Pennsylvania Civil Service Commission and therein the Commonwealth agreed to pay the sum of $1500 quarterly each quarter beginning April 1, 1952 for such service.

It has come to the attention of your Committee through the rules and regulations adopted and announcements for scheduled examinations, as well as individual complaints, that minimum scholastic qualifications had been set up which are conditions prerequisite to entrance into examinations. This requirement appears to be working against the best interests of the Commonwealth because many persons especially qualified to do specific work through training with the Department over a period of many years, under this rule cannot qualify to even enter into competitive examination for the position which they have successfully performed for many years.

It would seem to this Committee that minimum scholastic qualifications should not arbitrarily bar any individual from taking a qualifying examination and therefore we would recommend that thought be given to an amendment of the rules and regulations to place them in line with the Civil Service Act which provides that "no applicant shall be required to be possessed of any scholastic education or training in order to be permitted to take any competitive examination or to be appointed or promoted to any position.

SERVICE RATINGS OR MERIT RATINGS

All of the rules and regulations in use by the Department of Health beginning from the first to the last have provided for rating of the employees in the Department. The term "Merit Rating" has been used extensively and merit rating has been confused to such an extent that many persons believe that merit rating means tenure under the Merit System. Actually every employee of the Department is rated for the purpose of determining efficiency or lack of efficiency of the employee.

There is no evidence that any specific system or that any rating was engaged in by the Department prior to March 11, 1954, at which time the personnel director of the Department requested approval for the purchase of commercial merit rating forms and scoring device in order that the Merit Rating System be placed in effect in the Department of Health.

On March 12, 1954 the Department apparently ordered for the first time rating forms from the Probst Rating System, 1843 Ashland Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota. This rating system has been used by the Department since that time.

The Committee inquired extensively into the operation of the system and found the following—

First, the Probst Rating System was designed for use in industrial plants where the profit incentive, as well as closer supervision was in effect and probably would work out very well under such conditions. However, when used in connection with the Department of Health, the Committee feels that the system permits personal likes and dislikes to influence the rating of employees.

Under the Probst Rating System there are a series of forms which are used for the rating of different categories—

Form PR—Professional Form
Form G—General Form
Form S—Skilled Labor Form
Form L—Labor Form
Educational Form

Each employee of the Department is rated on one of these forms. The rating is to be done by three individuals, each using the one form thereby creating the situation where each supervisor knows what the other supervisor thinks concerning the efficiency of said employee, and thereby can and we believe is often influenced by the opinion expressed by the previous superior supervisory rating officer.

This particular method we believe to be faulty and it is our opinion that each rating officer should rate on a separate form and that the forms should be sent by the officer directly to a central point where the ratings could be averaged and compared one with the other.

Your Committee also believes that the system of appeals from ratings in use by the Department should be inquired into. At the present time an employee must appeal first to the persons who have rated him and it is our opinion that this creates resentment and ill feelings between employees and the immediate supervisor, which is likely to result in disgruntled employees.

The Committee would recommend that if possible the system of appeals should be revised to permit an employee to make a direct appeal to persons in high authority.

The Committee also found that there is little or no check made to determine whether ratings are being conducted in the manner prescribed by the Department, and it is our opinion persons of higher authority should check back at unscheduled periods to determine whether the rating system is being properly used or abused by local supervisors.

In closing, the Committee does not condemn the principle of the rating of employees, but we feel that every effort should be made that ratings are made on the basis of merit and that the element of personal like and dislike be eliminated whenever possible.

The Committee finds that a number of institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Health employ school teachers. These teachers are not subject to the requirements of, nor do they enjoy the advantages, benefits and privileges of public school teachers. We would therefore recommend that all teachers employed by the Department be given the status of public school teachers.

The Federal Government contributes a small percentage of the funds with which the Department of Health operates and functions. For these contributions the Federal Government demands certain controls over personnel and functions of the Department.

We believe that the control exercised by the Federal Government over personnel and the operation of the Pennsylvania Department of Health is excessively out of proportion to the amount of its contribution and that further inquiry should be made into this subject.

Conclusion

(1) The Committee believes that persons performing skilled, professional and technical duties should be given tenure and that in doing so the Committee believes such personnel of the Department of Health should possibly be included in the Cicil Service System of Pennsylvania by amendment to the Civil Service Act of 1941.

(2) The Committee also believes that executive personnel in the higher echelon should be given at least some form of tenure. However, the definition of "executive personnel" should not be as broadly interpreted as it has been in the Department of Health. The Committee found that under the difinition of "executive personnel" the Secretary had almost unlimited authority in designating not only types of positions but individuals holding various types of positions as executive personnel. The Committee found "executive personnel" to include such positions as

Head Orderly
Matron A
Dairyman A
Senior Waitress
Domestic Foreman
Guard
Assistant Painter

(3) The Committee believes that immediate steps should be taken to improve the rating system procedure in the Department of Health.

(4) The Committee recommends that the Merit System of the Department of Health be included in a study of the general personnel problems by the Joint State Government Commission.

Report of the House Committee respectfully submitted this 18th day of May, 1956.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STECKEL. I rise to a personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. STECKEL. Mr. Speaker, under the question of personal privilege I should like to submit, to be spread on the record, some remarks concerning the Turnpike. I do not care to address the House at this time.

Mr. Steckel submitted the following statement for the record:

TURNPIKE FIXES RATES ON NON-EXISTENT INTERCHANGES WHILE IGNORING EXISTING ONE ON RATE CARDS

When the northeastern extension of the Turnpike was opened to the public, ten miles of the Turnpike which were then finished north of the Lehigh Valley Interchange at Allentown, were opened in order to net greater revenue to the Commission. On the date of that opening, I registered a complaint because the fees charged and the cards used at this "temporary" interchange were precisely the same as those of the Mahoning Valley Interchange, approximately again as far north, including a passageway through the Blue Mountain Tunnel. The Turnpike Commission indicated at that time that it would be necessary to change all of the cards and IBM registers and that the public would just have to go on paying this unjust tariff if they wanted to use this part of the road.

Now the entire fee schedule has been revamped, necessitating changes and reprinting of all tickets and changing of all the IBM registers but no recognition has been taken of the existence of the "temporary" interchange, with the result that for 37.9 miles from Allentown to Norristown, a passenger car is charged 50c but for 10.5 miles from Allentown to the "temporary" interchange, the charge is 25c.

No other public service in the State would be allowed to charge this unjust tariff of a whole fee for a half service.

The exorbitant rate quite possibly could be endured if there were some indication that at the time the "temporary" interchange would be made permanent, though this now seems remote, a change would then be made in the rate schedules, but again, though the highway is constructed for the use of the people of the Commonwealth, it does not seem to be the Turnpike's inclination to give the citizens of the Commonwealth access to this Turnpike at well-defined intervals.

My objections are raised (1) for the fact that though there may not be much traffic, or many people involved in the eyes of the Turnpike Commission, does not justify this exorbitant rate charge; and (2) for the fact that no hearings or announcements were made of the proposed rate changes with opportunity for interested parties to discuss the matter. The announcement was simply made that the rates had been changed, one Turnpike official saying that all the copies were at the printers and couldn't be given to newsmen, while another Turnpike official indicated that they were not yet finished, though the Governor indicated that they were.

The Turnpike Commission is operated solely from the charges made to its users and is not paid for out of taxpayers' money, consequently, it should be fair to all users just as much as a utility company must be fair to a small consumer, even though its installation be out of proportionate cost to that of other consumers. The Turnpike Commission expects people to use the "temporary" interchange at the unjust rate and continues to do nothing to correct the unfairness.

Mr. STRAUSSER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday the Majority Leader expressed his distaste for the stamp plan. The gentleman from Berks is not alone in his distaste. Unfortunately we have Republicans in the other place who share his feelings.

I am a firm believer in the stamp feature of the sales tax plan and I know I am not alone in being a firm believer in this plan, and it gripes me every time I hear and read about the terrible cost. So much so that I have taken quite a lot of time and trouble in trying to find out wherein this stamp plan should be so costly.

I was able to get a copy of the Ohio specifications for their stamps. I was able to get estimates of the costs of stamps based on the Ohio specifications. Since it was our intention to have our Pennsylvania stamp system patterned after the Ohio stamp system, I thought it proper to do so.

The Ohio stamp size under the December 10, 1950 specification was 3 inches x 1⅜ inches. The denominations 1, 2, 3's—6, 9, 12 and 15's—30's—60's—$1.50—$3 and $15 stamps.

The estimate of costs of printing, packing and delivery of these stamps averaged less than 17 cents per thousand based on a billion lot.

Based on this average price, I estimated 1,169,000,000 stamps would be required to bring in tax revenue amounting to $113,550,000, at a stamp cost of $195,990. Percentage wise this cost amounts to less than two tenths of one per cent.

Since making this estimate I find the cost can be cut considerably below this figure by using a single color, thus avoiding a double run in printing.

For comparison's sake, I have tried to get a copy of the specifications for the Pennsylvania tax stamp. The Department of Property and Supplies referred me to Revenue. Revenue referred me back to Property and Supplies. I was finally told no specification would be available until Monday of next week. I do recognize a merry-go-round when I see one.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I am not usually a suspicious character. But why all the secrecy? Why has it taken so long, over two months, when the Ohio specifications are available for copying?

I dislike to think that the date of adjournment of this House has anything to do with the available date of these specifications. Could it be that these specifications, which were now changed three or four times, might be drawn up in such a way as to guarantee the predictions made as to cost? Or might it be that these specifications are being drafted to guarantee the maximum nuisance predicted?

I can visualize the possibility of making up these stamp pads in sizes five or ten times larger than necessary so that they will require a maximum of counter and storage space.

If I had a personal distaste for this stamp plan and if I had anything to do with putting the system into effect, I think I could dream up some "honeys" to make sure that the merchants and taxpayers would share my distaste.

Yesterday the gentleman from Berks estimated thirty-three weeks more time would be required to put these stamps into the hands of the merchants. That would bring us about the 1st of March, 1957.

I hope his estimator finds he made an error in computing this time, because there are a great many new churches and church schools being built that could very well use the redemption money to help their building funds.

Take as examples the many parochial schools being built. The good people of these parishes are footing the bill for the cost of building and maintaining their own schools, without state subsidies. In addition they are paying their local public school taxes. In so doing, they are actually reducing state taxes.

They pay the sales tax on all the materials that go into the construction of their schools. Why should they and other religious and charitable groups have to wait an unreasonably long time to get back a little redemption money from the state taxes they are paying?

The sooner this stamp plan is put into effect, the less criticism this administration will get.

Mr. Speaker, while I am on my feet, I wish to also express my resentment of Charlie Smith getting all the credit for this stamp plan.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FRANK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the purpose of my remarks is to speak well of the dead. The dead I am speaking about is the boxing game in the state of Pennsylvania, which is slowly being strangled to death.

I have been reading in the newspapers of the case of Fred Terry, a middleweight, who has accused the Boxing Commission of forcing him to fight last week.

At one time not so very long ago every little town and hamlet had boxing as its feature engagement. Today in the state of Pennsylvania I believe there is only a handful of boxing bouts a month.

I am not speaking to criticize the Boxing Commission, but here are some facts to think about. I have checked with the Budget Department and have been informed that the budget for 1956 and 1957 is and will be approximately $149,000. I also was told, and I believe my figures are not too accurate, that the receipts would be around $31,000. I know that is not much to talk about, but they are the facts and figures.

I am speaking in the behalf of the Old Time Boxers of the Lehigh Valley, of which I am Secretary and Treasurer, an organization of over 400 members including some of the outstanding boxing figures in the United States, who would gladly cooperate with Governor Leader and the Boxing Commission to conduct public hearings to give their views and help to bring back the game the public held in such high regard.

I believe it is about time the Boxing Commission is taken out of the hands of the politicians and placed in the hands of the men who know the boxing game from A to Z and who for years glorified the name of boxing. Let us not leave the boxing game go the way of all flesh as we did the Vanishing Indians.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GOLDSTEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I was greatly interested in the remarks of the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Frank, because of the fact that he called to the attention of this body the vast amount of money which was used by the Boxing Commission during the past year.

On February 16, 1955, I introduced House Bill 305 for the purpose of avoiding this vast expenditure of money. The purpose of this was to eliminate the Boxing Commission so that the Department of Revenue could handle it with the aid of the State Police. From the financial standpoint I believe the Boxing Commission could easily have been eliminated.

From the standpoint concerning which Mr. Frank has just spoken, I am greatly interested. I believe throughout the State and throughout the nation criticism has been placed upon boxing to such an extent that young men no longer wish to engage in that particular sport. In my day, and I can recall the days of the gentleman on the majority side, Dr. Sarraf, many of the young men raised in the district in which we were born wanted to be boxers for various reasons. Today these men do not want to enter this particular sport because of the black name it has received, particularly from the Boxing Commissions of the United States who seem to think they are a self-constituted grand jury body.

I say the Commission of Pennsylvania would do a service to itself and to boxing if it would be constructive, if it would try to build up the game of boxing so that it would be one which would be respected by the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I say also parenthetically that boxing is an essential element today. We are faced with the possibility of a world war from time to time. The men who led the national defense were convinced and the reports of the service department of the United States show that the young men who were trained in the art of self-defense helped to win World War I and World War II.

Therefore, supporting Mr. Frank, I ask the Commission to open its doors to help these young men go into the game of boxing and to try to do a man's job with the least expense possible.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mrs. MARKLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in the early part of this session my colleague, Mr. Steckel, and I introduced legislation which is very close to our hearts because it concerns a water situation in our district. That legislation never saw the light of day.

Many things will be said about the accomplishments of this House and the things that have been left undone. This is a very serious thing which has been left undone.

After we introduced our legislation and we found it was not acceptable to the administration, legislation was drawn up sponsored by the administration in House Bills 1060 and 1061. 1061 concerned the water situation. This never came out of Committee. It did not see the light of day.

The seriousness of the water situation in Saucon Township, Lehigh County, continues to exist. In the past month a court case came before one of our common pleas judges and the case was thrown out because there were no statutes on our books on which a decision could be made.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to read into the record copies of letters which were received by the Saucon Valley Taxpayers' League prior to the election in 1954. The letter was addressed to Senator George M. Leader and it was sent to him as the candidate for the governorship of Pennsylvania. I would also like to read a copy of his reply, if I may have your permission.

The first letter was written to:

R. No. 1, Center Valley, Pa.,

August 19, 1954.

Mr. George M. Leader, Senator
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
R. D. No. 2, Dover, Pa.

Dear Sir:

As the nominee of the Democratic Party for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, we, the members of the Taxpayers' League of Upper Saucon Township, would like to know your attitude concerning the controversial issue affecting our area.

The New Jersey Zinc Co. has lowered the water table in this area causing hardships to more than 300 families, and the probability is that 8,000 people could ultimately be affected. Besides creating a public health menace, their action has depreciated property values and left the area with little water for fire protection. Add to this the fact that the water purchased by the populace runs to $200 per year per family. Many cannot afford this extra expense.

We would like your opinions on the following questions:

1. Do you believe that a corporation has the right to imperil the safety of, and cause hardship to, the populace of our entire valley, without any responsibility on its part?

2. Would you support legislation which specifically would make any corporation liable for any damage done in its area of operations, by its operation?

This is a serious situation with us and frankly, whichever candidate favors the above legislation, we intend to support.

May we have an early reply?

Yours very truly,

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE OF UPPER SAUCON TOWNSHIP.

This is the reply they received:

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE

27 S. Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa.

Sept. 1, 1954.

Mrs. Claire Beisel, Secretary
Taxpayers' League of Upper Saucon Township
R. No. 1, Center Valley, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Beisel:

Your letter concerning the lowering of the water table in your area has just been brought to my attention, and I agree that this is a very serious problem requiring the earliest possible study and correction. It is my intention if elected to do just that in connection with this and similar problems which for months have been shunted aside by the State Water and Power Resources Board and other agencies. I appreciate very much your kindness in bringing it to my attention, and I am delighted to know that I will have your support. I am fully in accord with legislation requiring those whose activities harm others either to desist or repair the damage suffered.

Sincerely yours,

Signed: GEORGE M. LEADER.

I say, ladies and gentlemen, the administration has failed and we have failed to take care of a highly humane problem in Saucon Valley Township.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

Mr. FLINT. Mr. Speaker, I submit the report, and resolution, of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment in the matter of the contested election to the office of Representative in General Assembly from the second Legislative District in the City of Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The report will be filed with the Clerk and noted in the Journal.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1609

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1609.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TOOMEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to say "so long" to my friends in the House of Representatives, to the Legislative engineers, to the officers and the clerks, and everybody that I have worked with. They have helped me and it has been a very rich period in my life and a very happy one.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1062

Mr. TOOMEY. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1062.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. HASS, RUDISILL and STEBBINS offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted by a rising vote as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 18, 1956.

The Honorable Clarence M. Lawyer, Jr., Member of the House of Representatives from the first legislative district of York County, and former district attorney of York County, died at 2:10 a. m. on Thursday, May 17, 1956, at the York Hospital.

Mr. Lawyer's record was an honorable record, filled with devotion to both community and family. He was a practicing lawyer in York County since 1936, and a graduate of both Pennsylvania State College and the University of Pennsylvania.

Although he was in his first term as a member of this House, he distinguished himself by outstanding ability, and his long and arduous work in completing his tasks. He served on the judiciary, elections, counties and third class city committees.

In addition to other public service which he rendered, he was a veteran of World War II, in which he served in the Army; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members fo this House of Representatives extend their individual sympathy to the widow and children of the Honorable Clarence M. Lawyer, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Frey Lawyer, and Clarence III, William G. and Rebecca Anne, and to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Lawyer, Sr., in their hour of loss and bereavement; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this reslоution be sent to the widow and children of the Honorable Clarence M. Lawyer, Jr., at 440 Linden Drive, York, Pennsylvania, and to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Lawyer, Sr., at Hanover, Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. PRICE and JUMP offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 18, 1956.

Mrs. Josephine H. Greenwood, wife of the Honorable Ray W. Greenwood has died in Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Greenwood was born March 26, 1888, in Laceyville, and was a daughter of the late Daniel and Eva Sturdevant Holland. She was a member of the Tunkhannock Methodist Church. Her exemplary life and conduct of her affairs as a wife, homemaker and member of her community will long be remembered by all who knew her; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Members of this House of Representatives extend their individual sympathies to the Honorable Ray W. Greenwood in this, his hour of sorrow and loss; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Honorable Ray W. Greenwood at his home, at 27 Wyoming Avenue, Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. At the request of the respective Floor Leaders the Chair declares a recess until 2:30 p. m. EST. The Chair hears no objection.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ERB. RESOLUTION No. 175.

In the House of Representatives, May 17, 1956.

The Second Class Township Code authorizes the formation of a State Association of Township Supervisors. The code authorizes the association to elect officers and to hold annual meetings for the purpose of discussing various questions and subjects pertaining to the duties of township supervisors, and for the purpose of devising uniform economical and efficient methods of administering the affairs of townships. And authorizing the Township to pay dues to the Association.

Opposition of the association officers to certain legislation does not come within the strict wording of the legislation authorizing its creation and designating its duties; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint six members of the House of Representatives who shall constitute a committee of the House of Representatives and be authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of the officers of the State Association of Township Supervisors with respect to their authority under the law, and their activities in relationship to such authority, and such other matters as shall appear to be relevant and material thereto, particularly the spending of the Associations Funds in opposition to any proposed legislation; and be of great benefit to the Townships. It further

Resolved, That the committee shall have the power to issue subpoenas under hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. The committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before the committee or to produce books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by laws of the Commonwealth in such cases; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee make a report of its findings to the Attorney General together with its recommendations for appropriate action at the 1957 session of the General Assembly.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 318

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses on Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 318.

Report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 318

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 318, entitled: An Act pertaining to the payment of compensation to judges upon retirement under certain conditions and imposing duties on certain State officers.

Respectively submit the following bill as our report:

ROBERT D. FLEMING,
R. B. MAHANY,
JOHN H. DENT
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

ALBERT S. READINGER,
ANTHONY J. PETROSKY,
ADAM T. BOWER.
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 318

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 318.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 318, entitled: An Act pertaining to the payment of compensation to judges upon retirement under certain conditions and imposing duties on certain State officers.

ROBERT D. FLEMING,
R. B. MAHANY,
JOHN H. DENT,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

ALBERT S. READINGER,
ANTHONY J. PETROSKY,
ADAM T. BOWER.
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this Conference Report on Senate Bill 318, which bill was introduced by the Democratic Leader of the Senate, is a "court packer" for the reason that it gives such outrageous retirement payments to our judges, which payments will be in addition to the present state retirement payment law to judges, and which payments will be so large that it is a bait to get judges to retire and thereafter the courts can be filled with the present administration's appointments.

This bill is beyond reason and is another raid on the State Treasury at the expense of the poor taxpayer.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Honorable FRANK W. RUTH, a Member of the Senate from Berks County, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou who art Father, Son and Holy Spirit unto us, as Thou didst give Thy spirit upon the people long ago and didst guide them to build the foundations for Thy Kingdom, we pray that we may have a large measure of that spirit in our work.

As we look back over our long, weary journey, there are times when we feel elated that we have been able to accomplish things which were worthwhile; wherein we failed, we ask Thy forgiveness. As we look down into the future, we pray that Thou wilt guide us at all times to use the ability and the talents which Thou hast given to us to establish the reign of Thy Kingdom here upon earth, to have Thy will done here as it is in Heaven.

We ask this in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

SENATE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2101

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate adopt the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2101.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I have always opposed a sales tax on the theory that it was a tax against those least able to pay, and for that reason I cannot vote for this Conference Committee Report which represents amendments to the original bill. In particular, I cannot vote for this bill because it has incorporated therein the stamp plan for the collection of the tax. Frankly, if the effective date had not been changed from July 1 to January 1, I would have had a batch of statistics here on a survey I made to debate at length against the bill. However, since the effective date of the stamp plan is January 1 and the Legislature will convene a few days thereafter, I am assuming that the next Session of the Mr. President, I said before, and I repeat that the Legislature will eliminate the stamp plan from the law in its entirety.

stamp plan is not only expensive and cumbersome, but would be a nuisance as well in the administration of the plan by merchants, the public and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 613, on third reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 23 1931 (P. L. 932) entitled "The Third Class City Code" changing tax levy provisions when land and buildings are taxed separately be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr McGINNIS. Mr. President, I rise to oppose this motion.

What I have been trying to do in this bill is what Mayor Magee did back in 1909 and 1913. He came to this House and Senate and persuaded the Legislature to pass two bills; one which would allow the second class cities to levy a different tax on lands and buildings and another one which would exempt machinery. Since that time, Scranton and Pittsburgh do not tax machinery. We have taxed our land for the last thirty years twice what we tax our buildings.

At the time when Mayor Magee came here to Harrisburg, we had what was known as the Schenley Farms right in the city of Pittsburgh, assessed at one-third their value. All they had there were cows. After these bills passed, land was taxed double what buildings were taxed in Pittsburgh, and every bit of that land of the Schenley Farms is built up with fine homes today

In the last Session, Mr. President, a bill went through allowing third class cities to assess land and buildings separately, but not to levy separately. When this bill passed, Senator McMenamin got on the floor that day and said that a few years ago Scranton was a ghost town. He said that in one section of the city of Scranton, there were forty vacant houses because the coal business was gone from around the Scranton area. The Chamber of Commerce went out and told the people that if they came to Scranton, their machinery would not be taxed and their buildings would be taxed only half of what the land was taxed. Senator McMenamin said that then thirty-five new industries came to Scranton. That very same day I got on the floor and said that Pittsburgh was the most booming city in the world, and I say that today.

I am sorry that Governor Leader is not here because I learned these principles at Cornell University through a lecture made by Henry George, Jr. He came to Cornell and lectured for four days. I remember he said this: "McGinnis, if you rob a chicken coop in Pennsylvania, they will fine you once, but if you build one they will fine you every year."

Therefore, Mr. President, here today in the Senate is the opportunity to at least show that we are trying to do what was done for Scranton and Pittsburgh over thirty years ago. I am as sure as I stand here that this has made Pittsburgh and Scranton.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I am going to direct my remarks to Senator McGinnis today As you know, Senator McGinnis, the Republicans are so afraid that your bill might pass that they are going to adjourn the House and Senate very quickly. They even sent telegrams to Senator Peelor and others so that they would be sure and be here in order to have twenty-six votes to drop your bill.

However, on our side, we are a little bit on the spot also on this bill. If you will say the word, we might just as well have a great, big fight just before we close and every Democratic Senator will take the floor and make a speech. You just say the word and we will give the Republicans a big fight.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MAHANY. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

(During the calling of the roll, the following occurred:)

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT The gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. LANE. Are we in order to have a second roll call, Mr. President, after the names of all the Members have been called?

The PRESIDENT. It is in order as long as the result has not been announced. It has not been handed to the desk.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Berger,	Kessler,	Pechan,	Van Sant,
Blass,	Kopriver, Jr.	Peelor,	Wade,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL ON THIRD READING, DEFEATED ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1026, entitled:

An Act authorizing and empowering any administrative department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania when so designated by the Governor to cooperate with the United States in the distribution and use of surplus foods and commodities.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll, the following occurred:)

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I did not hear my name called, and I desire to be recorded as voting on this bill.

The yeas and nays were taken agreebaly to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21

Barr,	Haluska,	McMenamin,	Seyler,
Camiel,	Hays,	Miller,	Silvert,

Less than a Constitutional majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the negative.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, if it had not been for the confusion on the roll calls, I had planned to make a speech upon this particular piece of legislation, House Bill No. 1026. It is beyond me to figure out why the Republicans would vote against this particular bill. I cannot understand it. Of course, I thought we had it passed, but "close" does not count. It had quite an experience last Friday and we saved it, and now it was up to Third Reading and Final Passage and we lost the bill on a second count.

Mr. President, I feel that we made a big mistake in defeating this piece of legislation because it does not do any harm; it is constructive. It would place the counties on a sound basis when it comes to the distribution of surplus foods. I feel that the Governor should designate a particular department to contract with the Federal Government. Of course, there is not much use in talking about this legislation now, after it has been defeated. However, I sort of think that we were taken advantage of this time.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1110, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 11, 1901 (P. L. 166) entitled "An act providing for the commutation of sentences for good behavior of convicts in prisons penitentiaries workhouses and county jails of this state and regulations governing the same" denying commutation or diminution of sentence to persons convicted of the unlawful possession selling dispensing or giving away of drugs.

And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, this is a bill which, undoubtedly, has a very fine motivation behind it. Certain people are convinced, I am sure, that the problem of narcotics traffic is a serious one and that the penalties for engaging in that traffic should be increased. I thoroughly agree with that. However, the method selected by this bill does not seem to me to be the right remedy for the situation. I would cheerfully vote for a bill which would increase the penalty that the court might inflict on offenders of this type. This bill, however, does not do that. This bill sets aside for one class of criminals the possibility of having commutation or diminution of their sentences, according to the approval, direction of the Governor and the Board of Inspectors or Managers of the Prison. I think that was put into the law to offer an incentive to prisoners who are cooperating with the authorities and for the reforming of these prisoners.

Mr. President, I believe there is just as much need for that control over prisoners of the type singled out in this bill as there is over any other type of prisoners. I think, moreover, to single out one class of prisoners may be actually unconstitutional. At any rate, I feel that if we want to inflict a larger penalty, let us do that openly by increasing the possible sentences for this type of offender and not taking an indirect method such as this which, to my mind, will lessen the effectiveness of the Administration in dealing with criminals who are incarcerated in our prisons.

Therefore, Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr Pechan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PECHAN. I will, Mr. President, although I do not want to hurt the Leader's feelings.

Mr. LANE. Will you or will you not?

Mr. PECHAN. I will not.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. I am rather curious to know why you are leaving Senate Bill No. 1110 on the Calendar. Are we planning on being in Session a few more days?

Mr. MAHANY. I hope that we do not go beyond today. However, I felt there were a number of Senators here who would like to be recorded as being in favor of this legislation. That is the reason we would like to have a vote on it.

Mr. LANE. Your same thinking, then, does not apply to Senate Bill No. 613, which is Senator McGinnis' bill, is that correct? You would rather drop it from the Calendar and keep Senate Bill No. 1110 on.

Mr. MAHANY. No, I am trying to get this one off the Calendar, too.

Mr. LANE. Do you want to get it off the Calendar by a roll call vote?

Mr. MAHANY. Yes.

Mr. LANE. If I am correct, then circumstances alter the cases?

Mr. MAHANY. No, it is the same thing with both bills. We want to get both of them off the Calendar. We succeeded in getting one off the Calendar and this is the next one to get off the Calendar.

Mr. LANE. Did you make a motion to drop this bill from the Calendar?

Mr. MAHANY. No.

Mr. LANE. Can you tell me why?

Mr. MAHANY. I told you; I said we wanted to have some of the Senators vote or be recorded as being in favor of this bill so that at, perhaps, the next Session of the Legislature it would be indicated to the sponsors that they would be able to get it through the Senate if the same Republican Senators are here beginning with the 1957 Session as are now here. I hope we do not lose any of them.

Mr. LANE. I am wondering why you did not grant one of the Deans of the Senate the right to have his bill, which was on the Calendar, voted upon. You made a motion to drop that one from the Calendar, but we will not argue any more; we will proceed.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am quite sure that every prison in the United States allows shortening of a sentence of punishment on good behavior. I do not think prisons were built just to punish people. I think prisons were built to help people, to rebuild them if possible. For us, in this Senate, to vote for a bill that will not allow good behavoir for a narcotic prisoner, to me, is silly and wrong.

I am sure that nearly every Senator here knows that there are some narcotic offenders in prison who may have been caught with a marijuana cigarette once. It may have been planted on them. There are trivial offenses in narcotics and very serious offenses in narcotics. The serious ones should be punished. However, for us to make a recording that for the slightest offense by a young man or young woman and their good behavoir in prison will not give them any credit, to me, is wrong.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING DEFEATED ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1990, entitled:

An Act authorizing and directing the Governor on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to execute an inter-state compact concerning mental health and for related purposes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KESSLER. Mr. President, it is unfortunate that this bill, which is an interstate compact bill, came into the Senate at such a late date. There just has not been time to determine what the bill will do. In order to try to find out, I spoke with Mr. Crihfield, Eastern Representative of the Council of State Governments, last week about this bill. He indicated that under the circumstances in Pennsylvania, where we were trying to wind up this Session of the General Assembly, he did not see that any harm would be done if action on this bill were delayed until the next Session of the General Assembly.

It so happens that only three States have passed on this measure. The bill is pending in New Jersey and in Delaware. I asked Mr. Crihfield what was going to happen in Kansas. We have heard so much about the wonderful work that Doctor Menninger has been doing with the mental patients in Kansas, and he told me that Kansas was very much concerned about this compact because they were afraid they would be swamped with people coming into Kansas for the treatment which they offer.

Mr. President, there are a few things that bother me about the bill and I would like to briefly point them out. On page 4, Article III, line 7, it states:

"Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency he shall be eligible for care and treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of his residence settlement or citizenship qualifications"

That means if Pennsylvania should improve and have some outstanding institutions for the care of mentally ill persons, there is nothing to stop persons in other States from sending an individual to Pennsylvania, with some friends or relatives, and then have them declared mentally ill in this State and we would be obligated to take care of that person. There is no provision in the bill for the repayment to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the maintenance and care of that patient.

Another part of the bill which I do not like is on page 5, line 11, subsection (d), which states:

"In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that he would be taken if he were a local patient"

That means to me that we will be obligated to take care of out-of-State patients ahead of some of our own people who should be institutionalized. It seems to me that we ought to give this bill a little more study, and I would like to urge my colleagues to vote against this measure.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Kessler.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Kessler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KESSLER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, may be I misunderstood the Senator, but will there be any harm if we do enact this bill?

Mr. KESSLER. I certainly think there will be harm if we enact this bill. New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut are the only three States so far that have passed this bill. I do not know how many more States may pass it, but as soon as the bill is passed, we are obligated, as I see it, to take care of any out-of-State patients who might be declared mentally ill right here in Pennsylvania.

Mr. WEINER. Senator, would you correct me if I am wrong, but is this not merely a bill which authorizes and directs the Governor to enter into a compact? In other words, the day that we pass this bill does not necessarily mean that people who belong in mental institutions are going to start flowing into this State.

Mr. KESSLER. I did not understand the bill that way. This bill is a compact and it authorizes the Governor to set up a compact administrator who will see that the provisions of the compact between the States is adhered to and take care of the details.

Mr. WEINER. Thank you, Senator.

I do not want to get into semantics, but I think in the title of the bill it says, "authorizing and directing the Governor," and goes on, "to execute an interstate compact." Therefore, unless the Governor executes the compact, we have nothing to do on this act and nobody will be able to come into the State until it is so enacted.

Also, Mr. President, I would like to direct the attention of the Members of this Senate to page 8 of the bill, lines 9, 10 and 11, where it is stated that if any of these people arrive from any other State:

"The sending state shall pay all costs of and incidental to the institutionalization care treatment after-care supervision" et cetera, of any patient.

Regarding page 5 which Senator Kessler objected to, I would like him to know that there is no priority. The priority would be the same as they would receive had they come from anywhere else, and they would receive the same priority of care for the same type of sickness. Therefore, there would not be a further imposition of priority.

If I read these things wrong or if my understanding is wrong, I will be very happy if you will correct me. However, I would like to point out that there are some acts where we are the only State that has such an act, and I do not think that puts us in a bad light just because we are a little more progressive than some of the other States.

Mr. KESSLER. Mr. President, this bill authorizes and directs the Governor to execute an interstate compact. If the Governor fails to do that, then he is not fulfilling the duties and obligations of his office. It seems to me that if we pass this bill, we are directing the Governor to enter into this compact.

Mr. President, the reference that Senator Weiner made to the reimbursement of costs, if he will read the bill carefully, applies only to those patients where the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has agreed to accept those patients.

There is one further thing about that particular section on reimbursement. This bill was amended last week by Senator Dent to provide for that reimbursement feature. Whenever you make amendments to a compact bill such as this, which is supposed to be adopted uniformly by all of the States entering into the compact, you run the danger of having the compact thrown out. Whether the other States will accept those amendments is a real question.

Mr. President, on the matter of priorities, the thing which disturbs me is that—and if Senator Weiner were to read this particular section on page 5 he would find it—any person who is assigned or sent to Pennsylvania will be placed on a priority list and that means that that many more people who are residents of Pennsylvania will have their admission to a State institution delayed that much longer.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I think Senator Kessler still misinterprets Section 1. It is true that the Governor is directed and authorized to execute a compact, but it limits this order to any State legally joining. Therefore, the other State must join before the Governor is authorized to execute this compact.

Furthermore, in favor of this bill, I think, is the fact that mental cases at large which come from other States may be a jeopardy to the citizens of our State and if the Governor can arrive at agreements with other States to have them institutionalized and the State from which the patient comes pays the cost, that is a worth-while measure and I intend to vote for it.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, Senator Dent, on a number of occasions, has made the Administration's position quite clear on this particular piece of legislation. I want the Membership to know that only those States that pass this legislation or comparable legislation can participate in the compact.

We, on this side, feel that this is good legislation and we hope there will be enough independent votes to pass the bill. We feel this is a step in the right direction. We have gone along here and appropriated a lot of money for the problems of mental illness and we feel that this legislation should be passed in its present form.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, on the evening when Doctor Salk was given an award for the discovery he made on polio vaccine, he was interviewed by a group of newspapermen and they asked him which one of the problems dealing with health was the most serious confronting the Nation at that time. That was only a few months ago, and Doctor Salk said that it was mental illness.

Since that is true, it seems to me that this compact should be adopted because it is a starting point for the exchange of ideas and information on ways and means of combating that dreaded illness in order that it can be properly cured or, at least, controlled to a greater extent than it is today.

I happen to be, as I said many times on this floor, connected with the State Fiscal Officers of the United States. At the last convention which we had, we had a report on the subject of mental health laws and all that sort of thing. Because of that report, many of the States, from the information that was given, were able to improve their mental health situations.

I say, therefore, Mr. President, that this compact is a commendable one and Pennsylvania should enter into it so that it could give other States information and assistance which we might develop here, and in order that we might be in the same position to get aid from States that probably are making more progress than we are. I, therefore, intend to vote for the bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate, if I may, the Chairman of the Republican Caucus, from Potter, Senator Berger.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Berger, if you are at liberty, would you mind telling me at this moment whether or not this bill has been the subject of Caucus action on the part of your Caucus?

Mr. BERGER. No, but the Members of the Caucus were not in favor of the bill. The custom is to find out whether there are votes in favor of a bill, and there appeared to be none.

Mr. DENT. Thank you, Senator.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to point out to Senator Kessler, particularly, that I believe what he has in mind is a matter of economy. What he may want to know is this; that without this compact in effect in the various States of the Union, we in Pennsylvania are compelled today to accept for care and incarceration or hospitalization, whichever the case may be, all those who are mentally ill within the confines of our Commonwealth regardless of the origin State. In other words, there is no law in any State where they protect Pennsylvania against the cost of hospitalization of their citizens until this compact is passed. A great many of the persons we are taking care of today in our institutions are, in the main, vagrants who come here from various States and are judged to be mentally deficient and we incarcerate or hospitalize them, whichever as I said the case may be, in our institutions and we must pay for them because we cannot, under any conditions, put them on a train unless we pay for it and certainly the other States will not extradite a person of that character.

Basically, Mr. President, this subject has been studied for a period of five years. We have had as our member on this study commission one of the outstanding lawyers in this State, one whom we felt so highly of that we kept him in this Administration as the First Deputy Attorney General of the Commonwealth, Harrington Adams, who all of us feel is a public servant and a career attorney. I believe we ought to give this more consideration than having it go before any particular Caucus and made into Caucus action. I believe that this is a question of individual concern, and every man will be branded on his vote on this bill with respect to how much he regards our frontal attack upon one of the most menacing problems in this Country today. How are we to attack this picture of mental disease, on a State basis only? If we would have taken the same attitude as this Senate is taking today, the Lord only knows how many years we would have been retarded in our fight upon tuberculosis, cancer and the many other dread diseases which have been visited upon humankind since the early days of our beginning.

I believe we are foolish to take this position today and I beg of you on the other side to reconsider your action on this matter. This is an important matter. The State of Massachusetts just last week passed the enabling legislation which put Massachusetts into the compact. We ought not to be a tail-end State; we ought to be a lead State. We are the Keystone State of this Union, and we will lose that name of Keystone State when we start marching backward instead of forward. To march forward in the fields of medicine and medical science is just as important as any of the other fields of endeavor. I beg of you to reconsider your action.

Mr. President, we have worked long, hard and diligently to find a solution to the problem of vagrancy and those who have mental diseases. This is one of the answers and, in fact, may be the best answer to all of it.

SENATE RESOLUTION

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO THE HONORABLE G. ROBERT WATKINS

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FLEMING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 21, 1956.

While this may be the late day of the 1955 Legislative Session, the same date fifty-four years ago was the first day of the gentleman now known as the Honorable G. Robert Watkins, Senator from the Ninth Senatorial District, comprising the County of Delaware, an astute Senator and a famous breeder of fine horses, to his numberless friends known as just "Bob".

Next to Bob Watkins in the Senate sits Ed Watson, the colorful alter ego of Senator Bob on whom Bob Watkins leans heavily for moral support.

This prolonged session has kept Bob from celebrating his natal day with his wife and sons; therefore be it

Resolved, That the least the Senate can do is to make a note of the occasion and to wish this Member of the Senate a happy birthday in spite of everything; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Hon. G. Robert Watkins.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTON, SERIAL No. 182, TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, there is on the table a resolution which I introduced on Friday and it was reported like a blitzkrieg from the Committee on Rules. At this time, I call up this resolution.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD, TO MAKE AN EXHAUSTIVE INVESTIGATION OF ILLICIT LIQUOR TRAFFIC IN THE COMMONWEALTH

In the Senate, May 18, 1956.

Whereas, The sale, manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages in the Commonwealth are regulated by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, an independent administrative agency; and

Whereas, The total cash receipts of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the biennium ended May 31, 1955, were $470,000,000, of which $424,000,000 was derived from the sals of liquor; and

Whereas, Collections of the 10 percent liquor tax during the fiscal biennium 1953-1955 amounted to $42,294,802, and liquor store profits transferred to the General Fund amounted to $85,500,000; and

Whereas, The Governor in his budget estimates collections of the 10 percent liquor tax for the biennium 1955-1957 at $41,000,000 and liquor store profits at $73,000,000; and

Whereas, It has been alleged that a considerable volume of liquor is illicitly imported into the Commonwealth, and such illicit traffic is not only injurious to the legitimate Pennsylvania vendor who makes his purchase for resale from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board but also adversely affects the magnitude of receipts to the Commonwealth's General Fund: therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to make in conjunction with liquor Control Board, an exhaustive investigation of illicit liquor traffic in the Commonwealth, with a view of developing means and methods of discouraging such illegal traffic, and report its findings and recommendations, together with such drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect, to the next Regular Session of the General Assembly.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 182, ADOPTED

Whereupon,

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WEINER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, in October of last year, I introduced a resolution dealing with the irresponsible newspaper reporting in connection with criminal cases which were, at that time, pending in the city of Philadelphia, one of which was a rather sensational case and all the lurid details appeared in the newspapers. Many of these newspapers find their way into homes where members of the entire family read these articles.

The resolution came out of committee, passed this body, went over to the House and passed there with a slight amendment, came back to this body and failed in the Rules Committee to receive approval.

Mr. President, one of the gentlemen who acted on this resolution stated that he felt the newspapers did not need investigation at this time or at any time. I concur in that thought, but I wish to add this addenda thereto. We have set up, in the meantime, the machinery to go on with this type of investigation.

I want to make my position very clear. I am unalterably opposed to anyone who threatens the freedom of the press. However, I do not feel that any group in our society is sacrosanct to the point where we cannot look upon some of their activities and they, as one of the main cogs in our society for the dissemination of information, should be held responsible for their acts and should be represented by responsible people who will stand up and take the blame for some of the things they do.

I, therefore, Mr. President, am asking the Joint State Government Commission, which will take up this problem, to continue on investigating these activities. I realize that the area they will look into is somewhat nebulous, but it may be that the newspaper industry, like all other industries, may be under the misapprehension that they are not subject to any regulation. However, like all industries in our society the newspapers are also subject to regulations and rules which will be promulgated by an investigation to be made by the Joint State Government Commission that will report back to the new Session of the Legislature, which will convene in 1957.

REMARKS BY MINORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, there has been a great deal of discussion about the manner in which the geneltman from Lancaster, Graybill Diehm, handled his committee during this Session. There has been an uprising of loud voices and many complaints about how gentlemanly he has been. It is an unusual situation to find a man of his character and esteem treating each Member of the Senate as if he were a gentleman. It is not the rule around the Senate to be treated with such courtesy.

Therefore, one of the reasons we are asking him out here on the floor at this moment is because, as usual, up to the last minute he is working diligently on State business. Besides, I think he is probably the only Member of this Senate who has given to any department of the government any sizable amount of money of recent years. I learned from the Highway Department that the good Senator just gave them a check for $33,000. Of course, the good Senator says that it is for his share of the damages on certain roads down there in Lancaster, but I think he is just paying back some of the money that he has been taking from the Highway Department for so many years.

Mr. President, I want to join with all of you in greeting, at this moment, this old gentleman of the Senate. I want to yield at this time for a few remarks by the chairman of our "Committee on Appropriate Occasions," who is the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Fleming.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR G. GRAYBILL DIEHM

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, never in my history in Harrisburg have I found it so difficult to get a man into his seat in the Senate in order that we might properly recognize him and his service not only to the Senate, but to the Commonwealth.

I believe in the Senator from Lancaster we have one of the most able statesmen who ever sat in this body; certainly a master politician and, above and beyond that, one of the best loved men ever to serve in this Senate.

Graybill, on behalf of every Member of this Senate, I want to say to you that we are all sorry that you are leaving this body. We had all hoped, and I speak for the Democrats as well as the Republicans, that you would have consented to come back for another Session, but you have seen fit not to do so. When you are back in Lancaster, we only hope that you will think about us once in awhile.

As a little token of the esteem in which we all hold you, I want to present to you now this little gift from your fellow Senators. The gift was made in Lancaster County, incidentally, so I know you will be happy to receive it.

Mr. DIEHM. Mr. President, it seems they have me fixed up pretty well right now. It has been a long time since I have heard as much phospate spread around as I heard just now. I can truly tell you that this is contrary to my habits and my way of thinking. The Senate owes me nothing. I appreciate the thought.

I understand that this gift was made in Lancaster and on that basis I cheerfully accept it, because I know it has to be good if it comes from Lancaster.

It was not necessary to present me with any tangible property. When I say "tangible property," it reminds me of the sales tax and I am afraid there might be a tax on it.

I cheerfully accept this gift in the spirit in which it was given to me. However, as I said before, it does not take any tangible property to have me remember this Senate as long as I live, not only the Members on the Republican side but the men on the Democratic side, who I believe are all my friends. I have no malice toward either Party and I appreciate one just as highly as the other.

With that thought in mind, I thank you very much. I am sorry that my situation in life just brought about a condition which forces me to leave you but I assure you that if I live, I shall be back to see you maybe just as often as when I was a Member of this Senate.

Thank you again.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, one day I was talking to the Senior Senator from Lancaster on a day when, as usual, I had been on the floor and had talked, as I usually do, too long, and I said to him back in the lunch room, "Senator, how come you can go along so often so long without making speeches?" He said, "Well, John, let me tell you. You never get in trouble if you talk too little." I suppose that is one of the reasons many times, because I talk a great deal, that there might be some misunderstandings.

The last days of any Session always give us a little time in our busy life to reflect, especially many of us who are of the kind of a nature that does not create, if it can help it, any ill feelings and if these ill feelings are created, they do not desire that they be carried on. I do not know, and no one knows except the Giver of Gifts, whether or not we will all be here next time. Some of us stand for re-election this time and maybe the voters will not desire our return. Others may be called by our Maker to a reward greater than that which we may ever hope to achieve here on earth.

Mr. President, as we leave these last days, having spoken too often and too long, I would say to all of you that if at any time my remarks have ever been tinged with personality or at any time any of you ever felt grieved by any of the positions I have taken, I want you to know that I personally apologize to you. I never grew up in a family where you could carry a grudge. If you grow up in a large family, you learn that every day there is a crisis and you have to get over each crisis before the sun goes down, because it is no good to go to bed and get up carrying the same grudge. You learn that you have to live with each other and you learn that each and every one of us has different little characteristics and we each are entitled to indulge in these characteristics and difference of opinion.

I say this in all sincerity that I believe every Member of this Senate has tried to do the job as he has seen it should be done. There are times when we have disagreed and my worthy opponents on the other side may have taken affront at the manner in which I delivered myself. In the heat of a battle, a man may strike a blow which might be considered by the referee to be low, but I am sure that no fighter ever intends to punch low. As it is forgiven in the field of battle, so it must be frogiven in the game of politics.

Mr. President, I have enjoyed no end this friendly antagonism dealing over principles. When I walk out the gate of this Senate, I have never carried with me any personal grudge against any man. I have lived a great many years with Senator Taylor, the other old, ancient gentleman of this Senate, and I have yet to know him to ever break his word to me in any compact we made dealing with the activities and the mechanics of this General Assembly.

I have on my side some men whom I have learned to love as I would a brother or, even so, a father. I would not like to leave this Session, looking into the uncertain future, without paying my respects to the man who has been more of an ideal and a guide to me than any other man in my lifetime, Senator Frank Ruth, of Berks County. I served with Frank Ruth when he was the Floor Leader in the House of Representatives and I learned at his knee, politically, some of the small things that I know about leadership in the Senate.

I have served with a great many of the men in this Senate for twenty years or more. None of us know, as I said, when we will be taken away, either by will or whim of the voters or the call of a loud trumpet. Therefore, if I fail to return here, let us say that if I am still with you on this earth, I will come back and I hope you will make me welcome. If I fail to return because the voters do not want me, there will be no regret because where else in this green, God's earth of ours can the son of an immigrant, with little formal education, ever serve the people of the great Commonwealth for twenty-two years? There is no greater honor that can be given to any man and it cannot be measured by worldly goods. I take with me at the end of this Session a record, maybe of not fine achievements, but at least a record of service, good or bad, to the people of this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, I am reminded, too, that as we go out some of us may have some little inkling of some personal distrust of any one of us. Take it away from your soul and leave it here in the Senate Chamber. When you walk out of here today, walk out as you came in sixteen months ago, friendly by nature and of good will.

I have before me a little poem which was sent to me, and I would like to give it to you. I think it is a take-off from "The Bells" by Edgar Allen Poe. It is headed, "Personal and Pertinent," and it sort of an ode to the Legislature of 1879 and reads as follows:

"Ring out, wild bells, your merry peal.
As soon as the joyful news is learned,
Ring out with earnest, brazen zeal,
The Legislature has adjourned!
Farewell to long oppressive ills,
Farewell to blunders, big and small,
To crazy laws and foolish bills.

Farewell to wind and taffy, too,
Investigations weak and slim;
Farewell to whitewash, old and new,
That patent whitewash, cheap and dim!

Farewell to many a little scheme,
To many a scheme that died so hard;
Farewell the statesman's nightly dream,
The jamboree and faro card.

Farewell, ye talkee-talkee band,
Go, take a rest, sit down a spell;
Farewell, ye statesmen of our land,
And bless ye for the word farewell."

Mr. President, this poem was found in a copybook of a man living in Avoca who is long since dead, and was forwarded to me by his clergyman-son. The author's name was not given. My correspondent, in sending the poem along said, "They, the lawmakers, apparently had their troubles with the Legislature then, too." The Legislature of 1879 was in Session from January 7 to June 6, or an unheard of 151 days.

As I sat here looking at this poem, I thought of one which would probably fit modern day language a little better than what this one does and I say to all you Senators:

"Go on, Senators, go on home,
The Capitol is safe from cellar to dome,
Life will go one, never fear,
Dogs will bark, babies will cry and the people will cheer.
At last, at last, the end has come,
Homeward we go by plane, by train and by weary thumb."

Mr. DIEHM. Mr. President, may I be excused now and go back to the place where they talk about millions? These are just little sums here.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman is excused, since it is still State business.

BIRTHDAY PRESENTATION TO SENATOR G. ROBERT WATKINS

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, while we have had no report on the poker party of last Saturday night, and the Session has not seen fit that we adjourn to go to the Harrisburg Track to see the eighth race, we cannot pass this memorable day, May 21, without commenting on this, the birthday of our colorful Senator from Delaware County.

Fifty-four years ago, the State of Virginia had the pleasure of having in its midst one who has become an outstanding gentleman among all. However, he saw fit to come northward to Pennsylvania and we are gratified that he did. His association with us has been a wonderful one.

On behalf of the Senators in the 1955 Session,—or is it the 1956 Session—it is my pleasure at this time, especially on behalf of his sidekick, Senator Watson, to present Senator Watkins with a little token of our esteem. Many more happy birthdays to you, Bob.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I certainly want to thank the gentleman of the Senate for this wonderful birthday present. The last gift I received, the old pot, we use for making beef stew. I think they realize that my family is getting smaller and I think the pot is getting smaller.

I am deeply appreciative of this gift and I say to the Members of the Senate that we would be most happy to have them visit us when we fill it full of good beef stew.

I am at a loss for words today. I am like Johnny Dent. I feel as though on my fifty-fourth birthday—I do not know how you count it up and make fifty-four or other, it; from 1902 to 1956 is thirty-nine. Somehow or other, I cannot count any better than that. I, too, think it has been a great privilege in the eight years that I have been permitted to serve in the Senate of Pennsylvania. I was born where Langley Field now is. My father had about a 175 acre farm down there and sold it for $4,500. That is where I was born and that is where I learned to appreciate agate pots. We had them in those days and, therefore, I never throw a gift like that away.

It is a real privilege to serve in this Body and I hope, too, like Johnny, if I have offended anyone in this Session or at any past Session, they will forgive me. I dearly love to be with all of you. I consider everyone here as a real friend and I consider it an honor to sit in this Body.

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO SENATOR M. HAVEY TAYLOR PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. President, I would just like to comment that Senator Watkins is as careless with his age as he is with his tips on horses.

I would also like to take this opportunity, as one of the youngsters here in the Senate, to acknowledge the fact that if we had stayed here two weeks longer, we would have honored on a similar occasion, one of the grand old men of the Grand Old Party. While his youthfulness in activity belies his number of years, I do think it is very much in order at this time to pay honor and homage to Senator M. Harvey Taylor, who will celebrate his eightieth birthday on June 4.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I am not like Senator Diehm. You better not offer me a Cadillac; I will take it in a hurry. If there would not have been the inscription on the back of his watch, "made in Lancaster." I would have asked him for it to give to my great-grandson. Senator Diehm is an old bachelor; he is not leaving anything but money.

I hate to talk about him in his absence, but he will not pick up a check for more than three people. You should have given me a couple watches for my lineage.

Thank you.

EXTENDING TRIBUTE TO EMPLOYES AND FURTHER REMARKS

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, last week we exchanged many kind compliments across the aisle. I would like to add a few more this afternoon and pay tribute—and I am sure I am speaking for all the Members of this Body—to our employes. As Chairman of the Democratic Caucus, I wish to say that we on this side have all been pleased with the service we received from the desk and from every employee in this Senate. Especially, I want to pay tribute to three men with whom I have had close contact. They are Ralph Earley, our barber; Fred Thomas and Charles Lathero. They have worked hard all along.

Regardless of party, they take care of the Democrats as well as the Republicans when we receive requests from back home.

Therefore, I want to pay tribute to these men and to all the people who have served long and hard throughout this Session.

In closing, Mr. President, I want to add a serious note also to say that I have had some heatraches throughout this Session. I realize that in the early days of the Session, I took up a lot of time talking for a cause in which I have faith. I first tried to receive an appropriation and asked my colleagues to go to Dallas, Texas, and I failed. I then tried to get an appropriation to have a committee chosen from this Chamber to come to Portage, Pennsylvania, and I failed. I then tried to receive an appropriation which would have been used to serve suffering humanity in cancer research, and I failed.

Now, Mr. President, the Session is about over. Once again I want to state that I shall welcome a committee from this Senate, at my expense, regardless of what it may cost, sometime this summer. I will pay for their time; I will pay for their lodging and traveling. I invite them to come unofficially to Portage, Pennsylvania, and spend a few days and see for themselves just what I have been talking about. They will be able to see just what we are doing on behalf of suffering humanity, without any help or aid by State funds. I hope the committee will come down to Portage and, as I said, I shall foot the entire bill.

REMARKS CONCERNING CLOSING DAYS OF SESSION

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, at the closing days of each Session of the Senate, as the years go by, there seems to be a certain amount of nostalgia that affects me because I know that probably there are men here today whom we will not see again for a long time. I am sorry to know that my good friend, Graybill Diehm, has decided not to come back and also my good friend, Murray Peelor.

As I heard Senator Dent stand here and say that there might be a possibility that he would not come back, it disturbed me. I want the Membership on both sides to know that I am not running for office this year. I am going to campaign for Senator Dent in Westmoreland County or wherever I can. I feel that without his leadership in the Senate, both sides would be just a little bit behind the eight ball. I say that with all due respect to all concerned.

Senator Mahany has done a splendid job on the Republican side of the Senate. He is one who never seems to become angry. I wonder sometimes how he puts up with me

While I am on the floor, I also want to apologize to my good friend, Al Pechan. I am sorry I called him the second team. I just do that for a purpose. I want to see him get his ire up now and then.

I am going to tell a story that I think is quite humorous before I sit down. I believe I heard it from a Member of the Senate a long time ago.

A teacher had been lecturing her pupils on the evils of the use of intoxicating liquors. One morning, as she walked down the street, she decided that she would put on a demonstration. After school was properly opened, she said, "Boys and girls, I want you to all gather up front and I want you to closely observe what I am about to do.

"As you know, I have lectured you over the years about the evils of the use of intoxicating liquors." She said, "I have before me two glasses; one contains water and the other contains whisky. In my hand I hold a worm. Closely observe what I am about to do."

She dropped the worm into the glass of water and the worm swam around quite lustily there. She took it from the glass of water and she dropped it into a glass of Bourbon whisky. The worm made a couple of wiggles and then dropped to the bottom of the glass, dead.

She said, "Boys and girls, what have I demonstrated to you here this morning?" No one said a word. She said, "Come, come, at least one of you has the power of comprehension. What have I demonstrated?" Some little boy in the back of the room got up and said, "Teacher, you demonstrated to me that people who drink whisky will not have worms."

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

GEORGE M. LEADER.

EXTENDING THANKS TO MEMBERS OF SENATE FOR THEIR FINE COOPERATION

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I also want to take this opportunity of thanking each and every Member of the Senate for their fine cooperation extended to me. At no time have I gotten angry with anyone. Even in the bitterest of combats, I felt very kindly toward everyone, including Senator Dent, Senator Lane and all the others over there. No matter what they said or did, I still felt kindly toward them.

I also want to thank all the Senators of this Session of the Legislature for not attempting any kind of a filibuster. This is the first Session of the Senate that I have attended, since I have been a Member of the Senate, in which there was not some threat of filibustering or an actual filibuster. I have sat here on many occasions and listened by the hour to some Senator discuss the history of the Senate at length or some book that had nothing to do with the issue. I think we are all to be complimented for holding our tempers as well as we did and for trying our best to see to it that the business of the Commonwealth was conducted with dispatch. Although we differed at times, it was not personal differences; it was always differences of political thought or, you might say, we voted on this side the way we did because the people of Pennsylvania wanted us to vote that way, and I have no doubt that the Senators on the other side also voted their convictions in the same manner. Which side was right will be decided, I hope, this November. If we are right, then the people can return to the Legislature a Republican-dominated House and Senate. If they think we were wrong, I hope they return to the Legislature a Democratic-controlled House and Senate. However, I do hope that the first part of my statement will be the thing which will actually happen.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 163 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I call from the table House Concurrent Resolution No. 163.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

ALLEGHENY DAM

In the House of Representatives, March 13, 1956.

The Upper Allegheny River Valley last week suffered the most disastrous flood since 1865. The Borough of Warren alone has been damaged, reckoned in money, far in excess of a million dollars. Most other up-river communities have suffered in proportion.

In contrast, Pittsburgh and the Lower Allegheny Valley have incurred but little damage. The reason, clearly, is that sizable heads of water were held back by the system of flood control dams in operation for the benefit of the lower river.

This system was authorized twenty years ago by the seventy-fourth Congress of the United States. However, the flood control dams for the upper river stall remain in the preliminary planning stage—notably the great dam to be built athwart the Allegheny above Warren, reportedly near Kinzua.

Continued inaction in proceeding with the construction of the upper river flood control system, commencing with the main dam above Warren, means a heavy handicap to the northwestern Pennsylvania area—an ever-to-be-reckoned-with threat to life and property, and an active and deadening threat to the economic development of the region; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to expedite to the utmost the appropriations and any additionally needed enabling legislation to bring into being the main upper Allegheny Dam and other uncompleted units of the Allegheny Valley flood control system without further delay; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 163 ADOPTED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read by the Clerk be adopted.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to and the resolution was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for forty-five minutes, for the purpose of awaiting communications from the House.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

The Chair would like the record to show that the President pro tempore, in the absence of the President, has requested Senator Fleming to preside.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1825

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I submit the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1825, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (i) of section four of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 604), entitled "State Highway and Bridge Authority Act," by increasing the power of the Authority to borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness therefor in certain cases.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

HOUSE MESSAGES

GEORGE M. LEADER.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, when I was a young man going to school, all of us adjourned for recess on May 22. I hope that will be the case in the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, May 22, 1956, at 9:00 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 5:02 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Tuesday, May 22, 1956, at 9:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, May 21, 1956

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, as we come to the closing hours of this session, we thank Thee for Thy unfailing goodness and mercy toward us. Thou hast been a thousand times better to us than we deserved.

We thank Thee for all those in this session, from the highest to the lowest, because there is no rank with Thee, except goodness and faithfulness, who have labored for the common good of all.

We thank Thee that Thou hast preserved them in body, soul and mind. Those who have gone to their eternal reward, we hold in grateful memory today.

Our God, we would ask Thee to forgive us and have mercy upon us where we have failed to listen to the voice from within, the voice of Mt. Sinai within each one of us that says, "Thou shalt and Thou shalt not." To listen to the voice from without, to listen to the S.O.S. calls from Thy people, forgetting that we are members one of another. To listen to the voice from above, forgetting that Thou who gave the power of speech, can speak to all and Thou dost say to them: "Behold I stand at the door and knock, if any man will open the door, I will come in."

Now, our Father, as we go our separate ways, always and forevermore give us Thy peace which passeth all understanding unto each and all, through the grace of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, please come to the rostrum? The Chair will very soon have a number of bills to sign and is requesting the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, to preside temporarily.

Mr. HELM IN THE CHAIR.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Friday, May 18, 1956 will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. MUSTO. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. MUSTO. Last week our county newspapers carried that I had voted "no" on Senate Bill 317. I find today upon investigation of our records I am recorded as voting "no."

There is a possibility that the Clerk of the House during the roll call on 317 found that I was leaving my seat and thought I was voting "no."

I want the record to be corrected to show that I had voted "aye" on the previous bill before it was amended and I wanted to vote "aye" again on the same bill last Friday. I am only sorry that I could not register two votes instead of one for that bill.

RESOLUTION

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE STUDY

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1956.

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study of all the problems involving branch banking and make a report of its findings to the next General Assembly together with its recommendations as to what action should be taken.

RESOLUTION

MEDICAL SCHOOLS AND PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1952.

Whereas, this legislature has made a definite move forward in the field of higher education by increasing state appropriations to the Universities, Medical Schools and Pennsylvania State University, and

Whereas, this legislature in its wisdom has passed enabling legislation giving the General State Authority power to build physical plants for state-aided universities on a lease payment plan, and

Whereas, inadvertently medical colleges were not included in the bill, and

Whereas, we believe this to be one of the major achievements of this Administration and this General Assembly, therefore be it

Resolved, that we herewith proclaim the legislature will consider in the next legislative session, the addition of medical colleges in an amendment to the GSA Act.

SENATE MESSAGE

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1796, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the City of Philadelphia to be used in preparing and furnishing a permanent berth for the cruiser Olympia

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, while I know it is on second reading, this is a patriotic bill and it only has a contingent appropriation to save the cruiser "Olympia."

This ship was Admiral Dewey's Flagship. Admiral Lawrence said "Don't Give up the Ship!" Why should we give up at this point? Let us keep it on the calendar. We may be here another week, you cannot tell.

I, therefore, ask that it be read for the second time if the Majority Leader has no objection.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we are going to adjourn today, I still move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. TOLL. I will agree, Mr. Speaker, if he says positively we will adjourn.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, if the gentleman does not ask me anything about the good ship Olympia.

Mr. TOLL. I will not, Mr. Speaker. Just one question. On the question of adjournment today, will the gentleman from Berks say "positively?"

Mr. READINGER. I will say "positively."

Mr. TOLL. Then I surrender, sir.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 620, entitled:

An Act amending the "Vehicle Code" act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905) further regulating magistrates' reports speed in certain political subdivisions further prescribing enforcement and penal provisions and imposing duties on certain pedestrians

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1894, entitled:

An Act amending "The Penal Code" of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872) making it unlawful to listen into deliberations of juries and for unauthorized persons to be present in grand jury room

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CAPANO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the motion to be that Mr. Capano wants to recommit House Bill 1894, Printer's No. 1824?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. JOHNSON. I would like to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPANO. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, is not here. I know he has done a lot of work on this bill and his heart is quite set on it. He offered amendments the other day to reduce the penalties and otherwise correct the bill to meet the objections of those who brought it back here on a recall.

I would like to have the gentleman state, if he will, why he is making the motion at this time to send this bill back to Committee?

Mr. CAPANO. Mr. Speaker, because there are a number of persons opposing the bill who are not present here in the House today. I believe under the circumstances the bill should not be voted on today.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, that is probably the flimsiest reason I have ever heard offered for recommitting a bill.

This is the dying day of the session and I think had such a motion been in order we should have had notice of it. We would have had the Members on our side here today to give it a decent vote.

I am going to ask the Members on our side to vote "no" on the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the motion, be laid on the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE WITHDRAWN

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion to lay the bill together with the motion, on the table.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Judiciary?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 1073, Printer's No. 750

was passed over at the request of Mr. READINGER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1077, entitled:

An Act amending "The General State Authority Act of 1949" * * * increasing the power of the Authority to borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness therefor and allocating the proceeds of the increased borrowing and unexpended money previously borrowed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, here we are in the closing days of the session with a consent calendar again considering a bill that puts the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania another $100 million in debt, no matter what else you call it.

These ceilings for these General State Authority expenditures, on adequate information furnished to me, are being amortized over a period of 25 years. The interest rate has gone up tremendously, from one per cent and some odd fraction when we first started the General State Authority until now the interest rate is running 2.69. That was the interest rate on the last bond issue of $50 million in 1955.

To amortize the debt and pay the interest at this rate would take approximately $5,500,000 every biennium for the next 25 years. Every Legislature for the next 12 to 15 terms, I am speaking of terms now and bienniums, is going to have to raise an additional $5,500,000 if all these projects stated in this General State Authority bill are carried out.

There is a lot in the bill that deserves some consideration. There is a lot in the bill that does not deserve any consideration, in fact deserves a great deal of criticism.

For one thing I think it is poor practice to have this kind of a bill come up on a consent calendar in the closing days of the session. To me there does not seem to be any excuse whatsoever to make that necessary. We have been in session for 17 months.

The people who plan these institutions, these state teachers colleges and the various state welfare institutions for whom the bulk of the money is projected, should have known, and probably did know, from the beginning of the session what repairs were going to be needed at their various state institutions and how much new construction was absolutely needed in order to properly carry out the functions of their particular institution.

It should have been possible for the people manning these various institutions, and at the head of the various state departments under which the institutions come to have come in here in the spring of 1955 with a program of what they were going to need, spelled out in terms of dollars and cents as to how much each one would cost. We could then have had plenty of time to send out an adequate task force from the House and from the other body to determine whether their figures were right or wrong. Now we just have to take their word for it.

I do not know whether all of these repairs are needed at these various institutions. I dare say there are not more than four, five, or six Members in this House who know whether the repairs are needed or whether the new construction is needed.

I find at one place in the bill there is money for a new Governor's mansion. That I do not think is necessary in these days when we are fighting about the proper kind of a broad base tax for Pennsylvania until we get that settled once and for all. That will probably be resolved this fall, I am not afraid of that one.

Second, I find there are listed projects for four gymnasiums at four mental institutions in the state.

Then we come to a very peculiar and odd situation. Here is a man, the Secretary of Welfare, who has deliberately and intentionally, without any reasonable excuse whatsoever that has been furnished to the Press or to anybody, doing away with our state welfare farms, and many fruit trees have alreay been destroyed.

We have the report of the Committee from this House on Morganza, signed by the majority Members, all of them, on the other side of the House advocating that the inmates of that mental institution should be engaged in farming and farm husbandry. On the other hand, we have the state Secretary of Welfare saying that that is not fit work for these inmates to engage in.

I would venture to say, without any fear of contradiction by competent people, competent medical authorities, that working the ground, working with animals, and raising things that grow in the ground, is one of the best forms, if not the best form, of mental rehabilitation which can be applied to mental incompetents.

Certainly the Federal Government has recognized that and still recognizes it wholeheartedly.

Apparently we are going to by these projects, and according to the plan of the Secretary of the Welfare, substitute indoor recreation, possibly an hour or two hours a day in a gymnasium for this kind of mental patient. That just does not make common sense, or logic, or any kind of reasoning whatsoever.

I put a resolution in to have that matter investigated and I understand now that another body on this Hill has seen fit to report out such a resolution. I hope they go to town on it.

There are some good things in the bill such as furnishing several new mental institutions. I question very seriously whether three new mental institutions are needed. In 1953 I had an excellent report from the Secretary of Welfare, who told me there were approximately 800 mentally retarded children who should be institutionalized by all manner of means, on the waiting list in Pennsylvania.

I understand that now has grown by leaps and bounds all at once, until we now have around 2,000 or 2,200, according to the latest reports coming from the Department of Welfare. I question, whether it has grown to that number, knowing the mind of the Secretary of Welfare and knowing to what realms of imagination his mind can go.

I am, therefore, very reluctantly going to vote against this bill. Reluctantly, because I think there is a mental institution needed for retarded children and it should have come six or eight years ago. There is no excuse on the part of anyone in this state for letting an important project like that go down the drain. To that extent I can compliment this administration and this Department, in that one respect only, for furnishing another institution for these retarded children such as Polk Institute and Pennhurst. But the bad features in the bill so far override the one or two good features in it that I am forced to vote against the bill, and I certainly hope everyone will do likewise.

We are here and have to raise the money through taxes for this kind of thing and I think we should have had before us adequate figures to show the approximate cost for each repair and each construction that is listed under this bill and we could have voted on them separately, not as a package.

That is another fault with the legislative procedure. So much of this stuff we have to take as a package and could not vote on it as an individual project. That was true of the sales tax act. We had to vote against the bill or take it, vote against the amendments or take them. We did not have a chance to vote on it individually.

I am saying this, knowing probably the bill will pass, but hoping that in the future these remarks will help to pinpoint the fallacies that I see in this kind of legislation.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I am asking the membership of the House to vote for this bill as all of the institutions contemplated in this increase borrowing are very necessary. Many, many million of dollars for institutions had to be eliminated from consideration before this bill was finally drawn.

In one respect I would like to agree with the gentleman. It should not be necessary for a bill of this kind to come before us on the last day of the session. But I would like to call his attention to the fact that on May 23, 1955, a bill was introduced in the Senate which would have increased the borrowing capacity of the General State Authority. Another one was introduced on January 30th of this year. On February 22d, the House had a bill introduced which was House Bill 2043, dealing with this subject, but the decision was made in the Senate that they would not consider this matter until near the end of the session and that is the reason why we have it before us at this late date.

Now if he can convince his Republican brethren in the Senate some day that they should not delay matters of this kind until this time, then I am sure we can consider them when the full membership is here and we have had ample time to study the bill in all of its details.

I want to lay the blame for the long delayed action on this right where it belongs and that is in the lap of the state Senate and not in ours.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

PAYMENT OF DECEASED AND RESIGNED MEMBERS SALARIES

Messrs. READINGER, CHARLES C. SMITH, JOHNSON and LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1956.

Whereas, Representative M. Joseph Connelly, Representative Henry C. Spencer, and Representative Clarence M. Lawyer, Jr., our late colleagues, died during the present legislative term; and

Whereas, Representative Wilbur H. Hamilton and Representative John C. Kubacki resigned as members of the General Assembly on January 1, 1956, because the laws of Pennsylvania prohibited their holding the position of member of the House of Representatives and member of city council at the same time; and

Whereas, No successors were elected to fill the unexpired portion of their respective terms; and

Whereas, Each of these members completed substantially all of their duties while in office; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, pay to the widows, or if no widow, the personal representative of the deceased members and to the former Representatives, to Honorable Wilbur H. Hamilton and Honorable John C. Kubacki, the sum of six hundred dollars each, said sum being the balance of the salaries due to each of the above named members.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair requests the Speaker to return to the rostrum.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Armstrong for presiding.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. WORLEY. RESOLUTION (Not printed)

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1956.

Hon. Franklin Menges, Congressman from the old York-Adams Congressional District from 1925 to 1931, died in Arlington, Virginia on Saturday, May 12, 1956, at the advanced age of ninety-seven.

Dr. Menges was a scientist, farmer, educator and lecturer and an active member of the Lutheran Church. For a period of his life he taught at Gettysburg College.

He married the former May McIlhenny of Gettysburg; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House pause a moment during its deliberations to do homage to a faithful and efficient public servant and an active and public spirited humanitarian; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Dr. Menges' nephew, Hugh C. McIlhenny, Assistant Editor of the Gettysburg Times.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires the privilege of making a brief statement in connection with some verses that are being circulated from desk to desk in another chamber where legislation is considered.

This poem was addressed to the Legislature of 1879 and it goes to prove that no matter how much things change politically they remain the same. Since 1879 and as I read history, since 1879 BC erudite editors have been looking down their equiline patrician noses at this particular breed of persons who serve in Legislatures and who have over the years, through the centuries, made it a business to belittle those who have labored in the Legislature and even in the Halls of Congress of our various republics. There is not much difference in the temper of the verses written in 1879 and certain strains of comment that pass these days for editorial opinion.

These verses read:

TO THE LEGISLATURE OF 1879

Ring out, wild bells, your merry peal.
As soon as the joyful news is learned—
Ring out with earnest, brazen zeal—
The Legislature has adjourned!
Farewell to long oppressive ills—
Farewell to blunders, big and small,
To crazy laws and foolish bills.

Farewell to wind and taffy, too—
Investigations weak and slim—
Farewell to witewash, old and new—
That patent whitewash, cheap and dim!
Farewell to many a little scheme,
To many a scheme that died so hard;
Farewell the statesman's nightly dream,
The jamboree and faro card.

Farewell, ye talkee-talkee band,
Go, take a rest, sit down a spell;
Farewell, ye statesmen of our land,
And bless ye for the word farewell.

The above poem was found in a copybook of an Avoca man, long since dead, by his clergyman son and forwarded to me. The author's name was not given. My correspondent, in sending the poem along, said "they (the lawmakers) apparently had their troubles with the Legislature then, too." The Legislature of 1879 was in session from January 7 to June 6 or 151 days.

That, I repeat, is exactly in the spirit of those who comment in this progressive day of ours.

I want to say as I have said about the administration of a previous Governor, and as I have frequently said, when the content, the legislative content, of the previous administration is analyzed and balanced, so far as legislation is concerned the previous Governor deserves rank as a good Governor.

I say to the Members of this House on both sides, I say to the Press of this state, and I say to the public of this state, that however much they may criticize the manner and the method of our doing, when the legislation that this General Assembly has given to those who labor in industry, has given to those who suffer by reason of various mental and physical ills, has given to those who in past times have rendered service in our schools, has given to those who now minister in our schools, when all of that is analyzed, the inevitable fair verdict will be that while we perhaps took overly long in doing the job insofar as legislation is concerned, every Member of this House can go home and be proud of the legislative comment, the sneering editorial comment to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, since we just heard a poem for the Legislature of 1879, I have a little poem here which I think would apply to the present session and I beg you to listen to the poem.

The SPEAKER. Is is up to the 1879 standard?

Mr. FILO. I believe it is, sir.

The SPEAKER. With the indulgence of the House the gentleman may proceed.

Mr. FILO. This is a poem by Edgar A. Guest, and the title of the poem is:

TIME OUT FOR SUMMER

Bang the gavel on the stand,
Say "good-bye" and wave your hand.
Mr. Chairman, now you may
Put the joke books old away,
Until summer comes and goes
Here's the banquet season's close

When at home the table's set,
What you choose to eat you'll get.
Be it stew or chop or steak,
You will have no notes to make
Of the ones to introduce,
So enjoy your glass of juice.
There will be no singing group

To present when done with soup;
None to rise to take a bow,
You can eat your dinner now.
You can get the rest you need
Without telegrams to read.

Without lectern, two lamps lit.
At your table you can sit
'Till the summer time has gone,
There will be no "mike" turned on.
Mr. Chairman, homeward wend.
Here's the banquet season's end.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 2006

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 18, 1956.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 2006, Printer's No. 1390, entitled "An Act amending the act of May 21, 1943 (P. L. 595) entitled 'An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to establish operate and maintain self-sustaining restaurants as herein defined in the State Capitol creating a revolving fund for this purpose to be known as The State Restaurant Fund providing additional duties for the State Treasurer and the Department of Health in connection therewith and appropriating the necessary funds for these purposes' changing provisions relating to the operation of restaurants in the basement of the Main Capitol Building."

This bill is subject to conflicting interpretations. By the deletion of the phrase "adjacent buildings," it apparently limits the operation of restaurants by the Commonwealth to the Capitol Building and it confines the operation of these restaurants to the Department of Property and Supplies.

I believe the Department of Property and Supplies should have authority to establish restaurants or eating facilities of various types for the convenience of Commonwealth employes in all buildings owned by the Commonwealth. The type of eating facilities should be discretionary with the department since the number of employes varies in the different buildings. The department should be able to establish standards of service and sanitation, and, since these are all matters of administration, they should be under the jurisdiction of the executive branch of the government.

The Department of Property and Supplies is charged with the maintenance of all Commonwealth buildings. It should have the authority to supervise food services located within these buildings for the accommodation of Commonwealth employes.

This bill would defeat these objectives. I have no alternative but to veto it.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 407

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 18, 1956.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 407, Printer's No. 1696, entitled "An Act amending the act of August 10, 1951 (P. L. 1182) entitled 'An act relating to and defining chiropractic and the right to practice chiropractic requiring licensure conferring powers and imposing duties upon the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners and the Department of Public Instruction providing for the granting suspension and revocation of licenses issued by the board preserving the rights of existing licensees and giving them certain personal choice as to jurisdiction conferring jurisdiction upon the court of common pleas of Dauhpin County and prescribing penalties' extending the period of application for limited examination clarifying certain provisions thereof establishing further standards of educational conferences and requiring board approval thereof providing for branch office certificates and prohibiting branch office practice without such certificate."

The purpose of this bill is to extend the period for application for limited examination and to set forth standards of educational conference conducted by the Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society, or another chiropractic educational conference approved by the board, and further to provide for branch office certificates and the prohibition of branch office practice without such certificate.

The bill is defective in that it fails to attain requisite constitutional attributes.

The constitutionality of Section 15 of the Act of August 10, 1951, (P. L. 1182), which section is amended by this bill, is presently under attack in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County in the case of Eli Z. Martin et al. v. Francis B. Hass, Superintendent of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania et al., No. 185 Commonwealth Docket, 1954, No. 2126 Equity Docket, as a result of which the court ordered and decreed that a preliminary injunction issue enjoining and restraining the defendants from enforcing, or attempting or threatening to enforce the provisions of Section 15, supra.

This section was attacked for an alleged absence of standards governing the "quality or quantity of instruction or education to be included in the educational conference by the Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society, Inc., or to be included in an equivalent educational conference approved or ratified by the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, and as such allegedly amounted to an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power, contrary to the provisions of Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

This bill attempts to set forth minimum standards of instructions both qualitatively and quantitatively but continues to fall short of the constitutional mandates.

The Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society is a nongovernmental private corporation entirely removed from the control, supervision or jurisdiction of the Chiropractic Registration Act.

Although the bill attempts to set forth minimum standards of instruction, the Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society would, in effect, set forth the standards of instruction, together with standards for membership in the Society and attendance at educational conferences.

The board has no authority to compel the Society or any other organization to conduct the required educational conference. In effect, the Society or any other organization by not conducting such conferences could prevent licensing of applicants and continued licensure of the present licensees. Therefore, a Society which is a private, nongovernmental institution, by its failure to act, could render ineffective, the operation of the board, a governmental agency.

This bill, for these reasons, represents an unlawful delegation of legislative power to a private organization and in its application may well violate a person's right to equal protection under the law.

In addition, this bill permits the board, at its discretion, to excuse any licensee who has not complied with the provisions of Section 15, supra, "for physical or other hardship reasons." This phrase is too vague and uncertain to meet the requirement of reasonableness and certainty with respect to the actions of an administrative body.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1825

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1825.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

RESOLUTION No. 68 COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the terms of House Resolution No. 68, the Chair appoints as a committee, Messrs. MUSTO, FLINT and PARRY.

RESOLUTION

RETURNING HOUSE BILL No. 2056 TO GOVERNOR

Mr. READINGER offered a resolution which was read considered and adopted as follows:

Resolved (the Senate Concurring), That House Bill No. 2056, Printer's No. 1569, entitled "An act to amend the act of June 27, 1923 (P. L. 858), entitled 'An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes; defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process, and providing penalties,' defining certain officers and employes of the Pennsylvania State University who enter such service prior or subsequent to July 1, 1956 as State employes," which was recalled from the Governor May 17, 1956, for the purpose of amendment be returned to the Governor without amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to state that the Chair does not believe there is an outside chance of being able to complete the business of this House during the present calendar day. If the business of this House runs past 12:00 o'clock tonight, the Chair will insist upon an adjournment until tomorrow.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1956. No. 186.

SENATE

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1956.

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Honorable FRANK W. RUTH, a Member of the Senate from Berks County, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast given us the help and the strength to complete this work. We pray Thy blessing upon us as we go on into our regular field of work and may we have the strength to do that to Thine honor and glory.

As we complete the day and turn back to our homes, we say one to another:

"God be with you 'til we meet again;
When life's perils thick counfound you, he places his arm unfailing 'round you;
God be with you 'til we meet again."

We ask it in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. PECHAN and Mr. BARR, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SENATE TO INVESTIGATE INDUSTRIAL STRIFE IN THE STRIKE AGAINST THE WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION, ON BEHALF OF SENATOR ROWLAND B. MAHANY AND SENATOR ROBERT D. FLEMING, PURSUANT TO SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 5a

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I would like to submit the Report of the Special Committee of the Senate to investigate industrial strife in the strike at Sharon, Pennsylvania.

This is a partial report, made on behalf of Senator Mahany and myself. It is my understanding that Senator Dent, on behalf of himself and Senator Camiel, will also make a report.

There being no objection, the report (Pursuant to Senate Resolution, Serial No. 5a) was ordered to be printed in the Journal as follows:

Pursuant to a Senate Resolution of February 20, 1956, a Committee of four members was appointed to make an investigation of industrial strife and violence arising in the strike against Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

The Committee was composed of Senator Rowland B. Mahany, as Chairman and Senators Robert D. Fleming, John H. Dent and Peter J. Camiel.

The Committee held public hearings in the Court House at Mercer on Thursday and Friday, February 23 and 24.

At the opening of the hearing the Chairman invited any person to address the Committee who cared to do so. All witnesses were sworn but no transcript of the testimony was made except that the testimony of Judge Rodgers was taken by his court reporter. During the two days, 26 witnesses presented themselves and gave testimony in their own way with only an occasional question from the members of the Committee.

Mr. Snyder, Vice President and Manager of the Sharon plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation, appeared, together with 18 other employees of the Company who were eye witnesses to violence at the Sharon plant.

Public officials appeared as follows:

Herman M. Rodgers, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Mercer County
Richard Knowles, Sheriff of Mercer County
William E. Stuart, Chief of Police of Sharon
Michael J. Dunn, Mayor of Sharon

The following also appeared:

A Mrs. Haggard, whose husband is employed by

Sharon Steel Corporation
Eugene Dyll, President of I.U.E. Local 617
Henry Gunesch, business agent of I.U.E. Local 617

Moving pictures were shown evidencing violence and disorder.

Mr. Snyder offered in evidence as a written exhibit a running account of day by day incidents of violence and disorder at the Sharon plant and in the vicinity.

Messrs. Dyll and Gunesch of the I.U.E. gave their testimony by reading from prepared statements which were handed to the Committee.

During the two days of hearing everyone expressing a desire to testify was allowed to do so.

Findings of Fact

On the basis of sworn testimony, the Committee makes the following findings of fact:

1. From October 16, 1955, and continuing to the time of the investigation there had been a strike of certain of the employees of the Sharon plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation. Of the 8,000 employees at the plant, a substantial number belong to International Union of Electrical Workers Local 617, which called the strike of its own members. Other employees belong to other unions which called no strike and some belong to no union. The plant also employs a number of officials and supervisors.

2. From the outset of the strike the plant was picketed by I.U.E. Local 617 and during the first two weeks practically no employees were permitted to enter the plant although fianlly some supervisors gained access to undertake fire protection and maintenance.

3. On October 28, 1955, the Court of Common Pleas of Mercer County, on petition of Westinghouse Electric Corporation, granted an injunction regulating the number of pickets allowed at the plant. This order was subsequently modified on December 10, 1955 and February 15, 1956, so as to limit the number of pickets and prescribe the distance between them. The Committee has copies of the pleadings, decrees and opinion of the Court.

4. Following the injunction, approximately 2,000 employees of the total of approximately 8,000 employed at the plant attempted to resume work. The number included plant officials, supervisors, members of the union not on strike and a number of members of the striking union I.U.E. Local 617 who are designated as "Back-to-workers." The number of back-to-workers reached as high as 350.

5. Upon the resumption of entry into the plant by those employees desiring to work, there ensued a blockade by the pickets against the workers asserting the right to work. The blockade was effected by mass picketing, standing in the way of pedestrians or automobiles at the plant gates, pushing, jostling, striking with fists, throwing stones, overturning automobiles and breaking automobiles windows. The scene at the gates conclusively proved by the moving pictures showed on a number of occasions rioting and mob violence accompanied by menacing gestures and occasional drunkenness. A number of employees returning to work were physically injured, some requiring hospitalization.

6. There was evidence of general violence in the Sharon area consisting of throwing of paint bombs at homes of Westinghouse employees and also over-throwing of cars and slashing of tires. However, no evidence was given as to who was responsible for this particular type of violence.

7. By reason of the continued intimidation and violence from day to day, worse at some times than others, a reign of terror prevailed in Sharon involving not only employees of Westinghouse desiring to work but members of the public at large.

8. Requests for state police aid were made either directly to the state police or to the Governor of the Commonwealth by Judge Herman M. Rodgers, Police Chief William E. Stuart, Mayor Michael J. Dunn, Mercer County Sheriff Richard Knowles, and by C. D. Moore, Manager of Industrial Relations of Westinghouse. These repeated requests were based on the inability of the local city police and the sheriff with his deputies to cope with the overwhelming number of the pickets. The sheriff and the city officials stated that they had insufficient numbers even with additional men to handle the situation.

While the sheriff stated that he could "handle the situation ninety per cent of the time" and that he did not need state police "right at the moment," the fact remains that terrorism continued.

Governor Leader refused all requests that the state police give their aid to curb and prevent violence in Sharon. However, there was evidence that state police were present in Sharon at times as observers but not in uniform and that state police were probably present on at least some of the occasions of disturbance at the plant gate. There was no intervention by them at any time to stop violence or prevent further violence and they made no arrests.

Conclusions

1. There was a breakdown of law and order in Mercer County not only in continuance and foreseeable continuance of crimes and misdemeanors and breaches of the peace but also in disobedience to the specific injunction decrees of the Court of Common Pleas of the County.

2. The local law enforcing agencies at times were unable to preserve public peace and order.

3. Regardless of right and wrong or responsibility between Westinghouse and the strikers in connection with the industrial dispute, the fact is that peace and order were not preserved in Sharon and a spirit of public fear prevailed in the community.

4. This Committee is of the opinion that the presence of the highly respected state police in uniform on official duty in the strike area would have had a quieting influence to preserve and keep the peace.

5. The law should be observed so that a striker may peacefully picket by keeping in mind at all times that law and order must be preserved. All public officers from the local police and local sheriff up to the Governor should carry out their oath of office to faithfully execute the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

6. The Committee has considered the effect which the reign of violence in Sharon may have on the campaign to attract new business in Pennsylvania. There is nationwide knowledge of the passive attitude of the law enforcing officers in the Commonwealth. The Committee is of the opinion that sensible men regard the atmosphere of law observance as a primary factor in choosing a place in which to live and work.

Recommendations

1. General Order No. 23 of the State Police, dated 1946, should be revoked.

As interpreted by one member of the Committee, the General Order prohibits the state police from responding to calls for aid from local officials "excepting in case of actual violence" and violence signifies that it "must have been committed and be continuing." It would be better to have no Order at all than to have one which nullifies law enforcement at the time when most needed.

State police aid is needed before violence commences, if violence can reasonably be anticipated and prevented. The Order as its stands prevents help unless there is an act of violence which continues in a state of constant rebellion until the police arrive. Unless the marauder keeps beating his victim the police may not appear.

Prevention is better than post mortem.

2. The responsibility of the sheriff should be enlarged.

The Act of May 31, 1841, P. L. 415, 16 P.S. 3921-3924, extending to Allegheny County by the Act of March 20, 1849, P. L. 184, 16 P.S. 3925, and Northampton County by the Act of April 15, 1863, P. L. 499, 16 P. S. 3926, should be extended to cover all counties in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

This Act provides that the sheriff of the county, upon notice or upon knowledge of an impending riot or disturbance must take all legal means to protect property so attacked or threatened to be attacked, and upon neglect or refusal of the sheriff to perform his duties, he is held liable for damages done to the property upon the suit of the property owner and is guilty of a misdemeanor in office and, on conviction, his commission is voided. The Act of 1841 also gives the property owner a cause of action against the county for damages incurred as a result of destruction of property by mob violence.

3. The Joint State Government Commission should make a thorough study of the problems herein involved and make recommendations to the next session of the General Assembly.

(s) ROWLAND B. MAHANY, Chairman

(s) ROBERT D. FLEMING

By Senator Fleming:

I would like to add that if these proposals for increasing the efficiency of state and local enforcement agencies are adopted, a better means of preserving law and order in the midst of labor troubles in this Commonwealth will be available.

But the availability of a means of preserving law and order is not the key to the problem which the Sharon troubles highlighted. The means of stopping violence in Sharon was available. The Courts, the Sheriff, and the local officials took the steps which their sworn duty under the laws of this Commonwealth dictated. When they found they could not handle the situation, they did what other loyal and efficient public servants faced with a like problem would have done. They asked for State assistance.

They asked for help from the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth. Here is where law and order broke down in Sharon. The Governor did not act. No State Police were ordered to stop the stone-throwing, bombing, window-breaking, and terrorism in Sharon. No word of censure from the Governor came to discourage miscreants in this industrial battle. No protection was given innocent citizens and business men whose property, livelihood and bodies were imperiled by the unchecked violence of angry men.

For the trouble at Sharon had boiled over until it affected and endangered everybody and everything in the community. It was not a "private fight."

I contend that Governor Leader had both a legal and moral responsibility to intervene in the Sharon situation. And I contend that he abandoned his post of duty.

Because he shirked that duty, Pennsylvania got another black eye.

In my opinion the cure for this situation is not solely in the proposals made in the accompanying report of the Investigating Committee. It must come also from the positive acts of a Governor interested in convincing business, industry and the working people that he is on the side of order, and discipline, and fair play.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. At this time, the Chair invites the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming, to the rostrum to preside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SENATE TO INVESTIGATE INDUSTRIAL STRIFE IN THE STRIKE AGAINST THE WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION, ON BEHALF OF SENATOR JOHN H. DENT AND SENATOR PETER J. CAMIEL, PURSUANT TO SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 5a

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Dent and Senator Camiel,—Senator Dent is tied up in a Conference Committee—I submit the Report of the Special Committee of the Senate, appointed by Resolution of February 20, to investigate industrial strife in the strike against the Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

There being no objection, the report (Pursuant to Senate Resolution, Serial No. 5a) was ordered to be printed in the Journal as follows:

Pursuant to a Senate Resolution of February 20, 1956, a Committee of four members was appointed to make an investigation of industrial strife and violence arising in the strike against Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

The Committee was composed of Senator Rowland B. Mahany, as Chairman, and Senators Robert D. Fleming, John H. Dent and Peter J. Camiel

The Committee held public hearings in the Court House at Mercer on Thursday and Friday, February 23 and 24.

At the opening of the hearing the Chairman invited any person to address the Committee who cared to do so. All witnesses were sworn but no transcript of the testimony was made except that the testimony of Judge Rodgers was taken by his court reporter. During the two days, 26 witnesses presented themselves and gave testimony in their own way with only an occasional question from the members of the Committee.

Mr. Snyder, Vice President and Manager of the Sharon plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation, appeared, together with 18 other employees of the Company who were eye witnesses to violence at the Sharon plant.

Public officials appeared as follows:

Herman M. Rodgers, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Mercer County

Richard Knowles, Sheriff of Mercer County
William E. Stuart, Chief of Police of Sharon
Michael J. Dunn, Mayor of Sharon

The following also appeared:

A Mrs. Haggard, whose husband is employed by Sharon Steel Corporation

Eugene Dyll, President of I. U. E. Local 617

Henry Gunesch, business agent of I. U. E Local 617

Moving pictures were shown evidencing violence and disorder

Mr. Snyder offered in evidence as a written exhibit a running account of day by day incidents of violence and disorder at the Sharon plant and in the vicinity.

Messrs. Dyll and Gunesch of the I. U. E. gave their testimony by reading from prepared statements which were handed to the Committee.

During the two days of hearing everyone expressing a desire to testify was allowed to do so.

Findings of Fact

On the basis of sworn testimony, the Committee makes the following findings of fact:

1. From October 16, 1955, and continuing to the time of the investigation there had been a strike of certain of the employees of the Sharon plant of Westinghouse Electric Corporation. COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 470, PRINTER'S No. 232, RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 470, Printer's No. 232, entitled "An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905) entitled 'An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds' changing in certain cases the limitations as to width of vehicles and loads allowed on the highways."

Section 902 of The Vehicle Code prohibits the use on Pennsylvania highways of any vehicle (except fire-fighting equipment, street sweepers, snow plows and other similar machinery) whose total width exceeds ninety-six inches. This bill would authorize a total maximum width of one hundred two inches for vehicles loaded with sewer pipes when these vehicle are operated on highways twenty feet or more in width.

The stated purpose for engrafting this sort of an exception on Section 902 of The Vehicle Code is to permit a more efficient and economical loading of cement sewer pipes for motor transportation. And yet, I am advised that in order to accomplish this new loading arrangement for sewer pipes a width of one hundred five inches is essential and that an increase from ninety-six to one hundred two inches, as proposed by this bill, will be of little or no value to the industry.

But, howover that may be, my veto of this bill rests on a much broader basis. Maximum permissible widths for motor vehicles are not determined arbitrarily; they are founded on well-established safety factors and on the carrying capacity of our highway system. To create a supeciol classification for one type of vehicle would be wholly disruptive of these essential patterns of uniformity and would undoubtedly impede the efficient and equitable administration and enforcement of the provisions of The Vehicle Code.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

SENATE BILL No. 543, PRINTER'S No. 231, RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 543, Printer's No. 231, entitled "An Act to further amend clause (f) of section nine hundred three of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled 'An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officer mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds' by changing the maximum gross weight and axle load of certain commercial motor vehicles."

Subsection (f) of Section 903 of The Vehicle Code presently provides that no vehicle shall be operated upon any highway with weight in excess of 18,000 pounds upon any tandem axle, or with weight in excess of 22,400 pounds upon any other axle, or with weight in excess of 800 pounds upon any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of tire on such wheel. This bill would raise from 18,000 to 20,000 pounds the maximum tandem axle weight of three-axle commercial motor vehicles. In other words, this bill will authorize a combined axle weight of 40,000 pounds on tandem axles.

I am advised by the Department of Highways, which opposes this legislation, that 16,000 pounds for each axle of a tandem system is the weight recommended by the American Association of State Highway Officials, and that about 80% of Pennsylvania's roads and bridges are built to that standard. In 1943, Pennsylvania increased the allowable weight from 16,000 to 18,000 pounds, and it remains so to this day. Moreover, by Act No. 70, approved June 30, 1955, the maximum allowable weight on single axles was increased from 20,000 pounds to 22,400 pounds and the total gross weight of three-axle vehicles was increased from 40,000 to 47,000 pounds.

These proposed increases in tandem axle weights will require the posting of weight limitations on thousands of bridges throughout the Commonwealth and will impose a minimum of 20% more traffic wear on the State's highway system. Consequently, if this bill were to become law, the maintenance and reconstruction costs of our highways and bridges would be substantially increased.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

SENATE BILL No. 1002, PRINTER'S No. 651, RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1002, Printer's No. 651, entitled "An Act amending the act of January 8, 1952 (P. L. 1851) entitled 'An act providing for the sentencing of persons convicted of certain crimes to an indeterminate sentence having a minimum of one day and a maximum of life in certain cases authorizing the criminal courts to impose such a sentence and certain temporary confinement in connection therewith requiring psychiatric examinations of such persons before the imposition of such a sentence conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Welfare and the Pennsylvania Board of Parole and providing for the parole and reparole or absolute discharge of persons so sentenced and the procedure relating thereto' regulating bail for persons charged with commission of sex crimes."

This bill is constitutionally invalid in that it denies a prisoner bail in a non-capital case in violation of Article 1, Section 14 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

For this reason, the bill is not approved.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

APPROVED AND SIGNED SENATE BILL No. 997, PRINTER'S No. 608

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 21, 1956.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 997, Printer's No. 608, entitled "An Act amending the act of June 27, 1923 (P. The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I just want to say, to those of us who are still here, that you get a great deal of pleasure out of a Session and sometimes you get some disappointment We expect that in this particular field of endeavor. However, there is one disappointment that I really feel deeply. It is not so much a disappointment in the matter of the gentleman whose name is at stake or whose career is being stalled for the moment, but it is a question of the Senate itself.

Over the many years that this Senate has been in existence, there has been a certain bond of understanding and a certain bond of friendship which develops between the Members on both sides. I have found, as you have often heard me say, that when we go outside the railing, all of us realize that that which we do inside the railing is done for the purposes of putting into effect the principles that our Parties believe in and that we subscribe to. There is no quarrel with that nor any complaint on the part of any decent citizen or on the part of any of the Membership of this Senate. However, within recent days, the Governor sent to this Senate for confirmation the name of a young man who was a Member of this Senate at one time. If he were a man whose character was in question or his ability was questionable, I could understand some hesitancy on the part of the Senate to give its blessing to this appointment.

I am wondering what repercussions may come in the future. I am wondering whether or not we are breaking down a tradition that all of us have felt was part of the Senate itself, as much a part as the many privileges that we have as Senators and the many duties that we perform. I am very disappointed, both as a person and as a Member of this Senate, that we have strayed from this long cherished and long honored, time-honored, tradition. I am disappointed because, first, the young man has to make a decision; one by which he must leave a position to which he was elected by the people and take, if he so desires, a position which he is honored to be named to by the Governor of this Commonwealth.

The Governors, history has proven, have never had too much of an inclination to name former Members of the Senate to positions of responsibility. For some reason or other, they never search in this field of experience for the men to fill the very many offices in government, for which they are well qualified through experience and temperament to perform the duties of the office. It is on rare occasions that any Governor selects for his official family, in an important post, a former Member of the Senate. Over the years we have felt that the appointment of that man, alone, was a credit to the Membership of the Senate as it existed at the time of the appointment and an honor to the Members who belonged to the Senate prior to that time.

So, again, I say to the Republican Members of this Senate that if it is at all humanly possible for you to gather together this afternoon, or even this morning, to undo that which I believe is a lasting injury to the dignity, to the tradition and to the credit of this Body. Too often we are misunderstood through lack of experience or lack of understanding of the problems of this Body. We only add to that misunderstanding when we, ourselves, will not honor a Member of this Senate when the Chief Executive has selected him for an important post.

Mr. President, I refer to John Byrne, Councilman-at-Large in the City of Philadelphia, a former Member of this Body, who has been selected by the Governor to be a Member of the Turnpike Commission of the Commonwealth. I say to the Membership of this Senate that he would add to that body; he would give to it the benefit of his experience he earned in close association with many Members of this Senate, his work in the committees and his ability to make decisions upon the floor on important matters dealing with the welfare of the peoples of this State. To my mind, it would be a great credit to this Body that it would have accepted without question, unless, as I have said, any former Member has had a period of degradation in character after he had left the Body, and if that were the case I am sure the Governor, in the first place, would never have named him nor would he have been considered for any position, let alone a position of such honor and a position of such great credit.

I plead to you Members who are remaining here in this Senate today to appeal to those among you who have misunderstood the motives as well as the intent of the naming of this gentleman, our former colleague, John Byrne, to the position on the Turnpike Commission. Your refusal sets in motion, again, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, that time-honored opposition by those who have never served in the Legislative Body to any kind of recognition to those who serve in the Legislative Body by those in the administrative branch of government. I say that you have stricken from the rolls of time-honored tradition one of its most cherished of all its positions. We have set aside something that I am sorry to say will be very hard to recapture in the future.

During the twenty-two years that I have served here, I have been one of the sponsors on every piece of legislation that has elevated the dignity and the position of this Senate, both in the eyes of the people and in the eyes of our administrative and judicial branches of government. I have tried to be a leader in a sense that I felt if I were a Member of this Body, it should be recognized for what it is, one-third of the triumvirate which governs the people of the Commonwealth.

Of all of the disappointments that I have felt as a person, throughout the years, this letdown today on this selection and confirmation of a former Member of this Body will be hard to erase. I hope you can retract; I hope you can reconsider and look at it in the light of the greater good rather than the political expediency. I beg of you to reconsider your position.

RECESS

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 12:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

EXPRESSING APPRECIATION OF KINDNESSES EXTENDED DURING ILLNESS

Mr. DERK. Mr. President, during my recent illness I have tried to express my appreciation through letters, cards and telephone calls, as well as personally here on the floor, to my many friends that I have acquired in my short stay here in the Senate.

Mr. President, I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone here, clerks, Senators, Lieutenant-Governor and all, for the very kind wishes and the nice things you have said and done during my illness.

Again, thank you all and I hope you will have a very, very happy and successful summer and the best of health.

SENATOR BERNARD B. McGINNIS ESCORTED TO LECTERN

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I would like to have the privilege of escorting my distinguished colleague from the Forty-second Senatorial District over to the lectern on the right side for a little official duty which he performs, I believe, at the closing of every Session and, with your permission, I will escort him there.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Armstrong has the permission of the Chair and of all the Members of the Senate.

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 2104, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 7, 1937 (P. L. 589) entitled as amended "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth under certain terms conditions and limitations of certain streets in cities of the first class as State highways and for the improvement construction reconstruction resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of said streets . . ." changing certain routes and adding a new route

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. PECHAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, before making the final motion of this Session of the Senate, I would like to make a few remarks

Mr. President and my colleagues of the Senate, I, like Doctor Derk, was ill during this Session and I, too, am very grateful and thankful to the many friends that I have made not only here on the Senate floor on both sides, but the many friends throughout the Commonwealth who wrote, telegraphed, and sent flowers and gifts to me during my illness. I am sure that as a result of their interest in me, my recuperation was accelerated. I am happy to report that I am feeling better, ready to go back into the mines and look down-in-the-mouth as we, in the dental profession, say.

I would feel remiss in my duty if I did not thank my "Pop-Pop" here, our President pro tempore; the Lieutenant-Governor; my very good friend, the Senate Majority Leader, Rowland Mahany; Senator Berger; John Dent, the Minority Leader; the Minority Whip, Doctor Ruth; the fellow on the third team who did a lot of battle with me, Bill Lane, who I am sorry is not here today; and every Member of this Senate for the very splendid cooperation we had on our side. We went into a lot of extra innings. This Session should have adjourned, I would say, by the last of June or July, but as you know we are quitting almost twelve months later from last June.

Mr. President, I do not know which side feels they came out the bigger winner. I am sure that we Republicans feel that we did the finest thing for the people in the Commonwealth that could be done, and I am sure that Senator Dent feels that his side did a better job than we did. However, we are going to let the people decide in November who was most successful or who did the better job. I am sure that both sides were sincere in their efforts. I feel that both sides did not do what was most expedient politically, but what they felt was the best thing for the people of the Commonwealth.

I am sorry in one way that we are adjourning today, because we have a very distinguished gentleman of the Senate who is going to celebrate his eightieth birthday in a few days and we are all going to miss being with him on that memorable occasion. Therefore, Harve, on behalf of the Senators from both sides, we want to wish you a very happy birthday on June 4 and we are all looking forward to seeing you next January.

I also want to say something about the employees of the Senate. The Chief Clerk, Secretary of the Senate, Librarian, pages and the boys in the rear have all done a swell job and we are going to miss you all. On behalf of the Senators, we want to thank you very, very much.

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, now that the hour of adjournment has arrived, I am very happy to make the motion, on this very historic day, for adjournment.

Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn sine die.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. This being the day and hour fixed by Concurrent Resolution for the final adjournment and the hour of 1:45 o'clock, p. m., having arrived, I hereby declare the 141st Regular Session of the Senate of Pennsylvania adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, May 22, 1956

The House met at 9:00 a. m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, offered the following prayer:

The blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit rest and abide upon you and your loved ones, now and forevermore. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, May 21, 1956 will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 2096.

An act amending the act of June 1, 1889 (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" requiring additional reports and changing the due date of certain payments of capital stock tax and franchise tax and further providing for the computation and payment of the tax by domestic corporations joint stock associations limited partnerships and companies

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 1, line 6, by striking out after the second word "and" the following: "changing the gross receipts fraction applicable to foreign corporations" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "further providing for the computation and payment of the tax by domestic corporations joint stock associations limited partnerships and companies";

Amend Section 1, page 5, line 6, by striking out after the word "of" the word "April" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "June"; line 7, by inserting after the word "thereafter" the words "on or before the thirtieth day of April"; line 16, by inserting after the word "than" the following: "six months after the end of the next preceding fiscal year ending in one thousand nine hundred fifty-six and"; line 19, by inserting after the word "year" the following: "ending in one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven and thereafter"; page 7, line 13, by striking out after the word "law" all of Section 2 as follows:

"Section 2 Subsection (b) (A) of section 21 of the act amended September 27, 1955 (P. L. 643) March 15, 1956 (Act 395) is amended to read

"Section 21 * * *

"(b) Every foreign corporation joint-stock association limited partnership and company whatsoever from which a report is required under the twentieth section hereof shall be subject to and pay into the treasury of the Commonwealth annually through the Department of Revenue a franchise tax at the rate of five mills upon a taxable value to be determined in the following manner The actual value of its whole capital stock of all kinds including common special and preferred shall be ascertained in the manner prescribed in the twentieth section of this act and shall then be divided into three equal parts

"(1) Of one third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the value of the taxpayer's tangible property not actually and exclusively used in manufacturing situated within the Commonwealth and whose denominator is the value of all the taxpayer's tangible property wherever situated

"(2) Of another third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by mpltiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the expenditures of the taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to its employes not exclusively engaged in manufacturing in this Commonwealth and assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the total expenditures of the taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to all its employes

"(3) Of the remaining third such portion shall be attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth as shall be found by multiplying said third by a fraction whose numerator is the amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from business not strictly incident or appurtenant to manufacturing in this Commonwealth assignable to this Commonwealth as hereinafter provided and whose denominator is the amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from all its business For the purpose of this section gross receipts heretofore or hereafter received shall not include receipts from the sale redemption maturity or exchange of securities except those held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of its trade or business

"The sum of the amounts determined in accordance with the foregoing three rules shall be the taxable value In a case where only two of the foregoing three rules are applicable the remaining third equal part of the value of the entire capital stock shall be divided into two equal parts each of which shall be apportioned in accordance with one of the remaining two rules If only one of the three rules is applicable that part of the entire capital stock attributed to business carried on within the Commonwealth shall be determined solely by that rule

The amount assignable to this Commonwealth of expenditures of the taxpayers for wages salaries commissions or other compensation to its employes shall be such expenditures for the taxable year as represent the wages salaries commissions or other compensation of employes not chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth

The amount of the taxpayer's gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth shall be (1) the amount of its gross receipts for the taxable year except those negotiated or effected in behalf of the taxpayer by agents or agencies chiefly situated at connected with or sent out from the premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth and except rents and royalties and interest and dividends (2) rentals or royalties from property situated or from the use of patents within this Commonwealth and (3) dividends and interest except such dividends and interest attributable to the business conducted on premises maintained by the taxpayer outside the Commonwealth If a taxpayer maintains an office warehouse or other place of business in a state other than this Commonwealth for the purpose of reducing its tax under this subsection the Department of Revenue shall in determining the amount of its gross receipts from business assignable to this Commonwealth include therein the gross receipts attributed by the taxpayer to the business conducted at such place of business in another state

In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office in the State of Pennsylvania but performed outside the State the gross receipts under such contracts shall be assignable outside the State except that if the activities under any such contract to which the gross receipts are attributable shall occur partly within the State and partly outside the State such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in Pennsylvania under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total costs incurred for the taxable year In the case of construction contracts negotiated or effected at an office outside the State but performed in the State the gross receipts under such contract shall be assignable to the State except that if the activities under any such contract to which the gross receipts are attributable shall occur party within the State and partly outside the State such proportion of the gross receipts under said contract shall be assignable to Pennsylvania as the direct and indirect costs incurred in the State under the contract for the taxable year bear to the total cost incurred thereunder for the taxable year

A rule shall not be deemed to be inapplicable merely because all the tangible property or the expenditures of a taxpayer for wages salaries commissions or other compensation or the gross receipts of the taxpayer are found to be situated incurred or received without the Commonwealth

Northwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection (b) the franchise tax of five mills imposed by subsection (b) on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty one thousand nine hundred fifty-one one thousand nine hundred fifty-two one thousand nine hundred fifty-three one thousand nine hundred fifty-four one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and one thousand nine hundred fifty-six and for fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty one thousand nine hundred fifty-one one thousand nine hundred fifty-two one thousand nine hundred fifty-three one thousand nine hundred fifty-four one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and one thousand nine hundred fifty-six shall apply to the taxation of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquor without excluding from the numerators of the applicable fractions tangible property actually and exclusively used in manufacturing compensation of employes exclusively engaged in manufacturing and gross receipts from business strictly incident or appurtenant to manufacturing

After said ten year period the provisions of this subsection shall apply to the taxation of corporation limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes

Section 21 (a) That every domestic corporation other than corporations of the first class non profit corporations and cooperative agricultural associations not having capital stock and not conducted for profit and every joint-stock association limited partnership and company whatsoever from which a report is required under the twentieth section hereof shall be subject to and pay into the treasury of the Commonwealth annually through the Department of Revenue a tax at the rate of five mills upon each dollar of the actual value of its whole capital stock of all kinds including common special and preferred as ascertained in the manner prescribed in said twentieth section except that for the taxable year 1957 and for any taxable year thereafter a domestic corporation limited partnership joint-stock association or company subject to the tax imposed herein may elect for any taxable year to compute and pay its tax under and in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b) of this section 21 provided that the tax of five mills imposed by this subsection on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty one thousand nine hundred fifty-one one thousand nine hundred fifty-two one thousand nine hundred fifty-three one thousand nine hundred fifty-four one thousand nine hundred fifty-five one thousand nine hundred fifty-six one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven or for the fiscal years beginning in the calendar years one thousand nine hundred forty-seven one thousand nine hundred forty-eight one thousand nine hundred forty-nine one thousand nine hundred fifty one thousand nine hundred fifty-one one thousand nine hundred fifty-two one thousand nine hundred fifty-three one thousand nine hundred fifty-four one thousand nine hundred fifty-five one thousand nine hundred fifty-six one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven shall apply to the taxation of capital stock of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors provided further that after said eleven year period the provisions of this section shall not apply to the taxation of the capital stock of corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for manufacturing purposes which is invested in and actually and exclusively employed in carrying on manufacturing within the State excepting companies engaged in the distilling of liquors and such as enjoy and exercise the right of eminent domain but every corporation limited partnership or joint-stock asstciation organized for the purpose of manufacturing shall pay the State tax of five mills herein provided upon such proportion of its capital stock if any as may be invested in any property or business not strictly incident or appurtenant to the manufacturing business in addition to the local taxes assessed upon its property in the district where located if being the object of this proviso to relieve from State taxation only so much of the capital stock as is invested purely in the manufacturing plant and business page 17, line 5, by striking out after the word "Section" the figure "3" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "2"; line 8, by inserting after the word "basis" the following:

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as reducing the amount of the payment on account of the tax required to be made upon the filing of the tentative report for the taxable years 1956 and 1957

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 1825, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (i) of section four of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 604), entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth; creating a State Highway and Bridge Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct, reconstruct, improve, maintain, equip, furnish, and operate highway and bridge projects, and roadside rests, and to lease the same, and to fix and collect fees, rentals, and charges for the use thereof; authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority, and providing for the payment of such bonds, and the rights of the holders thereof; and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency; and authorizing the Department of Highways to grant, assign, convey or lease to the Authority lands, easements, or rights of way of the Commonwealth and interests therein, and to acquire lands therefor; authorizing said Authority and the Department of Highways to enter into agreements providing for mutual cooperation in furtherance of the construction of any project hereby authorized; granting the right of eminent domain; empowering said Authority to sell and convey projects and property to the Commonwealth; and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act; and making an appropriation," by increasing the power of the Authority to borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness therefor in certain cases.

And has appointed Messrs. WADE, DIEHM and BARR a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives, (already appointed) on the subject of the differences between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WALLACE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, today there was a statement made on this floor, and with the permission of the House I would like to read it.

> Mr. JUMP asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.
> "Mr. Speaker, I want to take the opportunity at this time to thank the Appropriations Committee, the Committee of Conference and the Members of the House for their cooperation in the passage of the appropriation bill for the state aided hospitals. The Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, the Mercy Hospital and the Wyoming Valley Hospital, all in my district, will benefit by the increased appropriation."

Members of the House, as a matter of record the Legislators of Luzerne County always took an interest in the welfare of our hospitals in Luzerne County, to say the least. I quote a sentence in the last paragraph of his statement, ". . . all in my district, will benefit by the increased appropriation."

For the information of all the people in Luzerne County, each and every Representative is overwhelmed by the increased appropriation given by the House, the Senate and the good graces of a Democratic administration. The increased appropriations were needed because of the depressed area in which we live.

Therefore, it should be expressly understood that no one Legislator should receive the credit, all the Legislators from Luzerne share it, for the splendid appropriation given to each hospital in Luzerne County.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we have finally come to the closing minutes of the 1955 session of the Legislature, but before the final gavel falls ending this, the longest session in Pennsylvania history, I wish to ackonwledge my gratitude to many people for the gracious and invaluable assistance given to me as Majority Floor Leader, without which I would have lost the will to continue as Floor Leader many months ago.

My thanks first to the Members of this House, especially to those on the Rules Committee, the Whip, and others whose advice I sought continually, who gave generously of their time and talent in order to advance the legislative program. The devotion and good nature of the majority party Members and their support of my efforts as Floor Leader greatly lightened my burden.

Thanks, too, to the Members of the minority party for their courteous manifestation of good-will toward my office. Their opposition to the causes advocated by this side of the House, while determined, were never tainted with any personal ill-will, and for this I am grateful.

My thanks to the Speaker of the House, who has presided with great ability and fairness to both sides. Without his constant advice and counsel and expressions of faith in me, my path would indeed have been dark and difficult on many occasions. It is my hope that in some small ways I have been able, in return, to make the burdens of his position more tolerable.

My thanks also to the able Minority Leader and Whip for their intelligent and courteous cooperation during the session. It has been a steady source of satisfaction to me in the discharge of my duties and has expedited the business of the House.

Also to Ed Moore, our able Parliamentarian, who is now taking a much-deserved vacation and rest in Europe (at the insistence of the Speaker and myself, but at his own expense), for his untiring efforts to assist me in arranging each day's program with a view to full utilization of the Members' time while in attendance. His sage advice and good nature have sustained many Floor Leaders.

To my valued Secretary, Louise Kling, and Administrative Assistant, Bert Murphy, and the many House and Senate employes from the Chief Clerk on down I say thanks. They have been most helpful and pleasant to work with.

Thanks also to Henry Leader and Roy Schaefer, the legislative liaison agents of the administration, whose ability and devotion to duty cannot be praised too highly. Their cooperation with my office was magnificent.

To the very able members of the Press who saw to it that I never got lonesome for a moment, either day or night, I say thanks. Many thanks. Their kindness was matched only by their insistence, which knows no equal. Their reporting was fair, complete and accurate and my respect for them is deep and sincere. My one complaint is that, whatever their salaries might be, they are underpaid.

Finally, I wish to thank the various representatives of groups interested in legislative activities and the countless thousands of citizens of Pennsylvania, who took the time to write me on legislation, for their courtesy and to offer my apologies to those I could not talk to or whose letters remained unanswered. There simply was not enough time to see everybody or answer all the letters.

In concluding these remarks, and especially for the reason that I may not pass this way again as a Floor Leader, may I say that the work, while hard on one's nervous system and private business, has been a delightful experience and one for which I am truly grateful. My life has been enriched by it, and this is ample compensation for the many long and arduous hours of labor it has involved. It is my hope that my services have been of some value to my constituents and the citizens of the Commonwealth.

So, I say au revoir to the Members, the employes, and the people who have worked in and visited this Legislative Hall during this session, until next January.

God go with you!

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JUMP asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Wallace read the statement I was supposed to have made here today before this House and he did not complete the statement. I would like to re-read it.

> Mr. Speaker, I want to take the opportunity at this time to thank the Appropriations Committee, the Committee of Conference and the Members of the House for their cooperation in the passage of the appropriation bill for the state aided hospitals. The Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, and the Wyoming Valley Hospital, all in my district, will benefit by the increased appropriation.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I believe I thanked all for their cooperation, the Members and the Committees.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MUSTO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, as the senior Member on the Democratic side of the House from Luzerne County, I wish to apologize to anyone who misunderstands the position that any Member on either side of the House has taken.

I do hope at no time the day shall come when any Legislator or any political party seeks to gain prestige from the sacrifices and suffering of the people in our Commonwealth.

I am proud as a Member of this House of the consideration all the hospitals in Pennsylvania have received, not only Luzerne County, because I happen to be one who is lucky enough to send many patients to the many hospitals throughout Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FRANK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the many first-termers, I want to thank each and every one for the cooperation we have received. Seventeen months ago I came here as a confused Legislator, and I would like to tell you I am still confused.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk, Mr. Long.

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL

The CHIEF CLERK (Benjamin L. Long). Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, this has been a most unusual and unique session of the Legislature. I do not think there is any other session that could possibly be compared with it. Therefore, it is only fitting and proper that this extraordinary and unique session of the House should have been presided over by a unique and outstanding Speaker. (And I make no reference to the Latin derivative of one horse. I understand the Speaker has machinery of many horsepower which he uses to cultivate his broad acres.)

Seriously, I believe this Speaker has been outstanding among all the great and distinguished Speakers of the past with respect to his intelligence, with respect to his independence, with which we are all most familiar; with respect to his intellectual attainments and deep-seated interest in public education, and, particularly, and I have noted since I have been acting as Parliamentarian, he has a very unusual sense of parliamentary direction, of ingenuity and integrity in directing the proceedings of the House.

Aside from all this, I believe the present Speaker will be forever remembered for his long and deepseated interest in the membership of this House and their welfare, in the integrity of the parliamentary process and in championing the integrity of this House.

It, therefore, is an unusual privilege for me at this time to have the honor to present to our Speaker, Hiram G. Andrews, this ceremonial gavel of ivory. I know he will not retire to any ivory tower to use it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

No one who has not had the privilege of presiding over a body such as this can really appreciate the emotions that surge through the mind and heart of one who has been privileged to preside.

As I see the Members in this House who are here today I gaze into, in the main, friendly faces. As I think of the House as a whole, I can call to mind the desire I have cherished these many years for and on behalf of this House. I have seen the power of the judiciary grow, I have seen the reach and sweep of administration agencies grow, I have seen the increased emoluments of all agencies of our government except the legislative grow, and I have seen an increased public acceptance of all the agencies of our government grow with the exception of this body.

Long ago I believed that I would be privileged to serve in this House until those who had been faithful in the public service would be entitled to the same pension recognition as accorded all others who labor in the public vineyard, that I might live to see the day when there would be accorded them the status of valued public servants recognized in terms of the emoluments paid.

So far as this General Assembly is concerned, those two objectives with the help of Members on both sides of this House have been achieved.

There are many other things which have been close to my heart these many years. Only the older Members can realize the difference between this dignified close of a great legislative body and the tumult and confusion that characterized our closings in the departed days.

We have grown in our observance of parliamentary practice. We have grown in our consideration for the honest views entertained on both sides of the center aisle. We have witnessed in this session of the General Assembly, notwithstanding the occasional animosities which may have arisen, a greater degree of give-and-take, a greater disposition to compromise and to reach just decisions beneficial to the public. I believe not even the oldest Member can recall an occasion when there has been a finer spirit prevailing in the closing days and a finer spirit than has characterized the entire session.

Of course, I have heard one of the older Members sing what might be termed a "swan song." That is all right for the older Members, perhaps they are passing. As for myself, I see no reason why I might not be standing upon the dawn of an increased sphere of usefulness, perhaps, in this body.

Since we have no gentlemen of the Press here today, I would say that my idea for the next session so far as this House is concerned is a Democratic majority of 25 or a Republican majority of 2. Indeed, I have given instructions to the Democratic State Chairman that if he cannot produce a Democratic majority of at least 25, then it is his duty to see to it that the Republicans have a majority of 2. He says he does not know whether he can tailor it that fine or not, but at least the idea is worth trying.

I appreciate this dainty memento. I will never use it in the closing hours of this session because I want to preserve it in its pristine purity without a nick.

The other day a group of school children were passing down the aisle and one of them, a little girl about six, stopped near the desk of the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Gibson. She said, "Is that man up there mad at everybody?"

Mr. Gibson replied, "No, he isn't mad at anybody."

"Well, if he isn't mad at everybody, why does he do so much pounding?"

I want to close by saying that during this session as Speaker, I have never been mad at anybody. If I have unintentionally offended anyone, I ask that they will view that misstep kindly. I have endeavored to rate you all, irrespective of the side of the aisle upon which you are seated, as the representatives of the people of a soverign state. I have felt and I have tried to recognize you impartially because I know that only by respecting the dignity of the position each one of you holds is it possible to preserve a democracy.

I do not think I will go down the years as a strong Speaker, because I have not endeavored to control the action of the Democratic Caucus by any power the Speaker may have, I have not endeavored to control the action of any committee by and through the powers the Speaker might exercise and I have not endeavored to control the action of this House by arbitrary action, or by arbitrary rulings.

I have not regarded, and perhaps in this I have been remiss, the Speakership as purely a partisan office. I have considered myself responsible, to see to it that the Rules and Regulations of this House, its traditions, were respected. I have tried to keep my parliamentary rulings in line with that thought.

I shall retire with a smile on my lips and a tear in my heart.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. This gavel will certainly be a very nice thing to put in his memory chest but at this time, I think for the last time during this session, I now turn over the working gavel of this House to the Speaker of this House.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm for presiding.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has before him a set of directions compiled by our Parliamentarian before he sailed to Europe. There are various points which he said the Speaker should privately note, but points which the Chair will publicly note.

First, the Chair would like to be assured by the respective Floor Leaders and by the Chief Clerk that all bills pending have been checked and cleared in both House and Senate.

Is that the assurance, Mr. Majority Leader?

Mr. READINGER, Yes, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, In the presence of the House, signed the same.

RESOLUTION

PENNSYLVANIA FEDERATION OF DEMOCRATIC WOMEN, INC.

The SPEAKER laid before the House a resolution adopted by the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women, Inc., at their meeting at Easton, commending the Governor and other state officials, and urging the adoption of pending legislation relative to the State Board of Censors.

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 69

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1955.

The opportunity which our Nation offers for a person to freely engage in a small business enterprise is one of our most important beckoning features to those on foreign shores It is a feature of our society of which we are justly proud for small businesses have been highly important in the establishment and development of our Nation

Mergers consolidations and other jointures have in recent years produced business giants capable of doing greater volumes of business at far less expense and as a result thereof small businessess are badly in need of assistance Because of the importance of small businesses to our economy and general welfare it is our duty to insure their survival

An equitable share of the Commonwealth's business and contracts should be allotted among our small businesses as often as possible The establishment of a loan procedure should also be considered to encourage the establishment of new businesses and the continuance of existing small businesses There is also a possibility that the present rates of taxation imposed upon our small businessess are too great therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the Joint State Government Commisison make a thorough study of the taxes and other problems faced by small businesses within our Commonwealth

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 107

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 1, 1955.

There is vastly increased use of both surface and ground water for domestic industrial agricultural irrigational recreational and related purposes The continued expansion of water use may create shortages of these valuable resources There is an inevitable relationship between the utilization of waters and the utilization of other mineral resources

The act of June 22, 1937 P. L. 1897 has declared the discharge of sewage or industrial waste or any noxious and deleterious substances into the waters of this Commonwealth which is or may become inimical and injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the uses of such waters for domestic or industrial consumption or for recreation not to be a reasonable or natural use of such waters and to be a public nuisance and against public policy

The Commonwealth recognizes a public interest in the quantity quality and utilization of these waters and a duty upon the General Assembly to insure that such waters are conserved and that their use is allotted in a fair and equitable manner therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the Joint State Government Commission be authorized to study the surface and ground water resources in the Commonwealth and the inter-relationships between the utilization of water resources and other mineral resources and the urban and industrial development of the Commonwealth and more particularly to determine the adequacy or inadequacy of existing laws and to ascertain what new laws if any may be necessary to properly protect these valuable resources The State Planning Board and the various administrative agencies of the Commonwealth now engaged in studies of these vital problems shall cooperate with the Commission in this study

The Commission shall report its findings at the next regular session of the General Assembly

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 163

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 13, 1956.

The Upper Allegheny River Valley last week suffered the most disastrous flood since 1865 The Borough of Warren alone has been damaged reckoned in money far in excess of a million dollars Most other up-river communities have suffered in proportion

In contrast Pittsburgh and the Lower Allegheny Valley have incurred but little damage The reason clearly is that sizable heads of water were held back by the system of flood control dams in operation for the benefit of the lower river

This system was authorized twenty years ago by the seventy-fourth Congress of the United States However the flood control dams for the upper river still remain in the preliminary planning stage notably the great dam to be built athwart the Allegheny above Warren reportedly near Kinzua

Continued in action in proceeding with the construction of the upper river flood control system commencing with the main dam above Warren means a heavy handicap to the northwestern Pennsylvania area an ever-to-be-reckoned-with threat to life and property and an active and deadening threat to the economic development of the region therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to expedite to the utmost the appropriations and any additionally needed enabling legislation to bring into being the main upper Allegheny Dam and other uncompleted units of the Allegheny Valley flood control system without further delay and be it further

Resolved That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 165

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1956.

Whereas the increasing complexity of government makes it more important than ever that the people be given opportunties to understand and judge from first hand information and

Whereas Station WTPA-TV through its weekly program entitled Capitol Correspondents in which experienced and trained newspapermen interview legislative and governmental officials of widely varying political beliefs gives such an opportunity and

Whereas it is essential that such media of public opinion be encouraged and strengthened in the best interests of the people

Therefore be it

Resolved that the House of Representatives (with the Senate concurring) commend Station WTPA-TV of Harrisburg its management and employes for the great public service they are providing by the continued presentation of the Capitotl Correspondents program and its free interchange of ideas during the current session of the General Assembly

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 22, 1956.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that this regular session of the General Assembly adjourn Sine Die on the 22nd day of May, 1956, at 1:45, p. m. EST.

NOTIFICATION SENATE IS READY TO ADJOURN SINE DIE

Mr FLACK. Mr. Speaker, we the Committee on the part of the Senate inform the House that the Senate has completed its business and is ready to adjourn sine die this 22nd day of May, 1956 at 1:45 p. m. EST.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Committee on the part of the Senate.

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR

Mr. READINGER offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 22, 1956.

Resolved, That a committee of three members of the House be appointed by the Speaker to wait upon His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, and inform him that the House of Representatives has completed the business of the Session and is now ready to adjourn sine die, and inquire whether there are any further communications he may wish to make to the House of Representatives.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee on the part of the House to wait upon the Governor and inform him that the House is ready to adjourn sine die, and inquire whether there are any further communications he may wish to make, Messrs. READINGER, STANK and CHARLES C. SMITH.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON SENATE

Mr. PETROSKY offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 22, 1956.

Resolved, That a committee of three members of the House of Representatives be appointed by the Speaker to wait upon the Senate, and inform that body that the House of Representatives has completed the business of the Session and is now ready to adjourn sine die.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO WAIT UPON SENATE

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee to wait upon the Senate and inform that body that the House of Representatives is now ready to adjourn sine die, Messrs. PETROSKY, McCANN and Mrs. KOOKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wants to apopogize to the lady from Bucks, Mrs. Kooker.

The chair thought he had arranged to appoint her on the Committee to see the Governor. Instead of that they have scheduled her for the Committee to wait upon the Senate. If the Majority Leader can make an adjustment on those two committees, it would please the Chair.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON SENATE

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, your Committee appointed to inform the Senate that the House is now ready to adjourn sine die has performed its duty.

The SPEAKER. The Committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

As the Chair stated while the lady Member of the Committee was absent, it had been the Chair's intention to appoint the lady a Member of the Committee to wait upon the Governor, but someone switched the program, for which the Chair apologizes.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, your Committee appointed to wait upon the Governor and inform him that the House has completed its business and is ready to adjourn sine die this 22nd day of May, 1956 at 1:45 p. m. EST has performed that duty.

The SPEAKER. The Committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to remark that this gavel, a gift of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, is not a gift which he thinks should be rated as a personal possession. It is rather properly the property of the House.

The Chair will appoint a Committee of three as the custodians of this gavel during the interim to arrange that it be presented to the next Speaker by the membership of the House, together with its traditions and some memories of its prior use.

You see, the difficulty of selecting a Committee at this time is that every Member of the House, particularly the ones who have lingered here, envisions himself as the probable recipient of the gift.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, rise?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, to make a very brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection, the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the Chair that if he is a little confused as to which three Members might be appointed as a safe Committee who would have no motives to be Speaker, I would suggest he select three Democrats.

I think that would put it in safe hands. It is just about hitting the boys now. I would appoint three Democrats, Mr. Speaker, it would be in safe hands then.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would reply, being quite confident that by the following November the gentleman from Philadelphia will have nothing to do except attend to the coal business, he should be a Member of the Committee.

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

The SPEAKER. This being the day and the hour fixed by Concurrent Resolution, adopted by the Senate and the House of Representatives, as the time when this General Assembly shall adjourn sine die, I now declare this 141st Regular Session of the House of Representatives adjourned without day.
